E. Colby and Charles W. Colby, deceased.

Citation to Benjamin F. Miser and to the Unknown Heirs at law and next of kin of Charles W. Colby and Cora E. Colby, deceased.

In the name of the State of Oregon: You and each of you are hereby cited and required to be and appear in the Court above entitled and at the County Courthouse at Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, on to wit, the 30th day of January, 1920, at 11:00 o'clock A. M., and to them and there show cause, if any there be why an order of the court above entitled should not be entered permitting and directing the sale by the Administrator of the Estate of said decedents of lands belonging to said estate situated in Washington County, Oregon, and described as follows, to wit:

A portion of Section 14, Township 1 South, Range 1 West, Willamette Meridian, Washington County, Oregon, particularly described as commencing at the most southerly southwest corner of the Anthony W.

more or less to the center of County Road No. 669; thence along the center thereof North 88° 31' West 683.6 feet more or less to the West line of said Oleson's land; thence North 114 feet more or less to the place of beginning, containing 1.48 acres.

For the purpose of the payment of debts of said estate.
WITNESS the hand of the Judge of said Court and the seal of said Court at Hillsboro, Oregon, this 23rd day of December, 1919.
J. W. GOODIN,
County Judge.
By H. A. KURATLI,
Clerk of the County Court, Washington County, Oregon.
By EDW. C. LUCE,
Deputy.

WHITFORD HAPPENINGS
The local school gave an excellent program on Wednesday afternoon.
After the program the school was escorted to the community hall near the school house, where a surprise was awaiting Jesus in the form of a Christmas tree. A real Santa Claus was present, adding much to the merriment of the children. Much credit is due the teacher, Miss Marks, also the mothers in the children.
Rex Denney, who was confined to his home during the recent snow storm by tonsillitis, resumed his studies at Lincoln High, Portland, on Monday.

The Whitford Women's Community club was organized on Dec. 4, with fourteen charter members.
Many more are expected to join.
They meet the second and fourth Thursday afternoons of each month.
January 8 is the next meeting day.
The improvement of the community hall in which they meet is to be the first real work of the club.

Mrs. Lous Rice expects her chorus of young people to meet regularly for practice from now on through the winter. There are between 25 and 30 in the chorus. They serenaded the community and Garden Home with Christmas carols on Xmas eve.

Miss Ivy Peterson, who has been spending her vacation with her father and sister, John Peterson and Miss Jessie, returned to Harford, Wash., on Friday. Miss Peterson is principal of the high school at that place.
Miss Edith Kay spent Xmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. May.
Mr. May recently bought the J. M.
Davis place.

Mr. Carl Olsen passed away at the home of his parents on Wednesday evening. The young man recently moved with his parents onto the Jes-

Automobile Insurance

Against stealing is no doubt a wise thing to do, but it is wiser still to procure one of those Auto Theft Signals at the Beaverton Garage and Hardware Company's Store.
They absolutely prevent stealing an automobile and they cost less than insurance. Call and ask about them.

Business keeps up surprisingly well and new goods arrive every day. Do not forget that you save money and time by buying goods in our line at our store.

We carry a very complete line of Auto Accessories, Oils and Gas, and save you money if you buy from us.
We carry a very complete line of household goods—cooking utensils—and hardware and you save money when you deal with us.

We make old furniture and old tinware as good as new.

We have a limited amount of old sacks for sale. If you need any of them we will save you money.

Your welfare is our pleasure.

sen place. He leaves his parents and brothers and a sister to mourn his passing.

Our mail carrier, A. M. Kennedy, was most faithful to his duties during the recent snow storm. On Xmas Day, all he lacked was the whiskers and the reindeer to make him the jolly "old Saint Nick."

Ves Baker, mechanic at the Davis & Hughson garage, is ill with small-pox at his home in Milwaukee, according to reports received here.
He has been in quarantine since Dec.
7.

NOTICE.
All bills incurred by the Beaverton Restaurant prior to January 1, 1920, will be paid by the undersigned. I have sold out but I want to be square and leave Beaverton so that I will feel free to come back at any time, as I like the town. So, if I owe you anything, come and get your money before I leave. SAM ROSSI & CO.

Dr. and Mrs. Karl J. Swenson, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Acklen and Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Nelson were among the Portland guests at the joint installation of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges Saturday night.
