BEAVERTON, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1930.

NO. 44.

POMONA GRANGE MET WITH NORTH PLAINS

Officers Elected for Coming Year—Good Program Enjoyed—Roads Bought, Weather Wet.

On Wednesday of this week the Washington County Pomona Grange convened with Washington Grange near North Plains in the Pumpkin Ridge district.

Despite the bad condition of the roads a goodly number of automobiles climbed the long hill to the Grange hall, and deposited a crowd of enthusiastic Grangers.

Representatives were there from Leedy, Hillsboro, Sherwood, Washington and Beaverton Granges.

Those attending from Beaverton were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes, Mrs. H. O. Shippey, Mrs. E. E. Swanson, Mrs. J. E. Davis, Mrs. F. C. Peck, Mrs. W. H. Boyd, T. B. Denny and Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Denny.

The election of officers took place with the following result: M. J. C. Leedy, Kinton; O. Mrs. Alice Cutting, Kinton; L. Mrs. Ida Gustin, Butte Grange; S. Harold Cutting, Kinton; A. S. T. B. Denny, Beaverton; Chas. Mrs. Otto Wohler, Hillsboro; Treas., B. K. Denny, Beaverton; Sec'y, Mrs. L. J. Francis, Winona Grange; G. K. A. Stewart, Hillsboro; Coras, Gladys Anderson, Kinton; Fomona, Cora Barcland, Washington Grange; Flora, Mrs. L. Stark, Leedy Grange; L. A. B. Ads Brown, Washington Grange.

The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to resolutions and discussions.

At the evening session a class of eight were given the degree of Pomona.

An excellent literary program was rendered by members of the local Grange.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

A boys' glee club was organized and following officers were elected: U. Narver, President; Joe Merrill, V. President; James Haddad, Sec. Treasurer.

A good season is expected as there is some splendid material for quartets and chorus work.

The P. T. A. entertainment netted $53.50, which will go towards a Library Fund for the school. The entertainment was enjoyed by all who heard it.

A class is being organized in Analytic chemistry by Mr. Nash. Several are going to take it.

We have two post graduate students enrolled for special work. Roy Emmons and Oscar Nash. There are also two new students, Kate Taylor and Margaret Eastland. This brings the total enrollment to 92. We'll get one hundred yet.

The students are happy this week for this is Institute week. We have three days' vacation beginning Wednesday.

The first six weeks of school closed with examinations last Friday. Students got their grades on Tuesday. It is noticed that many five-subject students are now dropping to four subjects voluntarily.

Mrs. Suttle, who leads the Boys' and Girls' clubs, is a very capable instructor. She is liked very much by the students.

John A. Stanfield, father of R. C. Stanfield, underwent an operation in a Portland hospital two weeks ago and died from the effects of the operation there Wednesday and was buried Thursday at the Riverside park cemetery. He was 88 years of age.

Mr. Stanfield made the acquaintance of many Beaverton people while Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Stanfield were in charge of the local telephone exchange. He was visiting his son and family when the operation became necessary.

Surprise Party
A surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Newman last Tuesday evening by a number of their friends. Games and music filled the evening and a delicious luncheon was served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Liebrich, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hughson, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thynn, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blauer, Mr. and Mrs. John Summers, Mesdames Lottie Boring, Anne Boring, F. M. Austin, Dan Adams, Wm. Davis, Miss Myrtle Davis, Luelia Miller, Alfreda Austin, Evelyn Alexander, Lucile Laughlin, Mr. Frank Miller.

H. Hudson, of Monroe, is the new helper at the S. P. depot.

SPECIAL SCHOOL MEETING CALLED

Needs of District Make Larger Tax Necessary—Rapid Growth of Schools Planning.

The rapid growth of the Beaverton schools has been a source of satisfaction to residents of this district and the call for the special meeting to vote the tax is looked forward to with interest. The following call and budget fully explain the needs and Beaverton citizens will take pleasure in supplying the School Board with the needed funds to carry on the good work.

