STATE PAYS BOUNTIES FROM GAME PROTECTION FUND
Bounties amounting to $1630 were paid from the game protection fund of the state fish and game commission during 1919 for cougar and wolves killed in the western part of the state, according to final figures compiled by the commission.
The state pays $10 for a cougar and $5 for a wolf, and the total bounty is brought to $25 each from the game protection fund, which carries and provides 15 for a cougar and $20 for a wolf.

JEWELRY MERCHANT ACQUIRES ANCIENT WATCH
When a resident of Doty walked into the Burnett jewelry establishment on Almaric street recently and laid down a regular turnip of a timepiece with the remark that he wanted the old key winder equipped with a new mainspring, the attention of the proprietor, M. S. Burnett, was attracted by the antiquated appearance of the watch and he was surprised upon making a closer investigation to find the works carrying the serial number 2,128 of the Elgin manufacture. The fact that the watch was of such old vintage and that it was in perfect running condition aroused the collector's interest in Mr. Burnett, and by using a great deal of persuasion and offering to trade a 17-jewel Elgin watch in a fine case he at last took over title to the curiosity. The Doty man had inherited the watch from his grandfather.
Mr. Burnett communicated with the Elgin factory and was told that the watch had left the hands of its makers in 1858, more than 60 years ago. It was not particularly the age of the timepiece, but the condition in which it attracted the new owner and he considers it now one of his proudest possessions.—Chehalis Advocate.

INTERESTED IN HOT LUNCHEONS
Teachers and parents are commencing to realize the importance of hot school lunches, and the home-demonstration agents sent out by the United States Department of Agriculture and the State colleges are helping to establish hot lunches in communities which are awake to their value. Last year some extension workers, who are trained in home economics, helped establish hot lunches in 2,929 schools. The work will be continued this year on an even larger scale. In some counties a wall of prejudice against the innovation has to be broken down before it can be started. When this is true, the success of the hot lunch in one school, where it has been established, is usually for something similar in all the adjacent schools.

HOW TO AVOID JAR BREAKAGE
Do not place cold jars, either filled or unfilled, in hot water.
Do not place hot jars in cold water.
Do not overpack jars which are to be processed. Some products, like corn, pumpkins, peas, lima beans and sweet potatoes, swell in processing. Pack jar only to within one-half inch of top.
Do not allow draft of cold air to strike jars when they are removed from the canner.
The wire bail should not fit too tightly or the jar will break when the lever is forced down.
All new jars should be tempered before using. To do it, put them in cold water sufficient to cover them and bring to a boil.—United States Department of Agriculture.

GOOD HAY CURED, NOT DRIED
Sun-burned hay is not good hay. Well-cured hay is cured either in windrows or in shocks, point out the farm crop specialists at O. A. C. It is allowed to lie in the swath only long enough to wilt, not to dry out. Sun-drying wastes the juices, curing saves them.
THE NEW COMMANDMENTS
We submit herewith a code of commandments which will help all if you will live by them daily, for by studying them, you will find them good enough for anybody:
1. Don't lie.
2. Be honest.
3. Pay your debts.
4. Respect your flag.
5. Have a bank account.
6. Don't watch the clock.
7. Believe you can succeed.
8. Spend less than you earn.
9. Be good to little children.
10. Read during your leisure moments.
11. If a man of family, carry some life insurance.
12. Remember a woman's birthday but forget her age.
13. Don't pretend you can do things you cannot do. Bluff has no roots; it never grows.
14. In this country, be a good Republican or a good Democrat. Other parties are made up of failures, impractical "peepul" or common accountants.—KX.

34 BRANDS MADE IN OREGON
The list of 67 commercial fertilizers that may legally be sold in Oregon this year shows that 34 of them are made in Oregon by three Portland firms—Pacific Products Co., Portland Seed Co., and Swift & Co. The list as published by the O. A. C. Experiment station gives the fertility content of each brand as guaranteed on the container and as found by analyses of samples bought by the station in the open market. Farmers who aim to make intelligent use of commercial fertilizers get the free bulletin containing the list free of cost.

Under the new gubernatorial succession amendment to the state constitution, W. T. Vinton, of McMinnville, president of the Oregon senate, was acting governor of the state while Governor Olcott was at Olympia attending the funeral of Secretary of State I. M. Howell, of Washington. Under the new amendment the president of the senate, and not the secretary of state, is the governor's successor in event of inability of the latter to act.

The milk distributors of Portland will not pay in excess of $3.20 a hundredweight for milk, nor will they consent to an increase in the retail price at this time. The Oregon Dairymen's Co-operative league will not deliver milk to distributors who refuse to pay the league price, but instead will immediately take steps to secure equipment and deliver milk direct to the consumers of Portland. Out of these two alternatives there promises to develop a pitched battle between distributors, who propose to deliver non-league milk, and the league, which plans to distribute its own milk.

PARIS INTRODUCED TO CAFETERIAS
The first cafeteria ever seen in Paris was thrust on the innocent public last month when a new Y. W. C. A. opened in that city. French girls, frankly amused at the idea, acted as waitresses behind the counter and caught on to the scheme with readiness. Four hundred visited the cafeteria the first day and now there are over one thousand daily guests. The new Y. W. C. A. building is an outgrowth of the smaller foyers for French girls started by American secretaries during the war and has all the facilities for study, social times and work that the American Associations have. It is proving enormously popular among Paris girls.

PLANTS FORBIDDEN ON AMERICAN GRAVES
Though American relatives usually want to plant flowers on the graves of their sons or brothers in the American Army Cemeteries in France an army ruling forbidding this has been adhered to. The cemeteries, a uniform stretch of green grass with white crosses, look like "acres of white lilies," according to Miss Elsie Godard, a Wellesley graduate who has returned to this country after having had supervision of the Y. W.

C. A. rest huts built for the comfort of relatives visiting the graves in four of the American Cemeteries in France. "At first everyone wants to plant flowers on the grave they love," says Miss Godard, "but they soon see that the army ruling keeps the cemeteries most beautiful and impressive because of the uniformity. Cut flowers can be placed on graves and flowers can be planted in the flower beds nearby but not on the graves. The French people, who are eager to decorate the graves in some parts are often surprised at this ruling but our cemeteries, as cared for, are wonderfully impressive. After visiting them few Americans want to take the bodies of their boys home, though they had been determined to do it before they came." The Y. W. C. A. and Red Cross combine in maintaining Rest Huts at Hamagne, Bony, Belleau-Woods and Fere-en-Tardenois. "No matter how prepared a mother and father are for what they expect to see, the first sight of the field of American graves overwhelm them," says Miss Godard.
