OREGON NOTES

News in Brief, Gathered From Various Parts of The State.

The Dallas city physician reports that smallpox is showing a tendency to increase.

The 1919 tax roll for Clatsop county totals $1,419,782.94, the largest in the history of the county.

Within 90 days a company will begin drilling for oil in Clatsop county, according to F. H. Kiff, an oil expert of Oklahoma.

Douglas county holds the record so far for the number of dogs licensed by the county, 1100 dogs bearing the county license tags.

A new wage scale advancing the minimum of $4.80 hitherto paid to $5 a day, was announced by the saw mill owners of Bend.

George A. Briscoe, who has been superintendent of the Ashland schools for nine years, has been reelected for a two-year term.

Roseburg will be a stopping place for aircraft which it is alleged will soon be plying between San Francisco, Portland and Seattle.

The Ashland Canning company closed a most successful season with a total pack exceeding that of any previous year and valued at $18,500.

County Agent Scott of Clackamas county announces that the last carload of eggs shipped to the New York market netted the producers 55 cents.

All high schools in Southern Oregon, except Eugene and Roseburg, have withdrawn from the Oregon State Debating league because of the prevalence of influenza.

Burglars entered the hardware store of Wardle & Campbell at Carlton and secured about $145 worth of pocket knives and razors. Eight dollars was taken from the till.

A contract has been signed at Salem whereby Henry L. Bents of Aurora will sell his entire crop of hops for the year 1920 to an English firm at a stipulated price of 37 cents a pound.

In the biggest day's catch of the past year, 104 offending motorists were arrested by Portland police one day last week on various charges of violating the traffic laws.

The Baldwin & Swope Construction company, recently organized at Hood River, has been awarded the contract for building a new schoolhouse at Mosier to be 90 by 70 feet.

Approximately 1800 real estate dealers in Oregon have filed applications for licenses for 1920, according to a report prepared by G. V. Johnson, who is in charge of the real estate department of the insurance commissioner's office. Last year the applications for licenses totaled 1539.

Twenty-two alleged violations of federal prohibition laws are included in the final report of the November term federal grand jury in Portland, which was discharged Saturday. Rendering its report to Federal Judge Bean, the grand jurors returned 37 true bills, five not true bills and four secret.

Thirteen districts in Yamhill county were represented in a meeting at McMinnville for the organization of the Yamhill County Public Forum, the object of which is the "free and open discuss and action on all public questions." It is non-partisan in character, yet political discussion will be permitted.

A ten days' fair for the year 1920 and ultimately a free gate are under consideration by the state fair board, and it is expected that some action to this end may be taken in the near future. The report of the fair board shows that all indebtedness has been paid and there remains in the treasury a small balance.

W. W. Cryder, for six years supervisor of the Umatilla national forest, with headquarters in Pendleton has been named superintendent of the Malheur forest and will succeed Supervisor O. J. Bingham, at John Day, on March 1. J. C. Kuhns of Walla Walla, supervisor of the Wenaha forest, will have charge of the Umatilla reserve after the change.

Two steps toward better local educational facilities are believed to have been taken. The directors have agreed against competitive bidding for services of teachers within the county.

Titles involving five sawmills and logging equipment, together with 160 acres of timber, passed from the Grove Lumber company to a Roseburg company composed of Charles McKinnsey, R. L. Walpole and Ernest Whipple. A large amount of lumber also goes with the mills, and the total property is worth approximately $50,000, it is said. The sawmills have a capacity of 15,000 feet daily each.

A member of the legislature of 1919 cannot legally be named master fish warden, according to an opinion by Attorney General Brown, given at the request of State Game Warden Shoemaker. The 1919 legislature, Brown points out, permits increasing the salary of the master fish warden, thus raising a bar to the naming of a member to that post. The same conditions, he says, obtain in the positions of deputy fish and game wardens.

Members of the state irrigation securities commission certified to $40,000 worth of bonds issued by the Enterprise Irrigation district in Klamath county and $100,000 worth of bonds authorized by the Grants Pass irrigation district in Josephine county. The Enterprise district comprises approximately 2400 acres, while in the Grants Pass district there are included 8000 acres. Development work on both projects is in progress.

Mrs. Earl Stitt, who was burned while starting a fire in the kitchen range with oil waste, died at Lebanon. She was the English war bride of Earl Stitt, a young overseas service man.

The 1919 census of the Umatilla project, just published by the reclamation office, shows that the total value of the crops grown during the year is over $600,000, averaging almost $75 per acre.

One hundred China pheasants from the Simpson pheasant farm at Springfield were released on the 1000-acre Cartwright ranch adjoining Harrisburg, which has been made a state game reserve.

The city of Roseburg, through its attorney, B. L. Eddy, filed with the Oregon public service commission its brief opposing the proposed increase in rates sought by the Douglas County Water & Light company.

Remonstrance against the paving of Railroad street was made at the meeting of the Albany city council by abutting property owners and may result in the former decision to pave the street being rescinded.

The best Jersey bull that $1000 will buy is to be purchased by a group of dairymen in the Alsea valley in western Benton county. This action was taken at the close of a three-day extension school held in Alsea.

Five more alleged members of the I. W. W. were indicted under the criminal syndicalism act in the final report of the Multnomah county February grand jury, returned to President Judge McCourt Saturday.
