SUMMONS
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Washington.
W. A. Shaw, Plaintiff,
vs.
Jesse R. Ellars and Gerald M. Ellars, Defendants.
To Jesse R. Ellars and Gerald M. Ellars, the above defendants: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the 29th day of October, 1920, which is the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer, for want thereof plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit:—
For judgment and decree against the defendant Jesse R. Ellars for the sum of $100.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 7% per annum from January 1, 1916, until paid; for the further sum of $50.00 attorney's fees and his costs and disbursements herein.
For the foreclosure of the mortgage made, executed and delivered by the defendant, Jesse R. Ellars and his wife, Albertina E. Ellars, to the plaintiff herein, which mortgage is dated February 19, 1916, and is a lien upon the following described real property situate in Washington County, Oregon, to-wit:—
Beginning at the southeast corner of Lot 287 of Johnson Estate Addition to Beaverton-Bendville Addition, said county and state; thence north along the east line of said lot 287 for a distance of 168 feet for a point or place of beginning; thence west and parallel with the south line of said lot 104.9 feet to the southeast corner of McGovern acre; thence north along the east line of McGovern acre 239 feet to a point in the north line of said lot 287; thence in an easterly direction along the north line of said lot 287 for a distance of 96 feet to the northeast corner of said lot 287; thence south along the east line of said lot 287, 305 feet to the place of beginning, containing .89 acres, more or less.
That the defendants and each of them be forever barred and foreclosed of and from any and all right, title and equity in and to said premises and from setting up and maintaining any claim or demand to the same, or any part thereof. That plaintiff have such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet and equitable.
Service of this summons is made on you by publication by order of the Honorable George T. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled Court, made on the 27th day of October, 1920, directing that said publication be made in the Beaverton Times, a weekly newspaper of general circulation in Washington County, Oregon, and that said publication be made once a week for six consecutive weeks.
Date of first publication: October 29, 1920.
Date of last publication: December 10, 1920.

News in Brief, Gathered From Various Parts of The State.

La Grande's budget for city expenses for the coming year is $108,460.
The church of the Latter Day Saints held a three-day leadership institution at La Grande.
Dallas physicians report that several cases of influenza have made their appearance in Polk county.
From two and one-half acres on Hale creek, near Weston, Oscar Wynn harvested 500 sacks of potatoes.
A total of $20,000 will be required to defray the expenses of the board of control during the next two years.
Jasper Turner is under arrest at Klamath Falls, charged with the murder of his wife near Beatty last May.
A census just completed in Clatsop county shows 6585 children of school age, an increase of 99 over last year.
The 33d annual meeting of the Oregon State Horticultural society will be held in Eugene December 2, 3 and 4.
Ministers from all sections of Marion county gathered in Salem last week and formed a county organization.
Sunflowers are making a remarkably good showing in Harney county. At one place 54 tons per acre was the yield.
There are 25 cases of contagious disease under quarantine at La Grande, ranging from smallpox to diphtheria.
A division of Polk county is proposed, cutting off the south part and creating a new county to be called Willamette.
The new prune packing plant erected at Scotts Mills by the Oregon Growers' association is complete and packing has begun.
Every school in Umatilla county which has made application to the school superintendent for a teacher now is supplied.
Farmers and orchard men around Dayton, Yamhill county, are becoming interested in the planting of filbert orchards.
During a recent high wind in Coos Bay, the McDonald & Vaughan log boom broke, releasing logs estimated at 1,000,000 feet.
An experienced miller has arrived at Burns and the flour mill at that place will soon be turning home grown wheat into flour.
Approximately only one-fourth of the Marion county potato crop has been taken care of as a result of the bad weather conditions.
Production of lumber in Oregon and Washington for the week ending November 11 was 69,358,533 feet, or 22 per cent below normal.
District interest bonds in the amount of $115,375 will be sold by State Treasurer Hoff on December 1, according to an announcement.
Two carloads of hops raised in the country adjacent to Grants Pass were shipped to London last week. The shipment weighed 74,800 pounds.
Isaac Higgins, an early settler of Eastern Oregon and a veteran of the Civil war, died in a Heppner hospital last week at the age of 79.
The Hood River-White Salmon Ferry company is building a large sidewheel ferry boat which will have a capacity of 10 automobiles. It will cost about $10,000.
Colonel J. W. Lathrop, for many years a well known character in that part of the state, dropped dead in a lively stable in Klamath Falls a few days ago.

