SUMMONS
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County.
Axel Carlson & Ida Carlson Plaintiffs vs.
John I Perkins, Defendant.

To John I Perkins, defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons to wit: on or before the 15th day of October, 1920, the last day of the time prescribed in the order for the publication therein and if you fail to do so answer for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in their said complaint, viz: For a decree that there is due from defendant to plaintiffs the sum of $600.00 and interest thereon at 7 per cent per annum from 7 March, 1919, and $100.00 as reasonable attorney's fees herein and for the costs and disbursements on a mortgage executed by A. Vester and Anna Vester to the Plaintiffs, 7 March, 1919 recorded 8 March 1919, in Book 75 on page 495 of the mortgage records of Washington County, Oregon, that said mortgage be foreclosed, and the real property therein described to wit: Tract 14 Shields Little Farms in Section 29 T 1 S R 1 W. of W. M. in Washington County, Oregon be sold and the proceeds applied in the payment of the amount due. That defendant be barred of any interest in the premises and for such further or other relief as to this Court may seem equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Beaverton Times, a weekly newspaper of general circulation published in Washington County, Oregon, pursuant to an order dated June 30 1920, made by the Honorable Geo. R. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled court, prescribing that the same be published in said paper once a week for six consecutive weeks.

Dated and first published September 3, 1920.

C. A. APPELGREN,
Attorney for Plaintiff, 701 Chamber of Commerce Bldg. Portland, Ore.

OREGON NOTES
News in Brief, Gathered From Various Parts of The State.

A girls' band will be organized this year at the Albany high school. The eighth annual dairy and hog show opened in Hermiston Friday. Lumber mills at Cottage Grove complain because of inability to obtain cars. The Clatsop county agricultural fair closed a successful three-day session at Astoria. The Eugene excelsior factory has been closed on account of the slump in the market. North Bend will put on an exposition of Oregon-made goods the latter part of October.

Students of Willamette university are discussing the organization of a variety brass band. Approximately 150,000 motor vehicle drivers' licenses have been issued by the secretary of state.

Oregon has 50,188 farms in 1920, as against 46,502 in 1910, a gain of 4686 farms, or 10.3 per cent. Salmon trolling on Yaquina bay is the best in years, trollers near Yaquina making big catches daily.

Apple growers in Douglas county are having trouble in getting enough apple pickers to gather the crop. The Clatskanie hatchery has received from the hatchery on the McKenzie river 1,604,148 spring chinook eggs.

Mining activity in Josephine county is being resumed and it is expected that during the winter many new properties will become producers. At the regular monthly meeting of the Boardman farm bureau, the organization of the North Morrow County Fair association was completed.

Construction work on the Sparta irrigation canal in Baker county has been suspended for the remainder of the year because of lack of funds. Chris P. Christensen of Donald died at the Johnson creek ranger station, 30 miles out in the mountains from Roseburg, while on a hunting trip.

The Bend Commercial club is to be reorganized early in November, with a paid secretary. An effort will be made to increase the membership to 300. F. E. Endicott, organizer for the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen in the Coos county district, announces a special crusade against the L. W. W.

In lieu of the Linn county fair, which was called off because of unfavorable weather conditions, a three-day racing meet was held in Albany beginning Thursday.

The Baker County Chamber of Commerce directors have decided to put forth strenuous efforts to obtain the passage and enforcement of better fire protection ordinances.

Bird Purrier, who is credited with having been the discoverer of the Bohemia mining district in Lane county, has been found dead in his cabin near Dorcas. He was over 80 years of age.

Seven rural school districts including and surrounding the town of Miletion in the western part of Lane county have started a movement for a union high school to be located at Miletion.

J. P. Keyes, pioneer central Oregon lumberman, vice-president of the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber company and general manager of the company's local plant, died at Bend of heart disease.

If plans under consideration by The Dalles chamber of commerce work out a combined city automobile park, fair grounds, baseball diamond and aviation field will be made of the present Sorensen city park.

Elvie D. Kerby and John L. Rathie, convicted of first degree murder by a circuit court jury at Pendleton, were sentenced to be hanged at the state penitentiary Friday, December 3, by Circuit Judge Phelps.

With Bishop Shepard of Portland as the principal speaker, formal services attending the laying of the cornerstone of the new $40,000 Methodist Episcopal church were held in Bend Wednesday afternoon.

The Pacific Power & Light company, with headquarters in Portland, has filed application with the Oregon public service commission for permission to increase fares on its traction lines at Astoria from 5 to 7 cents.

