This little boat was one of the fleet of 59 which cleared the North Sea of 55,000 mines.

The fleet has just returned to this country and was given a big reception in New York City.

These boats would sometimes be out for as long as twenty-five days in the storms and seas for which the North Sea is noted. The work was declared impossible by other navies, but the United States went ahead and completed this work before the scheduled time.

Gardner, of Forest Grove, on Sunday, March 14, 1920, when their children, grand children and great grand children and a few friends assembled to celebrate the sixtieth wedding anniversary of this dear old couple, who have walked together hand in hand with united hearts along the pathway of life for so many years. Everything was done that could be done on this occasion to make them happy, and it was a pleasure to see the radiant beams of happiness on their faces as they looked out over this large family of children, whom they had raised to honorable manhood and womanhood by their love and tender care and none can boast of a higher and nobler standard of moral ethics than prevails throughout this large family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner both came from large families; on his side there were fourteen children and her side were twelve. And out of these two large families these two are the only surviving ones. But God has spared their lives and blessed them that they through their happy cheerful dispositions might scatter sunshine and be a benediction to all with whom they have come in contact. To Mr. and Mrs. Gardner were born 12 children, of whom eight are living, two boys and six girls. These were all present except one daughter living at Eugene and another in Arizona. There are thirty four grand children of whom twelve were present. Eight great grand children with six present. Other guests present were: Mrs. F. D. Gardner, Mrs. A. E. Gardner, Forest Grove; Mrs. Carl C. Howe, Mrs. Clifford Glover, Mrs. Fred Taylor, Portland; Mrs. E. B. Taylor, Salem; Rev. and Mrs. Carlos, Pastor of First M. E. Church of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Elder and Lamborn Elder, Forest Grove.

At the usual hour a sumptuous dinner was spread to which all did justice and the afternoon was spent in social converse and the taking of pictures. Many were the beautiful flowers and tokens of love and friendship presented to these dear old people by admiring friends with congratulations and best wishes for many happy returns of the day, even down to the diamond.