SPECIAL SCHOOL MEETING
Notice is hereby given to the legal voters of School District No. 48 of Washington County, State of Oregon, that a SPECIAL SCHOOL MEETING of said District will be held at Beaverton, in High School Auditorium, on the 29th day of November, 1930, at 8:00 P. M., for the following objects: To vote "yes" or "no" on the proposition of levying a tax upon all real and personal property within School District No. 48, for the purpose of operating and maintaining the Public Schools for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1931.

Dated this 21st day of October, 1930.

R. W. COOK,
Chairman of Board of Directors.

ATTEST:
K. L. DESINGER,
District Clerk.

To provide for two extra teachers

STRAW BALLOT AT COUNTY INSTITUTE

Handing Leads as Usual with Cox a Poor Second and Watkins only Other Contender.

A straw ballot for presidential candidates was taken at the Teachers' Institute Thursday, at Hillsboro. Harding was the favorite by a big margin, receiving 133 votes, Cox 55 votes and Watkins 5 votes.

The attendance this year at the Annual Institute has been the greatest known in the history of Washington County, the High School auditorium being crowded at each session.

Sept. Frost is to be congratulated on the splendid program arranged for this year. All the lectures have been exceptionally fine and well received.

Among the instructors are State Supt. Churchill, Pres. Ackerman, of Monmouth Normal School, Prof. Almack of U. of O., Pres. Clark of P. U. and Miss Gagnon, of Marshfield.

The teachers are more enthusiastic with their work and "Service" is the new motto for 1930-31—higher salaries bring better schools and better citizens.

At the business meeting of the Washington County Teachers Association Earl E. Fisher, of Beaverton, and Lester Mosberry, of Cornelius, were chosen as delegates to the State Teachers' Association.

WILLIS CARY IN P. U. GLEE CLUB

Forest Grove, Ore., Oct. 29—Try-outs were recently held for places on the Pacific University Glee Club and among those who have commensated practice for the season's work is Willis Cary, of Beaverton. The Club is making plans for a number of concerts during the second semester.

PACKING PLANT BUSY WITH PRUNES, APPLES

Ten Carloads of Choice Apples Will Be Shipped From Forest Grove Prunes are Smaller but Good.

Few Forest Grove people realize that in the short time the Oregon Growers' Packing Corporation has been in existence as a Forest Grove industry that it has extended the market for local fruits half way around the world, but such is the case.

Last week three carloads of fine Jonathan and Grimes' Golden apples were shipped out of the local plant. Two of these went to Tulsa, Oklahoma and the third went to New York. This season a total of ten or more cars of apples will be shipped.

Already this week the third car has gone forth to Tulsa and before the week is gone a carload will be in transit for Astoria, Oregon and one will be on its way to Santa Barbara, California.

Manager Van Laanen hopes to get the prune processor started next week. He is grading prunes now and finds them of fine quality, although slightly smaller than last year's crop.

Bankers Entertained at Hillsboro

Bankers of Washington County were the guests of the Shute Savings Bank at Hillsboro, Tuesday evening, at a banquet at the Washington Hotel. About 40 were present, among them representatives from Portland. This regular monthly business meeting of the Washington County Bankers Association was held. Doy Gray and Francis Livermore represented the Bank of Beaverton.

Alton Emmons spent Sunday with his home folks. He is now employed in a bank in Portland.

Slackers, Demagogues and Hypocrites

These three animals are full brothers or sisters as the case may be, for they have the same father, the same mother, the same advice and guide.

One tries to deceive the Government and evade its laws, and order the second to deceive officials to avoid the law.

And the third to evade the Law and order of God by deception so as to enjoy the confidence of the sheep to such an extent as to be able to devour their carcasses after having skinned them of their pelts.

These three classes of people are very dangerous to our Government, to commerce in general, to society and especially to Christianity and lastly ruinous to themselves.

The man that will at the point of a revolver, rob you of your valuables is a courageous sort of an individual, and dangerous, but not near so low and dangerous as is the sneak in the grass, that will slip up on you, thrust a dagger in your back and cowardly rob you of $7.50 or what else you may have in your possession, and term it moral.

