A WORLD REBUILT

By the Golden Rule not by the rule of Gold

THIRTY denominations of the Church are uniting in a simultaneous campaign in the week of April 25th-May 2nd.

They are uniting because the task before the Church is too great for any one denomination; because there must be no duplication of effort; no waste.

These churches know that the world needs many things; but it needs Faith most of all.

They know that there can be no final solution of our economic problems that is not a spiritual solution, based on the teachings of Jesus Christ and His Golden Rule.

They have had the courage to survey the whole task, and to ask for a budget large enough to sustain (1) the work abroad, (2) the work at home including the church's part in the huge task of Americanization, (3) the colleges and (4) hospitals supported by the Churches, (5) the religious training of the young, and to provide (6) a living wage for the Church's ministers.

The budget is large in the aggregate; yet if each person who loves America would increase his contribution by only a few dollars the whole amount would be easily subscribed.

We face the task of rebuilding the world. Let the cornerstone be a strong and vital church in every American community; and the measuring rod by which the builders build must be the Golden Rule.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

Have you noticed the sign that appeared this week on the Main street of Beaverton? It stands right out from the building and is nicely painted on both sides. It's a home product and was painted by E. E. Swenson, and is a neat specimen of work. It now tells everybody that "JOB PRINTING" is done at our shop, and is a standing invitation to you to come in and get your printing done here.

OREGON NOTES

News in Brief, Gathered From Various Parts of The State.

Preliminary steps have been taken for the organization of a club of girls scouts in Albany.

United States Senator Chamberlain of Oregon was operated upon in Washington, D. C. for an abscess in the right ear.

The coast guard crew at the mouth of the Siuslaw river near Florence has received a power boat for the station.

Saturday, May 8, has been fixed as the date of the annual field meet at Albany college for the high schools of Linn county.

Eight million trout and 7,000,000 salmon fry will be ready to liberate from the state fish hatchery on the McKenzie river this spring.

Forest Ranger Brown, stationed in the Crater Lake national park, reports there are seven feet of snow at the lake and that snow is falling.

Seventy-one recruits for the army were obtained in an intensive campaign in the Eugene recruiting district between January 19 and March 31.

Premiums on surety bonds taken out by contractors on state highway work will cost the state practically $200,000 under the present road program.

Six tons of poisoned grain are being used in the extermination campaign against ground squirrels which was launched by Klamath county farmers Monday.

Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois has filed with the secretary of state his declaration of candidacy for the republican presidential nomination of Oregon.

Snow has piled up in the mountains near Baker as deep as eight feet, and power users, cattle men and farmers predict that the result will be a record breaking season.

A conference of representatives of the churches of Linn county will be held in Albany April 15 to make plans for the drive in the county in behalf of the interchurch world movement.

The adjutant-general of Oregon has been authorized to organize a field hospital company in lieu of the ambulance company at present included in the allotment of national guard to the state.

All records in the number of automobile accidents for a single month in Portland were broken in March. There were 949 collisions, 31 more than in the greatest previous accident month.

At the primary election to be held next month a measure will be presented to the people of Polk county asking that a special tax levy be made each year hereafter for the support of the county fair.

Assessed valuation of property in Marion county will be increased 10 percent this year to offset the removal of automobiles and mortgage notes from the tax rolls under an act of the legislature for 1919.

Work on the $50,000 drainage project of the Klamath drainage district, containing 20,000 acres, will be started this year. If the state engineer approves the plans and a bond issue is endorsed by land owners.

A meeting of the poultry breeders of Linn county has been planned for Lebanon on April 9 under the direction of the Linn County Farm bureau. A permanent poultry association for the county will be formed.

The town of New Astoria, generally known as Hammond, held a special election last week to authorize a $50,000 bond issue for bulkhead and reclamation work along the Columbia river. The vote was 70 for and 15 against.

Contracts for the purchase of Marion county hops for fall delivery are being made at 85 cents a pound, and indications point to an advance to 70 cents within the next few weeks. For the crops of 1921 and 1922, buyers are offering 45 and 55 cents.

A pen of 14 hens at the state hospital for the insane at Salem, each hen with a production record of more than 100 eggs annually, is said by Dr. James Dryden, poultry expert at the Oregon Agricultural college, to be the peer of any similar gathering of layers in the world.

Salem is first among the cities of its size in the United States with relation to per capita production of manufacturing, according to a report prepared by Richard L. Howe, statistician, who has just completed a survey of the city's industries for the commercial club.

The largest piling contract made in Lane county for many years has just been let to S. E. Russell of Eugene, who will get out 9000 piles for the Southern Pacific company and the government. The contract calls for a total of over 345,000 lineal feet of piling. Mr. Russell will establish a camp near Noti, on the Coos bay branch of the Southern Pacific.

