What H. C. L. Really Means!

Town folks think it's High Cost of Living. Farmers know it's High Cost of Loafing—not on the farm, where the day is sixteen hours long, but in factories and shops, where the workers want to quit after six or seven hours. This H. C. L. plus the H. C. S.—the High Cost of Spending—are the sky-rockets that keep prices up, says

NATIVE PREACHER SUPPORTED BY LOCAL SUNDAY SCHOOL WRITES OF HIS WORK.

Raymond L. Bush Tells of Faith and Works in Darkest Africa—Smallpox and Influenza Scourges.

November 1st, 1919.

Miss Genoieve Watts,
Beaverton, Oregon, U. S. A.
To the Sunday Schools of the Beaverton Circuit Native Preachers Society:

Dear Friends:

Your letter of August 19th just came to me and I am very glad always to hear from you and to see the interest you have in this great work in Africa and your part of the saving of this part of the (truly) dark continent.

I have written you several times before, but at the time that Miss Watts wrote last, you had not heard from us, I am so sorry, and for fear the letters do not get through I shall send a copy of them to you.

I have traveled many miles through the interior and make a careful study of the native evangelists and the outstations where are gathered from day to day so many people waiting to hear the precious words of life and I know of no other two evangelists who are trying harder to bring Jesus to the lost and hungry hearts, than the two whom you people are so kindly supporting.

Davida Murani, whose description and that of his family you will find in a former letter, also that of his station and work, is a fine native, and is doing good work as an evangelist, his heart is truly in the work and God is helping him.

Josiah Mallkani is the other man that I have assigned to your care and support, he is about 30 years of age, has a wife and four children, cunning little tots all, three boys and one girl, the little girls name is Kuji. Mathew and Paul are the two younger boys, the oldest boy's name I cannot at this time recall, but I am sure you would be more than interested could you go with me to their home and see their bright faces, oh yes, I remember now the other boy's name is Candle, for the last time I visited their station he came to me and said xewe Mufundisa, mina a Mufundisa kambe, meaning, how are you preacher, I am a preacher also, and I thought you are certainly a little light in this world of sin in which you have come to live. The name of the station is Nyiduki, it is about 55 miles from our head station, is on a hill looking out over many little villages, a beautiful place and just between two tribes speaking entirely different languages, but your teacher speaks them both so that he is able to reach both the Batongo and the Batswa people, and many are being led to Christ. I have visited in both tribes and have heard many ringing testimonies.

I must tell you a little about Josiah—he was converted in a mission of ours and a little later went to work in a mine in South Africa so that he could get money enough together to buy a wife. This he did and returned to his home, after some years he felt that he ought to start a station of his own for there were many jahas (young men) who wanted him to do so and thus place a light in another part of the country, so together they started out and a new station was formed but he was not an evangelist, just a good young man who wanted to help his people, but he found after some little time that he could not give so much of his time to teaching and preaching and still have money enough to pay his hut tax and help buy food. His wife was in rags and the children were dressed in much less than the law would allow in U. S. A. Can you see them with a little piece of bark blanket tied around their loins, this answering for under clothes and dress for the girl and blukers (pants) and shirts for the boys.

He decided to come to me for help and so one morning he set walking all the way, when he reached here he was tired and worn and I wanted him to rest but he felt his story of so much importance that he could not wait and he told me of the struggle. He was a church member we found so we decided to tae his station on as one of ours, but could not promise any regular support. We told him that he should pray that some heart in far away America would be touched to send money for a Preachership and that we would do the same, I gave him what little tithe money Mrs. Bush and I had saved so that he could buy food. This he was very grateful for and went home quite happy and began to pray and how we did thank God when the answer came in the form of your gift, may God richly bless you one and all for what you are doing for him, and God's kingdom at Nyiduki.

Miss Watts spoke about how much you would love to have a picture of this man your evangelist and his family, I shall do my best to get one for you. For a long time my camera was broken and it has only been returned to me but a short time.

At this present time it is impossible for me to visit any part of my work because the smallpox is raging throughout the country, the first part of the year the Spanish Influenza was so bad that we had to stop all trips and now the smallpox is carrying off the people in even greater numbers than the flu did, and our doctor will not allow any of us to make any trips.

During this time of quarantine I am hard at work on our new hospital, it is a stone building costing about $5000, the contractor was called to another job and not able to finish it so that rather than leave it wait as long as it would have had to, I have gone to work on it, have it well under way, and hope by the time the quarantine is lifted that it will be finished.

Mrs. Bush wishes to be remembered to you all and we ask that you will not forget to pray for us.

Yours in the Master's Service,
RAYMOND L. BUSH.

The Woman's Community Club gave a community party at the hall on Saturday night. We were all there, too, from infancy to old age. A short program was rendered. Two exercises by the primary school children, under the direction of Mrs. Hyde, were highly appreciated. Games and music and an hour of dancing was participated in by old and young. Refreshments were served and all went to their homes hoping a similar event would occur in the near future.

Mrs. Jones—Do you know who handles the Wear-Ever Aluminum cooking utensils in Beaverton?

Mrs. Smith—Yes, sure, I do. You can buy anything in that line of Beaver Garage & Hardware Co., first door East of the Post Office.

Mrs. Jones—Well, can you buy them as cheap of them as you can in Portland?

Mrs. Smith—I should say yes. That organization has come to stay and in order to stay they must do a legitimate business, furthermore, they are naturally inclined to be honest in their dealings. Have you not noticed their motto? Your welfare is our pleasure and they are making their motto good.

Mrs. Jones—Yes, but they don't deliver goods to your home.

Mrs. Smith—That is how they can save you money. You need not think that goods can be delivered for nothing do you?

Mrs. Jones—No, but I hate to carry goods home from the store.

Mrs. Smith—Well, you don't have to if you will pay for the messenger, but that you must do, one way or another. Tote your own goods and help reduce H. C. of L.

Mrs. Jones—I see where you are right. I am going to call and see their goods the first time I go down town.
