HON. W. B. DENNIS

of Carlton, Yamhill County, present representative in the lower house of the legislature, and the chairman of the Roads and Highways committee during the last two sessions, is a candidate for Joint Senator from Washington, Tillamook, Lincoln and Yamhill counties.

SLOGAN: "For better roads, better farms, better homes, better men and a better Oregon." 1543ew

If—

An Oregon family of four had $100 a month to get along on in 1918, but had grown into a family of ten with only $45 a month income in 1920, how in the world would it live?

That Is the Case With

The State University, the Agricultural College, and the Oregon Normal. In 1918 they had 2250 students; now they have 5400. And $1 in 1918 is only as good as 45 cents today, in purchasing power.

If You Yourself Were Responsible could you carry on the work of the College, University and Normal on the same support as in 1918.

You Could Not.

Neither can the State University, the Agricultural College, and the Normal School do it. Will you not help these three institutions to continue their useful and productive work for Oregon by voting on May 21 for the Higher Educational relief measure?

Paid advertisement inserted by Colin Dymond in behalf of the Joint Alumni Relief Committee for Higher Education in Oregon, 514 Pittock Block, Portland.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if every person in this town would just make it a point to speak a good word for the town to at least one person each day. How soon the town would fill up with people of the right kind. How soon would our school have a larger attendance, double the number of teachers and far larger courses and the graduating classes each June would be a source of pride to every citizen. How soon would our churches be crowded and new structures take the place of the old. How soon would our paved streets extend over the whole town and our paved roads extend for miles in every direction, linking us up with towns in every direction. How soon would our stores feel the impulse of the better business, enlarge their stocks and become real emporiums and centers of trade. And neither last nor least, you'd have a bigger, better, newer Beaverton Times that you'd be proud to send out with the message of Beaverton.

Just a dream, did you say? Yes, just a dream, but how easy to make it come true. And how profitable it would be to everyone to make it come true.

The editor of the Times is personally acquainted with Dr. J. E. Stevenson, who is coming to the high school Tuesday evening, with a free showing of the wonders of Paris as the doughboys saw it. We have confidence in him and do not hesitate to advise our readers to give the evening to him. So come out and hear him and see his pictures. If you don't like it, if he don't make good with you, come and tell us and we'll roast him until he sings.

The platform on which Earl E. Fisher has announced himself for the legislature is the best we have heard yet and deserves the support of us.

everyone who has paid his bit into the coffers of the school book publishers. If ever there was a graft festooned on the people of the state, it is that provision which requires the wholesale change of school books every six years, and every teacher knows why it is done.

If A. E. Wescott, of Banks, makes the right kind of a campaign for the joint senatorship, he ought to be elected easily. He is easily the most thoroughly posted man among the candidates on those issues which are most vital to these counties and all that he will need to do is to let the people know what he knows and what he proposes to do.

AS IT SEEMS TO ME

H. E.

That our Main Street would look much cleaner and more inviting to Highway passers by, if the rubbish thrown on the railroad right of way, was set fire to and not scattered over the town by each spring wind.

That it is about time Beaverton began to recognize its big men. In fact, Earl Fisher has already announced his candidacy.

That some of our citizens are looking for something worth while to do. All right, boys, why not get busy and organize a baseball team? We have lots of good material.

That one of the most valuable assets that Beaverton has gained during the past year is good natured Hal Bishop, President of the Noon Hour Club. He hasn't really got into action as yet, but when he does—watch him go!

That they cannot be complete in aught, Who are not humorously prone; A man without a merry thought Can hardly have a funny bone.

That When all your cash has faded, quite; Your friends are scarce, your larder light.

Who gives you grub, 'til 'morrow night?"

Your Storekeeper

Or if you ever farm at all, And haven't a bit of grain to haul, Who carries you 'til the following fall?

Your Storekeeper

And then if the crops are a little slack You skip out some night, and never come back.

Who is the man who holds the sack? Your Storekeeper

When debts pile up, you cannot pay, You go through bankruptcy some day Who loses, but smiles the same old way?

Your Storekeeper

And when the church's funds are low, 'Cause members' gifts are rather slow Where do the deacons get the dough?

Your Storekeeper

Balls and picnics, lodges galore, All take the toll from the general store, But he'll get his reward on that beautiful shore,

Your Storekeeper

That the Housing conditions existing in Beaverton seem to be the same everywhere. In a recent London Times appeared this "Personal"

"Homeless, Demobilized Tommy, four years service, home stored, wife and child 500 miles away. Will you help him to obtain apartment, flat or small house. Can only go to $25.

That the chief obstacles to a League of Nations are in the human mind. That the man with pep, who plans ahead and does things while others are thinking about them, is the one who makes the biggest success of his business.

Two heads are always better than one, so we want all of you folks to feel that we are always open to criticism. Surely you have an idea or two about "This Column." We expect you have often said "Why don't that bird put something interesting in his work?" Why don't he? How do we know what pleases you unless you tell us? What do you like? It's kinda hard on us setting up here pushing a pencil all day long, to get just the right slant for you all, so give us an idea now and then. If you have a good story let us have it. A new idea, a new kink, or a new stunt? Let's have it. Anything at any time, that you think would be interesting, send 'em in.

Free! Two Dollars! Free!

If it is true that $2.00 saved is $2.00 made, you can make $2.00 very easy, just by stepping into our store and buying one of those Pyrene Fire Extinguishers for $8.50 that cost you $10.50 in Portland or anywhere else in the world. We have just a few left which we will sell at this remarkable low price, until they are all gone.

We have lots of other Bargains Just as Good, but Paper is so scarce and Labor so high that it costs too much to enumerate on paper all the bargains we give.

You are invited to make our store your home when you are in town.

Your welfare is our pleasure

PENSION FOR DOGS

Ten dollars a month, board and room will be paid for two dogs during their life by the terms of the will of Pamela H. Shurrager of 45 Stanhope street, Brooklyn. On the sum named the canines are expected to be able to lead a dog's life regardless of the H. C. of L.

The dogs are left in care of Josephine A. Bacon, who is given the use of a ground floor apartment, which was the home of Mrs. Shurrager. The estate amounts to $14,900.

'Bout two dogs I was a reading How they were to get their feeding Since the owner of those two has passed away.

In the will allowance making, Care of those pet dogs a taking, Ten dollars for their board and room they would pay.

Bunning loose they won't be prowling In the night they won't be howling, Round in the neighborhood a raising old ned.

No patience will they be trying, And boys no cans will be trying For they will be asleep in their little bed.

From no hooks will they be swinging Supplies for the butcher bringing, No chance for a breakfast, be it large or small.

Weiner wurts, there's nothing doing, On those dogs we won't be chewing, Though we like a hot dog sandwich best of all.

An apartment for their playing, Where their owner was a staying, It will be turned into a dog kennel now.

And the person's name is Bacon. Care of them will be a taking So they will have Bacon on hand any how.

But we are quite glad to mention, That even dogs get a pension, And that they can lead a dog's life all the time.

And we know there's many, many,
