

LEAP YEAR

DANCE

HUBER COMMERCIAL CLUB

Saturday Night . .

JANUARY 31

Dance Begins at 9:00 o'clock

As usual there will be a good time, good music and refreshments. Ladies, this is Leap Year. Tell him you want to come to this dancing party. Auto stages will run to Portland, Forest Grove and way points after the dance.

Bring Your Friends

Intrusion of Willie.
"Excuse me, aunt! I hate to bother you—but I really think you are sitting on a little snake that I've mislaid."— Lila.

SHORTWOOD

For Sale in Small Lots
SEE
G. H. WOLF

FRED JENSEN

ATTORNEY AT LAW
Cady Building
Hours 8:00 to 10:30 A. M. Daily
Portland Office: 720 Board of Trade.
Scholls Phone.
Beaverton - Oregon

W. E. PEGG

UNDERTAKER AND FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Licensed Embalmer
Calls answered day or night.
Prompt Service
BEAVERTON - Oregon

Two Carloads

Millfeed and carload Alfalfa Hay—Just Arrived.
I expect a carload of Utah Land Plaster the last of the week.

Please give me your order at once to get delivery from this car.

CHAS. BERTHOLD
FEED STORE

THE CAPITOL

News of General Public Interest at the County Seat.

Conductor Frank Allison, of the Southern Pacific, is suffering a nervous breakdown, and has gone to the hospital for treatment.

January 11th, 1920, Rev. Skipworth united in marriage, Harvey W. Hinch, of Portland, and Ruth E. Bates, of Washington county.

Ray Emmott has purchased the fine herd of Holsteins from W. W. Williams, who is retiring from the cattle business, on account of the labor situation.

While mending the battery in his machine the sulphuric acid exploded and burned the face of Irwin Sahnov, very badly. It is feared he may lose his eye sight.

The following marriage licenses were issued the past week: Harry W. Finch and Ruth E. Bates; Edward Rife Lilly and Irene Sellards; Wm. E. Taylor and Chattie Chapman; John Robert Irmiler and Lenora Eldora Jeffers; Arthur C Moore and Paula E. Rankin.

Joseph Shukoaky, a former resident of Washington County, but who, some months ago, was taken to the state hospital at Salem, died there and was brought to this city for burial, the funeral taking place at St. Mathews church. He was a Pole by birth, and so far as is known, has no relatives. His age was 84 years.

Louis Mayes, of Forest Grove, who some time ago leased his 62-acre farm in the Naylor addition to A. A. Hellovet, for a term of five years, has sued the same for $500, for cutting down twenty-six trees of ash and oak, besides numerous little trees, which acted as a break when the creek was high.

Thieves entered the granery of J. Soper, on the Hawthorne place, by breaking the lock, and helped themselves to 25 bushels of oats. He has been missing other things, so recently put locks on all of his buildings, but this lock was forced open. Tracks showed that a machine had carried the grain away.

Ida May Land and Frank Cablar, of the Tigard neighborhood, eloped and went to Portland, and were married. The girl is but sixteen and Cablar and E. W. Cullinson, who made the required license affidavit that the girl was of legal age, are being sought by the officers. The father of the girl says he will prosecute the two men.

Miss Lenora Eldora Jeffers and John Robert Irmiler were married Wednesday of last week at the home of the bride's grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Crew. Rev. E. A. Smith, of Portland, officiated. The house was prettily decorated and the wedding took place at high noon. After a short wedding trip the happy couple will be at home to their many friends at 1608 Fir Street.

At a recent meeting of the Hillsboro Fire Department the following were selected as officers: Frank Walbel, chief; John Hensley, assistant chief; W. O. Morley, president; Lee Oaks, secretary; F. J. Sewell, treasurer. The new chief will proceed to have lines painted marking ten feet from fire hydrants and parking of autos within ten feet of the hydrant will render one liable to arrest.

The following officers were elected at a recent meeting of Scout Harrington Camp, No. 15, U. S. W. V. at their hall in the Court House: Commander, L. H. Shirley, Hillsboro; Senior Vice Commander, Fred Boyd, Carnation; Junior Vice Commander, Garfield Garthofner, Hillsboro; Officer of the day, Hugh S. Rogers, Hillsboro; Officer of the Guard, Daniel Bessemer, Hillsboro; Adjutant and Quartermaster, L. W. Hyde, Hillsboro. Recruit Dixon, of Dilley, a member of the American Legion, who served with the Canadian forces in France and a veteran of the Spanish American War, was initiated. Post Commander Hugh S. Rogers acted as installing officer.

FARM BUREAU ORGANIZATION DATES SET

The Farm Bureau organization committee, of which A. E. Westcott is chairman, have arranged dates of meetings in the leading communities of the county at which time a program of work will be decided upon in that community and a local of the Farm Bureau will be organized. If communities have granges or other farm organizations no new organization will be formed but meetings will be held to determine the lines of work to be undertaken for the coming year.

The schedule of meetings for the county is as follows: All meetings will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon:

- Watts, Jan. 27.
- Banks, Jan. 29.
- Schefflin, Jan. 31.
- Mountaindale, Feb. 3.
- Hillside, Feb. 5.
- North Plains, Feb. 7.
- Bloomington, Feb. 10.
- Laurel, Feb. 12.
- Scholls, Feb. 14.
- Beaverton, Feb. 17.
- Sherwood, Feb. 19.
- Cedar Mills, Feb. 21.
- Helvetia, Feb. 24.
- Hiteon, Feb. 26.
- Tigard, Feb. 28.
- Gauston, Mar. 2.
- David's Hill, Mar. 4.
- Dilley, Mar. 6.
- Verboort, Mar. 9.
- Buxton, Mar. 11.
- Bethany, Mar. 13.

The government has done well so far in ridding the country of the worst of those aliens who have been plotting to overthrow the government. But don't stop at that. Keep your right on until there is not a disloyal person left within our borders. We lived very comfortably before they intruded themselves into our lives and we can get along very nicely after they have been kicked out.

Where Do You Want to Go?

We will take you quickly and safely.
We have a truck fitted with seats for large parties, picnics and dances.
We have two small cars for quick service—to take you to town, over the highway or to hurry you to and from trains.
We have large or small cars for Highway trips.

Beaverton Livery Stables