Judges and clerks of election will hereafter receive an additional compensation of $1 a day for their services rendered in Douglas county, the county court having ordered that this sum be given for meals in addition to the $3 provided by law.

Sam A. Koser, secretary of state, has sent to all county clerks in Oregon instructions to make provision on the panicle at the November election for the election of a justice of the supreme court to succeed A. S. Bennett, resigned, and an attorney general to succeed George M. Brown, who was appointed by Governor Olcott to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Bennett's resignation.

T. Kitahara, Japanese garimiser, was killed almost instantly when a Southern Pacific train struck a truck in which he was riding on a crossing about two miles north of Salem.

Ira N. Gabrielson, in charge of rodent control of the United States biological survey, was in Burns recently investigating the rabbit pest and taking steps to put his force in the field to aid in combating them.

The rainfall for September was the heaviest in 32 years, says the soils department at Oregon Agricultural college which keeps track of the weather statistics. A total of 5.4 inches of moisture fell during the month, the normal fall being 1.6 inches.

William Middletad was severely injured at Corvallis when a house fell upon him. He was moving the house when a part of the mover's mechanism slipped and let the house fall upon him, resulting in a broken collarbone, two fractured legs and a badly injured kneecap.

F. J. Meindl, attorney of Portland, has purchased the grand champion junior bull at the Oregon state fair of 1920, and has placed the animal on the Lassalle farm at Twilight in Clackamas county, the former home of Mrs. Meindl. The animal was from Tillamook county.

There was one fatality in Oregon due to industrial accidents during the week ending October 7, according to the report of the state industrial accident commission. The victim was Harry Lund, camp foreman of Cochrane. A total of 561 accidents were reported during the week.

Argument has been heard by the state supreme court in the suit of the Union Fisheries company of Astoria to enjoin the state fish and game commission from enforcing the law regulating fishing outside the Columbia river beyond the three-mile limit during the closed season.

Application covering the storage of 1,600,000 acre feet of water in the upper Klamath lake for the irrigation of lands and development of power in California has been filed with Percy A. Cupper, state engineer, by Roy E. Swigart, president of the Shasta valley irrigation project of Montague, Cal.

The largest one-day sale and the highest average price ever received for Rogue River valley pears was made in New York, when 13 cars were sold for $37,846, or an average of nearly $3000 a car. One car of Anjouans from Bear Creek orchard sold for $2668, or an average of $4 a half box.

A heavy wind storm which struck Shelburn wrecked a prune dryer, twisted the Catholic church there partially off its foundation, damaged two other buildings, blew down a silo, uprooted about 100 fruit trees and snapped or blew down a number of fir and oak trees. The total damage is estimated at nearly $5000. Seven hundred and three names appear on Oregon's official teacher list, which has been obtained by George A. White, assistant-general of the state, from the federal government. The list is being checked, with all available state records to remove any possibility of injustice when the names are released for information of the public.

Employment of an inspector to assist in eliminating a disease commonly known as scab brood, which threatens to destroy the bee industry in Marion county, was sought by a committee of prominent Turner and Silverton men who conferred with Const. Judge Bushby. It is said that in some instances whole apiaries have been destroyed.

The constitution for the projected Oregon Farm Bureau Federation has been worked out and will be submitted for consideration at a convention of county farm bureau officials to be called by Paul V. Morris, director of the agricultural college extension service, to meet in Portland not later than November 15. This is the second step recently taken by representatives of the county farm bureaus to unite the county organizations in a state-wide association.

Outstanding features in the working out of the new scheme of national defense as affecting Oregon are—Assignment of headquarters of the 41st division to Portland; assignment of headquarters of an infantry brigade to Oregon, with the entire brigade, less one battalion, to be located in Oregon, and command to be reposed in a qualified Oregon officer; twelve additional infantry units, an observation squadron, with 12 airplanes, several artillery units and smaller headquarters company and formations of special troops, including a motorcycle company.

Purchase by the state of an irregular strip of timber land along the Seaside-Cannon Beach highway from the Crown-Willamette Paper company and other owners as the most effective means of preserving the scenic beauties of that highway was the recommendation contained in a report submitted to W. B. Ayer of Portland by F. A. Elliott, state forester; C. S. Chapman of the Western Forestry and Conservation association, and George H. Cecil, district forester, with headquarters in Portland. Mr. Ayer is chairman of the committee appointed some time ago by Governor Olcott to investigate and devise plans for conserving the forests abutting Oregon's scenic highways.