McCords at Chautauqua Festival
Prominent Entertainers Give Program on Opening Night

It is hard to imagine any two people putting over a more thoroughly enjoyable program than do the McCords, who appear here on the opening night of the Chautauqua Festival. They have talent plus and personality plus. Their program consists of music, monologues, sketches and impersonations, featuring particularly the splendid character work of Mr. McCord. His own statement about their entertainment tells the story. "We aim to let a little sunshine in where shadows were before, to refresh minds and souls, and to make the world a brighter, happier place, if we possibly can."
BEAVERTON CHAUTAUQUA
DECEMBER 16-21

A company has been organized at Eugene with the plan of building houses and selling them to people on easy terms. The first residence is just being completed.
By cutting one half mile of new road through the lodgepole pines, the forest service is decreasing the length of the Crane Prairie road from Bend to Elk Lake nearly two miles.
Mail boxes in Prineville have been assailed by vandals in the last week or so, and have been tampered with to such an extent that the federal authorities have been notified.
Thomas Everett May, of Corvallis, has been appointed a captain in infantry, regular army, and Fremont Byron Hodson, North Bend, has been appointed a second lieutenant.
The tax budget of Clatsop county recommends a levy of $437,313.80, or just $100.10 less than that for last year. Among the appropriations are $160,760 for road work and $48,350 for bridges. It will require $77,520 to maintain the capital buildings and grounds at Salem during the next biennium, according to the budget of estimated expenditures filed with the secretary of state.
The Thomas Kay woolen mills, the largest plant of its kind in Oregon outside of Portland, will close down early this month and will remain closed until some time in January, according to announcement. More than 250 men and women will be thrown out of employment.
A bill has been prepared for introduction in congress permitting the city of Medford to purchase 80 acres of the Oregon & California land grant for the protection of the municipal water supply.
Poultry demonstrations on feeding for egg production and on choosing breeding stock were held in three different communities in Linn county during the past week and were largely attended.
There are 40,000 acres of prunes between Portland and Astoria, compared with 10,000 acres just a few years ago. Within three years it is probable the annual crop may exceed 100,000,000 pounds.
A recent proposal by A. M. Templeton of Brownsville, president of the Linn County Pioneers' association, that a memorial should be erected in the county in honor of the pioneers, has met with general favor.
Karl J. Stackland, grower and shipper and owner of the Blue Mountain Fruit farm at Cove, expects to sail for Europe about December 11, where he will spend the next four months selling apples and dried fruits.
Standing timber is assessable as real estate, according to Attorney-General Van Winkle. The opinion was asked by F. L. Calkins, county assessor of Douglas county, who wanted to know if the timber could be assessed separately from the land.
Charles F. Brumfield of Philomath has filed with the state engineer application to appropriate 40 second feet of water from the north fork of the Alsea river for development of 50 horse power for generating electricity for operating a sawmill.
At a recent meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic a motion was passed unanimously to petition the state legislature at the next session to exempt veterans of the civil war from taxation of property to the value of $1000.
A public hearing called for the purpose of taking steps to prevent the importation into Oregon of infected potatoes from California will be held in Salem on December 14, according to an announcement by Charles A. Parks, president of the state board of horticulture.
Regulation of the Upper Klamath lake by the building of the Link river dam is necessary for the irrigation of the 50,000 acres under ditch in the Klamath basin, declares the report of the Klamath Falls chamber of commerce committee which conducted a hearing of the controversy last week.
More than 75 flaxgrowers from various sections of Marion county gathered in Salem Saturday and pledged a total of 511 acres of the product for the season of 1921. This is the largest flax acreage ever recorded in Marion county since the inception of the penitentiary flax plant many years ago.
Plans for the Ashland winter fair are practically completed for the three days of the show, December 2, 3 and 4, which will be held in the armory. This fair includes the sixth annual exhibition of the Southern Oregon Poultry association and also the farmers' fruit growers' and industrial exhibits of Jackson county.
Jazz will be a thing of the past within the next two years, in the opinion of Frederick W. Goodrich, pianist and instructor of harmony and analysis in the University of Oregon extension course in Portland, who was the chief speaker at the closing session of the annual convention of the Oregon Music Teachers' association at Salem.
The Oregon Growers Co-operative association with headquarters in Salem, is distributing more than a million dollars among the growers of the state in payment for fruits handled through the organization the last few months. Other remittances will be made as fast as returns are received from the eastern purchasers. The books of the association show that up to November 1, sales this season amounted to a total of $722,494.66.
Oregon gasoline and oil consumers are urged to curtail their supplies to the lowest minimum in order that the industries of California will not suffer from a fuel shortage, in a letter received at the office of the Oregon public service commission from the