Operating a line of passenger and freight boats between Portland and Eugene, Portland and Astoria, Portland and Lewiston, Idaho, and Portland and Priest Rapids, Wash., is the purpose of the Portland Navigation company, which filed articles of incorporation at Salem.

Special taxes levied by the Marion county court, aggregating approximately $49,000 in excess of the amount allowed under the 6 per cent limitation amendment to the state constitution, are not legal according to a decree signed by Judge Percy R. Kelly of the Marion county circuit court.

The lumber shipments from the Columbia river during the month of March were the largest for some time. According to statistics compiled by Deputy Collector Karinen, 28 vessels loaded at the mills on the river taking $4,313,410 feet of lumber from the Columbia river in cargoes during the month.

Favorable report was made by the senate agricultural committee on the McNary bill enlarging the Oregon national forest to place the area of Larch mountain under the forest reserve. The purpose of the bill is the preservation of the summer flow of Multnomah falls on the Columbia River highway.

The Harney Valley irrigation district is now organized for the construction of the reservoir and the building of the canal necessary to place water on the 125,000 acres comprised in the district. At the last meeting William Hanley filed his bond and took the oath of office, and was elected president.

There were four fatalities due to accidents in Oregon in the week ended April 1, according to a report issued by the state industrial accident commission. The victims were: Frank Mulkey, logger, Cochran; W. G. Faulkner, laborer, Portland; D. A. Davis, deckhand, Bandon; and Verney Borders, logger, of Riddle.

Will H. Bennett, state banking superintendent; Percy Cupper, state engineer, and George M. Brown, attorney-general, comprising the state irrigation securities commission left Monday for Malheur county, where they will inspect the Kingman colony drainage district and the Warm Springs irrigation district. The Kingman colony district has asked for the certification of bonds in the sum of $50,000 and the Warm Springs district in the amount of $200,000.

The recent rains and heavy snows in eastern Oregon have solved the irrigation problem in that section for the coming summer, in the opinion of Rhea Luper, field engineer for the state water board, who has returned from Freewater. While in eastern Oregon Mr. Luper made arrangements for the distribution of water during the summer of 1920 under the direction of water masters. These officials will be appointed by the water board and work under the direction of that body.

Measures to be submitted to the voters of Oregon at the special election to be held on May 21 are to be printed on a ballot of their own and not on the regular primary nominating ballot, according to a legal opinion given by Attorney-General Brown. This is necessary, according to the attorney-general, for the reason that only the republican and democratic parties are represented at the primaries and persons of other political affiliation would be deprived of their right to vote on the measures.

Major Charles Vanwys, Clement A. Parker and Henry E. Walker, comprising the board of trustees of the United States Spruce Production corporation accompanied by Major G. B. Harrington and A. W. Stegman of Portland, and W. K. Patterson and Bert Gear of Toledo, made an inspection of the big mill at Toledo, the Alsea Southern railroad and Blodgett timber tract and the Yquina Northern railroad. The object of the inspection was to get acquainted with present conditions of the property with a view of offering it for sale.

Two cents a quart was knocked off of the price of milk to the consumer in Portland by a decision of the milk-price commission, appointed by Mayor Baker. The milk producers will bear 1 1/2 cents of the reduction while the distributor will bear the other half cent. The price to the producers under the new scale will be $3.20 a hundred pounds, instead of $3.30 they have been getting. Both producers and distributors will abide by the decision. The new price to the householder will be 13 cents a quart where mid-month payments is made. Otherwise it is 14 cents.

The state livestock sanitary board has placed a sheep quarantine upon all Klamath county, exclusive of the Klamath Indian reservation, effective April 1. The moving of sheep outside the quarantine zone is forbidden except upon certificate of a properly qualified inspector that they are in good health and free from scabies. The order was made on recommendation of the Klamath County Wool Growers' association after conference with Dr. H. E. Armstrong, federal inspector for the district. It will operate to cause dipping of all Klamath county sheep before the usual spring transfer to the California ranges.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

Little Dorothy Harris celebrated her seventh birthday last Saturday afternoon, with a regular old fashioned Easter party, made lively by the appearance of a few of her small playmates.

Evonne and Leona Hetu, George and Margaret Peate, Lucille Barnes, Milton Robins and Vivian Harris all helped to blow out the candles on the two cakes that stood at each end of the brightly decorated table. After an afternoon spent in games and an Easter egg hunt, the guests wended their way homeward "tummies" very full of ice cream, cocoa, sandwiches, and candy and each carrying a small basket of Easter eggs.

In addition, their income in 1915 had twice the buying power of their income in 1920, due to the worldwide rise in costs over which of course they could have no control. The foregoing is one of many equally good reasons why you should vote for the Higher Educational relief bill at the election on May 21. Save the quality of higher education in Oregon, and give YOUR boy or girl, and YOUR NEIGHBOR'S, their rightful educational heritage.
