An Evening in the South Seas

Chautauqua Presents Native Maori Singers

Ellison-White present on the closing evening of the Chautauqua Festival a big program, "An Evening in the South Seas," an attraction entirely unique on the American platform. Five Maori singers have been brought directly from New Zealand, and they will present for the first time in this country the bewitching native music of their New Zealand home. Headed by N. H. Papakura, famed throughout New Zealand as the leading tenor of the islands, and coming from a race that is essentially musical, they present a most interesting program.

Miss Arline Garbino, daughter of Mrs. Rose Garbino, of near Beaverton, died November 12, aged 17. She is survived by her mother, three brothers and a sister. The funeral was at Mt. Calvary cemetery Tuesday of last week.

Pupils of Miss Dee Darling, a music teacher of Forest Grove who has a class here, gave a recital recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bentley, in which the nine tots covered themselves with glory and reflected much credit upon their teacher.

Washington County has five inmates of the county poor farm in Multnomah County, three of whom are practically helpless, yet the total cost to the county is only about $150 per month. The arrangement is considered particularly advantageous by County Judge Goodin, who recently visited the Multnomah institution and found the inmates well cared for and apparently quite contented. The judge says that to operate a farm here would cost far more because it would be necessary to employ a superintendent at a salary equal to or above the present cost, to say nothing of the maintenance of the farm and other expenses.

The birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. John Schmitt recalls a dominance of the war. It was while serving in Luxembourg with the A. E. F. and while the troops were advancing through the little German province that he met the lady who is now Mrs. Schmitt.

A hammer and an axe are responsible for two sore fingers in Hillsboro. The hammer was carelessly wielded by J. A. Lamkin, veteran tinsmith and former postmaster while A. D. Holland over his accident to the time honored bone of holding a stick of wood with one hand and chopping it with the other.

The next concert of the Woman's Chorus will be held in the Congregational church on the evening of December 16. Another chorus will be given later in the season.

Arthur Rollins collided with a door at home last week and now carries three stitches in his face.

Arleigh Kellington, six years old and son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kelington, died November 15. Tubercular meningitis was the cause of death, although the illness was a puzzling one and the child had been treated for sleeping sickness by a Portland specialist. An autopsy was necessary to determine the cause of death.

Edgar Kamna, former Hillsboro high school student, is a member of the University of Oregon Glee Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron B. Whitten are the proud parents of a son born November 12, at West Union.

Marriage licenses have been issued recently to: Theodore M. VanDyke and Petronella Vandehay, Frederick A. David and Olive O. Tollinger, Wilbur J. Clapham and Louise Donovan.

The tax rate in Washington County may be high but the valuation is low as compared with the actual cash values, according to the State Tax Commission which finds that this county has the lowest assessed valuation as compared with actual values. It is only 50 cents on the dollar. Sherman County is highest with 97 cents on the dollar.

OREGON NOTES

News in Brief, Gathered From Various Parts of the State.

Fire risk conditions are better in Eugene than in any other city in the state of which he has made a survey, according to George W. Stokes, deputy state fire marshal.

The walnut growers of Dayton and surrounding vicinity are now disposing of their 1920 crop at good prices. The walnut-growing industry of this part of the state is increasing materially.

Provision will be made in the 1921 budget for Klamath county's share of the cost of the Willamette highway. The road will shorten the distance from Portland to Crater lake 124 miles.

Although there is not a vacant house to be had in Salem a report filed by the city recorder shows that an aggregate of $372,450 was spent in erecting new buildings during the past ten months.

Plans are under way for colonization of raw lands for the purpose of establishing the loganberry industry at Bandon. It is believed that at least 1000 acres will be donated for this purpose.

A bill will be presented to the next legislature authorizing the state board to become a party in the organization of a drainage district covering about 2000 acres of land within the limits of Salem.

Edward A. Bailey, 48, president of the Curry county bank at Gold Beach, shot and killed himself with a .32 caliber rifle, in Portland. His health is assigned as the reason for his self-destruction.

The national industrial conference board of New York has requested C. H. Gram, state labor commissioner, to furnish the board with data covering present unemployment in Oregon by industries.

Following a meeting at Albany of 10 Beaver Creek residents representing 2000 acres of land that is now flooded, preparations were made for the organization of a drainage district to redeem the land.

Medford was visited Saturday by a large delegation of the Knights of Columbus of the state of Oregon, who exemplified the three degrees of the order to a class of 40 men of Medford, Grants Pass and Ashland.

Deputies county's first accused murderer was convicted Saturday when the jury returned a verdict of "guilty" as charged against A. Weston, accused of the murder of Robert Krug near Sisters, on March 24, 1919.

The state board of health will immediately file suit and enjoin the Winchester Sanitarium company from constructing its proposed tuberculosis sanitarium at any point on the North Umpqua watershed where the city of Roseburg obtains its water supply.

With a total attendance of approximately 70,000, in spite of bad weather handicaps which materially cut down the attendance on all except one or two days during the week, the tenth annual Pacific International Livestock exposition, held in Portland, closed Sunday.

The Oregon Directory, which is compiled annually by J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of schools, has been printed for the year 1920 and is now ready for distribution. The directory contains much information regarding the school system of the state. Copies can be had for the asking.

Complete abolishment of the office of state sealer of weights and measures, with a view of merging the duties of that department with the dairy and food commissioner and the Oregon public service commission, is proposed in a measure being prepared for consideration of the legislature in January.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Washington.

W. A. Shaw, Plaintiff,

Jesse R. Ellars and Gerald M. Ellars, Defendants.

To Jesse R. Ellars and Gerald M. Ellars, the above defendants: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the 29th day of October, 1920, which is the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear and answer, for want thereof plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit:

For judgment and decree against the defendant Jesse R. Ellars for the sum of $100.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 7% per annum from January 1, 1915, until paid; for the further sum of $50.00 attorney's fees and his costs and disbursements herein.

For the foreclosure of the mortgage made, executed and delivered by the defendant, Jesse R. Ellars and his wife, Albertina E. Ellars, to the plaintiff herein, which mortgage is dated February 18, 1916, and is a lien upon the following described real property situate in Washington County, Oregon, to-wit:

Beginning at the southeast corner of Lot 287 of Johnson Estate Addition to Beaverton-Redville Acreage, said county and state; thence north along the east line of said lot 287 for a distance of 168 feet for a point or place of beginning; thence west and parallel with the south line of said lot, 103.9 feet to the southeast corner of McGovern acre; thence north along the east line of McGovern acre 290 feet to a point in the north line of said lot 287; thence in an easterly direction along the north line of said lot 287 for a distance of 96 feet to the northeast corner of said lot 287; thence south along the east line of said lot 287, 305 feet to the place of beginning, containing .89 acres, more or less.

That the defendants and each of them be forever barred and foreclosed of and from any and all right, title and equity in and to said premises and from setting up and maintaining any claim or demand to the same, or any part thereof. That plaintiff have such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet and equitable.

Service of this summons is made on you by publication by order of the Honorable George T. Bagley, judge of the above entitled Court, made on the 27th day of October, 1920, directing that said publication be made in the Beaverton Times, a weekly newspaper of general circulation in Washington County, Oregon, and that said publication be made once a week for six consecutive weeks.

Date of first publication: October 29, 1920.

Date of last publication: December 10, 1920.
