THE CAPITOL

News of General Public Interest at the County Seat.

Hillsboro merchants were victimized Saturday by a bad check artist from the city. Waiting until after clearing house hours, the stranger, giving the name of H. R. Hinckley, produced worthless check totalling $150 and passed them on various merchants for sum ranging around $30 to $40. He bought small articles at the stores and presented the checks in payment, getting his change in money. He left town before Monday.

Hillsboro has recently authorized the issuance of $20,000 of bonds to take up warrant indebtedness already issued. Bonds totalling $11,000 have already been sold at par.

L. R. Bailey Co. has brought suit against Hillsboro on the Shute Park Pavilion matter and the city will defend the suit.

Hillsboro will appeal its hydrant case to the United States Supreme Court.

Hans and Peter Rasmussen have just returned from a visit to their old home in Denmark. They found food prices very high there.

Burglars entered the store of W. W. Boscow Saturday night and made away with about $500 worth of silk hosiery, clothing, shoes, silk underwear, neckties and suitcases.

Sheriff Alexander recently unearthed a very large still at the woodcutting cabin of W. Langworthy on the Walker road, near its junction with the baseline road. It is said to be the most complete distillery found so far in Washington County. Langworthy was arrested and held to the Grand Jury.

P. T. A. Meeting Postponed

The Parent-Teachers' Association meeting is postponed from its regular Tuesday session to Friday night, Oct. 15. The program committee has prepared a very fine program in which many of the school children will appear.

FOREST GROVE CHOSEN BY METHODISTS

W. F. Ineson, who is taking a year's leave of absence on account of ill health.

Another prominent pastor admitted to the conference is Dr. B. E. Kirkpatrick of the College Avenue church of Greencastle, Ind., assigned to First church, Salem, to succeed R. N. Avison, who was transferred to St. Paul's church, Spokane.

The following churches have been added to the Portland district: Beaverton, Boring, Sandy, Estacada, Fairview, Rockwood, Gresham community center, Metager, Tigard, Pleasant Home, Troutdale, Scholls, Farmington, Wilsonville and Tualatin.

In the formation of Gresham community center the bishop has launched a new departure for Oregon. Two ministers located at Gresham will take care of several small churches within the Gresham radius, which cannot support a pastor. One service a Sunday will be arranged for each church. Student pastors from Willamette university will be sent to Gresham each Sunday and from there assigned to the small churches.

F. M. Jasper, assistant at Wilbur church, Portland, was appointed educational director at First church, Portland. He is succeeded at Wilbur church by Miss Mildred Bartholomew. Jasper will also have charge of the Garden Home church.

Albany and Corvallis have been transferred from the Eugene to the Salem district, along with several smaller places.

The 1921 conference will meet at Forest Grove.

The conference appointments follow:
