JUST CALL NO. 23

Last week I bought a turin' car, an' the agent says to me, that I could learn to run the thing as easy as could be; he said that all I had to do was first to fill my tank with pure extract of gasoline, an' then to twist my crank; an' I jump right in, and grab the wheel, and give the thing a twist, an' push a dov-dab with my foot, and another with my fist—an' when I got to goin' I was not to lose my senses but keep my eyes straight ahead, and stay between the fences. The first time that I tried her out—as I remember now, I started from my barn lot, an' killed a Duroc sow; an' when she'd bubbled the gas, he threw an awful fit, an' jumped a stake-an-rider fence, and died right whar he lie. I run agin' the gate post an' skidded to the pasture, an' when I went to slow her down, the blame thing went the faster. I cut some awful curlicues, an' double figger 8's—I never was so rattled since I tried on roller skates. At last I jumped to save my neck—an' landed on my back—an' saw a million shottin' stars—then everything turned black. Ef any feller wants a "car" and wants to buy it right—my telephone is 23—it gets me day or night.

BANKS FARM BUREAU HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Banks Farm Bureau held its annual meeting January 3rd. The program adopted for 1921 is as follows: Livestock: To list all pure bred sires, grades and scrubs in the community. Banks Community hopes that within the near future that all sires will be pure bred. There are many excellent pure bred in that community that should be transferred to other communities instead of being slaughtered when the owner is through with them. It is hoped to assist in the transfer of such animals. One Standard Livestock Club is to be organized. Their members have already been pledged and two more needed. It is the aim to have this club exhibit at the Banks Hog and Dairy Show. The Washington County Bank has already taken steps towards the organizing of a Pig Club in that community. This latter club has about a dozen members. It was decided to issue a livestock marketing circular once each month or six weeks.

Rodents: Ira N. Gabrielson, of the U. S. Biological Survey was present and explained that the Biological Survey would place a man in that locality to experiment with the poisoning of Gophers provided the community would systematically poison a given area of land, say 2,000 acres in case a poison is found that will successfully get the gophers. Mr. Gabrielson explained at the meeting that there had been recently developed a form of tasteless strychnine which they expect to use in their experiments. Mr. Gabrielson's plan was accepted with considerable enthusiasm. Poultry: To hold one poultry culling demonstration. Horticulture: To hold one pruning demonstration of two days' duration. Committees were selected as follows:
Chairman and Pig Club Leader—Bob Banks.
Calf Club Leader—A. E. Westcott.
Dolents—Chas. Herb.
Horticulture—Mr. Watkins.

Fourteen first-of-the-year lucrative and non-lucrative reappointments were announced by Governor Olcott. J. W. Ferguson was reappointed a member of the Industrial accident commission and T. B. Handley was reappointed state corporation commissioner. O. B. Blanchard of Grants Pass, W. C. Fellows of Sumpter, R. M. Betts of Cornucopia, W. B. Dennis of Carlton and F. A. Olmsted of Portland, members of the Oregon bureau of mines and geology; W. D. Wheelwright, Mrs. Edmond C. Giltner and Mrs. Henry L. Corbett, all of Portland, members of the child welfare commission; Amadeo M. Smith of Portland, member of the industrial welfare commission; G. M. Baker of Bead, member of the Oregon land settlement commission; David M. Dunne of Portland, member of the state board of vocational education.
