COUNTY SEAT NEWS

The service flag, erected a year ago, at the southeast corner of the court house square, has been taken down, having become faded and torn.

A young man by the name of Marie Hair was arrested a few days ago, by Portland detectives, for forging a check on his adopted father, Dr. E. H. Kuhn. He is charged with purchasing an automobile with the proceeds of the forgery.

Hillsboro is getting quite civilized these days. Chief of police Tews has adopted the plan of putting a notice in automobiles, when found incorrectly parked, asking the owner of the machine to report in the recorder's office on a certain date.

The Hillsboro club, which has had headquarters in the Tamiesie building ever since it has been in existence, will have to find a new meeting place, as the building has been leased to the new firm of Allen & Ireland, for their hardware store.

H. A. Ball, who has been appointed postmaster of this city, has received his bond and will, in a very short time, take over the responsibilities of the office. He will retain all the deputies, as they are under civil service. Mr. Lamkin resigned this office some time ago and says he is glad to get out of it.

Walter Keffer, son of Jasper M. Keffer, while working in a Portland Bakery, fell about twenty-five feet down an elevator shaft, barely escaping with his life. Walter went through the war, was in the midst of the submarine fighting, and came out without a scratch, and had to come home to civil life to become wounded.

At a lone cabin in the hills near Helvetia, a man by the name of Wiedland Bandli, aged eighty years, was found dead, one day last week. He was seen the day before, about his work, but on this particular day he was missed by his neighbors, and an investigation resulted in finding him dead in his cabin. Coroner Limber was called, but every indication proved that he met his death from natural causes. The funeral occurred from the Helvetia church.

The regular monthly meeting of the Hillsboro Post, American Legion, was held in the G. A. R. rooms at the court house, last Tuesday evening, and much business of importance was transacted. Officers were elected to serve until the first annual meeting in May, 1920. President, C. G. Reiter; Vice President, Clifton Bagley; Secretary, Zenas A. Olson; Treasurer, Jake Weil; Executive committee, Archie Pitman, Guy Edison and R. H. Cull. Plans for an extensive publicity and membership campaign are being made.

Lester Ireland, who has been a partner in the Mays Bros. store at North Plains, has purchased an interest in the George Allen Hardware store in this city, which is now located on Third Street, and the store will be greatly enlarged. They expect to put in implements, machinery, furniture and automobile supplies and have arranged to lease the Tamiesie building and will move therein as soon as the lease of Weil Bros. expires Jan. 1. This will be one of the finest stores in the county when they get into their new location.

The many friends of Rev. Skipworth are more than pleased with his return, for the fourth time, to this city. Mrs. Skipworth accompanied her husband to the conference at Salem and on their return home stopped in Portland to see their daughters. They found Miss Rosemary ill with appendicitis, and the next day she underwent an operation. She is recovering nicely, much to the delight of her numerous friends.

Mrs. E. E. Swenson was a county seat visitor Wednesday.

Osteopathic Surgeon is Here. Dr. F. H. Wilson, recently of Redmond, but more recently of Portland, who purchased the Milne property here, has established his home in Beaverton and will shortly open up offices for the practice of Osteopathy and Surgery.
