GRANGE DINNER SUCCESS: PROGRAM PLEASURES THROUGH

Talented Residents of Beaverton and Vicinity Present Entertainment of Unusual Merit—Viands Tempting and Plentiful.

Plentiful and tempting viands graced the tables at the Grange dinner Wednesday night and the large crowd in attendance testified by their satisfied looks and words of praise to the excellence of the service and the liberality of the providers.

Beaverton Grange realized $44.70 toward the liquidation of the encumbrance on their property due to the paving, at this their first of a series of dinners and entertainments planned to meet the cost of the improvement.

The program which followed the dinner was a tribute to the talented people of the community numbered among the numbers and friends of the Grange. The program was as follows:

Song: Old Glory, by the Grange.
Solo: Mrs. J. E. Davis.
Reading: Gossip of the Flowers, Miss Edna Hocken.
Piano Solo: Miss Crete Gray.
Baritone Solo: Harold Bettendorf.
Recitation: Milton Boring.
Reading: J. W. Barnes.
Vocal Duet: Mrs. J. E. Davis and R. L. Tucker.
Reading: Mrs. Christensen.
Liberal applause greeted each of the numbers. Mr. Bettendorf, a young man of Whitford who appeared before a Beaverton audience for the first time, has a very pleasing voice of bell-like clearness and enunciates his tones especially well.

TOOK PART IN PORTLAND RECITAL

Miss Edna Hocken, of Beaverton, was one of the participants in a recital held at Lincoln high school auditorium Saturday evening. Miss Hocken is a talented young lady, who is a pleasing entertainer, sings well and plays charmingly.

BUDGET MEETING TUESDAY

Patrons of School District No. 48 should not overlook the important meeting Tuesday. Not only will the budget for the coming year be allowed but the vacancy in the position of S. H. Davis will be filled.

MRS. LEONARD SURPRISED

Several of the friends of Mrs. W. J. Leonard honored her birthday Monday evening with a surprise for her. Supplied with everything needed for the refreshments, they called at an early hour and made the evening pass only too rapidly with their merry humor and ready wit.

CAME HOME WEDNESDAY

L. B. Wilson, who has been in Emmanuel Hospital four weeks, was brought home Wednesday. He is improving rapidly and will soon be able to be out again. Owing to the bad roads Mr. Wilson was detained at the hospital longer than at first anticipated and finally through the efforts of F. H. Johnston, local manager for the Standard Oil Co., permission was granted by the State Highway Commission for him to be brought home over the new highway. Orton McLeod drove Mr. Wilson's car down to the hospital Wednesday morning and brought Mr. Wilson to his home here. He stood the trip fine and yesterday came to the table for the first time since taken to the hospital.

LOST—Ladies Shopping Bag! Containing one hand bag and small purse containing money, between Portland and Forest Grove, Oregon, perhaps on Barnes Road. Finder notify Lock Box No. 233, Forest Grove P. O. Liberal reward. 46-47

BUSINESS IS GOOD

W. J. Stitt, the new clerk at McGee's store is "some salesman." A customer asked "how do you sell those pineapples?" "Ten cents each." "Give me three." The same customer came back in the afternoon and said "give me three more, those pineapples were fine."
The pineapples happened to be grape fruit. Bill says: "let 'er go as she looks."

STARCH FACTORY DIRECTOR HERE FROM HEPPNER TUESDAY

J. R. Olden Well Pleased with Progress Made by Local Managers—Says Fine Weather Enables Eastern Oregon Farmers to Plow.

J. R. Olden, of Heppner, stockholder in the Pacific Potato Starch Co., was here Tuesday night to look over the plant and view the progress which Manager W. C. Gifford and his assistant, C. T. Colt, are making toward putting Beaverton's leading industry on a profitable basis. He expressed pleasure at the showing which Manager Gifford was able to place before him and he does not hesitate to say that he thinks Beaverton and vicinity has a very promising future.

Commenting on the weather, he states that Eastern Oregon is enjoying a very pleasant fall after a cold snap and that the farmers are now plowing steadily, tractors and big teams turning the land on a scale far greater than anything known in the valley.

THANKSGIVING EVE DATE OF DANCE AT MORSE HALL

The boys of the S. P. Electric shops will give another of their popular dances at Morse Hall on Wednesday evening, November 26. This is Thanksgiving eve and the spirit of the day will be much in evidence at the hop.

SORRENTO CLUB MET WITH MR. AND MR. MCKELL

The Sorrento Card Club spent a very pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McKell last Saturday evening. The usual program of Five Hundred was carried out and refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Doy Gray, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. F. Schaefer and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Leonard.

LAWYER BUYS HOME HERE

Fred Jensen has purchased the A. M. Hocken house recently purchased by L. D. Shellenbarger and now occupied by Mrs. Colt. Owing to the lease which Mrs. Colt holds on the property, Mr. Jensen will not occupy the new home until spring.

MECHANIC TO BUILD

O. V. (Happy) Hill, mechanic at the Stipe Garage, who recently purchased two lots on Watson street between Third and Fourth, is planning to build a home on them in the near future.

SHADOW BOX SOCIAL AT HUBER

A Shadow Box Social and Entertainment will be given on Thanksgiving Eve, November 26, at 7:30 o'clock, by the Parent Teachers Association at the Huber-Aloha School. Every one is invited to come and buy a shadow.

B. W. Peate is boosting for cement sidewalks along Hamilton Boulevard. If all the property owners live up with him, on this ten year proposition, that will be one of the beautiful sections of Beaverton.

ORGAN WANTED—Second hand organ wanted, state condition also price. Address Times Office. 46-2
Mr. Liebrick has set out 500 choice strawberry plants—next summer it will be "pass the short cake, please."
Road Supervisor C. W. Allen, assisted by Mr. Wetters, have been repairing the bridge East of town across the Big Ditch.

LOST HER PURSE

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Morgan, of Forest Grove, were Beaverton visitors Tuesday evening, attempting to locate a handbag and purse which Mrs. Morgan lost on a recent trip to Portland. Both were in a ladies' shopping bag and it is thought that the missing articles were dropped from their car while on the Barnes Road.

DANCE TOMORROW NIGHT AT HUBER WILL BE SURPRISE

Unusual Attractions Offered By Popular Commercial Club at Special Saturday Night Dance Preceding Thanksgiving.

Earlier in the week every reader of this paper residing in this county received from W. J. Lang, secretary of the Huber Commercial Club, a special page of the paper containing announcement of the dance which will be held at the Huber club house tomorrow night. It was intended to have this page in last week's issue but delay in getting some of the attractions for the evening prevented the publication of the page with the regular issue and Mr. Lang took the means of reaching the public via news of his club's proposed gathering.

The dance program consists of full number of modern dances carefully interspersed with old-fashioned dances and a whistler, Dave Fuller by name, who is heralded as the "Human Canary" will aid the union orchestra in giving the best of music including the latest Jazz tunes as well as the older popular airs.
