NOTICE OF ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING

Notice is hereby given to the legal voters of School District No. 48, of Washington County, State of Oregon, that the Annual School Meeting of said District will be held at the High School Auditorium; to begin at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P. M. on the third Monday of June, being the 21st day of June, A. D. 1920.

This meeting is called for the purpose of electing one Director and one School Clerk and the transaction of business usual at such meeting.

Dated this 6th day of June, 1920.
R. W. COOK,
Chairman Board of Directors.

ATTEST:
K. L. Desinger, District Clerk.

TAKE THE WITNESS

"In your direct examination you testified that you held a grudge against my client. Now will you tell the court and the jury if you please, just what caused you to hold this grudge?"

"Well, I was told by a friend of mine, that he had criticized me unjustly, that he had said mean things about me and I made up my mind I would get even with him."

"And then the judge dealt a hand. In the first place, young man, this chap whom you called your friend, was really your enemy, otherwise he would not have tattled. No real friend is even the bearer of disturbing tales. In the second place, even admitting that the plaintiff in this case did say the things about you which your supposed friend so unwisely related to you, you could not afford, leaving the law, the so-called legal law out of the question entirely—to reciprocate in kind, because just the minute you hold the thought of 'getting even' with somebody, you commence to nourish and fertilize devilish little microbes in your system which will eventually prove your own undoing."

A wise judge, we'll say.

"When water becomes ice," asked the teacher, "what is the great change that takes place?"

"The greatest change, ma'am," said the little boy, "is the change in price."

WHEN GAS IS SCARCE

Backward, turn backward, to the old fashioned carriage,
Bring out the horse and we'll give them a show,
Put up your auto and then lock your garage
You can get no gas no difference where you go.

Wash up your buggy on which cobwebs are hanging
Oil up your harness to make it look black,
Then tighten the nuts so there won't be no banging
Back to the Stone Age we are now going back.

Bring from the attic your old lap robe and cushions
And linen duster, for you may want it too,
That you had stored gas, there's no use to be wishin',
For others are in just the same fix as you.

And then there's the hog who forever is squealing
When called to save they put up a big roar,
The rights of others they have never no feeling,
When they get their share, if they can, they take more.

The doctors come first then the tractors they mention,
The trucks can fill up when the stations they pass,
"Emergencies first" and it is their intention
That pleasure cars get a small portion of gas.

A shortage of gas and the prices are soaring,
They say the out put will not meet the demand,
Gas into your tank no more will they be pouring,
So in your garage you can let your car stand.

If on installments for your car you are paying,
And now comes the time when you can't take a ride
The garage rent to you cannot be delaying
The bills will find you, though you may try to hide.

A trolley line scheme, I have heard a few talking,
"Back to the street cars" is a new slogan call,
If a short distance some now will do more walking
Back to crowded aisles, to strap hanging and all.

Right now is the time for brains to get in action,
To get some new dope so our cars we can run,
Most any old stuff that will give our wheels traction,
The waves of the air or the heat of the sun.
