HELP US KEEP GROWING

The Times with next week enlarges to a six column paper. With the continued support of our friends we aim to keep this up and make the Times the liveliest paper in Washington County. Send us the news of your locality. Tell us what happens that you see. Speak a good word for us with advertisers. Think of us when you need printing. Use our columns to help sell your produce. Our prosperity is your gain. Help us to give you more for $1.00 than others get for $2.00. This week's is made up of six five-column pages. Watch us grow

LOMBARD STREET IMPROVING

Chas. A. Esterly, who recently moved here from Huber, has done his part toward building up the town. He bought the Maxzie property and turned a disreputable looking shack into a very fine residence, which he sold to Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Fitzpatrick. He then sold five lots to M. C. McKercher, who has already erected a garage, in which he will live while building a fine bungalow. Mr. Esterly still has more lots but he is boosting the sale of Frank H. Hocken's new subdivision, as he says that will make his lots sell better.

BIRTHS

CHIN CHOW—Sunday night, January 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Chin Chow, a baby girl. This is their sixth daughter.

HILL—Sunday night, January 11, to Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Hill, a son.

TOWLE—Sunday night, January 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Towle, on the Canyon road, a son.

These three, with the W. P. McGee birth noted last week, comprise the our births which Dr. Mason attended within 15 minutes less than 24 hours.

SIX DAYS

Six days the legislature met for the emergency call. They only had, when summoned there

Five amendments, that was all.

Six days for five emergencies, but they soon discovered more. For all bills then were urgent bills, and they passed on ninety-four.

Six days, nine measures to frame up, and a special election day. To let voters themselves decide on the twenty-first of May.

Six days they worked both day and night, the last night as late as three.

Why hold the regular forty days when six days will do, you see?

Six days, my what a lot of time! In the Capitol for six days. They made a way to raise the bonds, but gave themselves no raise.

Six days at three dollars per day. In that time eighteen they drew. Shall we not cut the "regular" out and mark that a "special" too?

O. C. SMITH.