We have a civil law that deals with most of things that come up in life but it cannot cover everything as well as moral law that is written in every person's conscience, and when a person transgresses on such law it can truthfully be said that such a person is immoral.

The idea that only one certain wrong is immoral has been advanced by those who pick out a certain wrong that they can well avoid and say nothing else is immoral. Poor souls, they are to be pitied.

How are we to tell one from another?
Answer:
If you find that one tries to deceive you in one thing it is dangerous to trust him in anything. SAFETY FIRST.

Look out for the wolf, there might be a wolf at the root.

Former Citizen Strikes Gold

A. E. Story has been enjoying a week's vacation, part of which he spent with Mr. and Mrs. Robinette at Leland, Ore. He reports that Mr. Robinette, who was formerly operator at the S. P. station here and now agent for the same company at Leland, has become greatly interested in placer mining. While owning a one-quarter interest in one claim he has leased another large mine, which has been idle for some time and from which, with the methods he intends to use expects to reap large rewards.

Mr. Story says that while there they paid a visit to the mine and washed two pans of dirt taken at random from the old working and obtained an estimated value of $50 to the pan, but larger values have been obtained from the newer prospect holes.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stanfield, who have had charge of the local telephone exchange for several months, are now at Council, Idaho, where Mr. Stanfield has a position as station agent. They were succeeded in the local exchange by Mr. and Mrs. Massey.

W. P. McGee, E. C. Masters, Martin Gleason and Jacob Schmitt attended a political meeting at the auditorium in Portland Thursday.

Warren G. Harding will be the next President. He asks Oregon to elect a Republican senator. Will Oregon turn Harding down? Paid

HUGE ARMISTICE DAY PARADE AT GROVE

Parade, Cannon, Soldiers, Free Dinner and Show for Vets, Grand Dance in Evening.

The largest patriotic celebration Forest Grove has ever witnessed. Forest Grove as a body, all western Washington County as tributary to the local post of the American Legion, is going to unite in wholehearted endeavor to establish firmly a precedent that will never die in the hearts of its boys.

It is desired by the Legion, that in remembering them we do not restrict our vision to them only. It is requested that we so celebrate that all veterans of all wars shall receive honor.

The day has been proclaimed a holiday by the Mayor, and all merchants, factories, and other businesses are requested to observe the nature of the day by complete cessation of business, manufacture, etc., for that day.

PORTLAND MAN IN CHARGE

N. G. Freeman has sold his grocery business to Thomas Cobb, of Portland, and will hereafter devote his entire time to the amusement features of his new enterprise. His new building is nearing completion and he will open about December 1. Motion pictures will be given during the week and a dance will be held each Saturday night. Mr. Freeman announces that he will give Beaverton a high class entertainment and hopes to draw much patronage from automobile parties away from the noise and traffic of the city.

Through the columns of the Times Mr. Freeman wishes to thank his many patrons for their support while in the grocery business and to express his appreciation to Mr. Cobb a continuation of this patronage.

Mr. Cobb is an experienced groceryman and will doubtless give

Beaverton patrons a satisfactory service.

COUNTY NURSE WILL HAVE AUTOMOBILE

The response to the appeal of the Washington County Health Association has been so good that the committee has $255.00 on hand to apply on the purchase of a car for the use of the county health nurse. Every letter received, excepting one, has praised the work of the nurse, or expressed the writer's conviction that the cause was a good one. A very few of the notes enclosed with the donations follow:

"Enclosed please find check for one dollar to apply on car for the county nurse. This is rather a small contribution, so if you do not collect enough, call on me again."

"Gladly complying with your request. Respectfully yours."

"Please find enclosed one dollar. I hope it may help a little in getting a car for Mrs. Smith and I wish you much success in your work."

"While I do not live in your county, I enclose check for one dollar, as I consider the cause a good one."

Have you sent in your dollar?

A vote for Bob Stanfield is a vote for the protective tariff and prosperity for our Oregon farmers and producers. Pd Adv.
