THE CAPITOL

News of General Public Interest at the County Seat.

H. H. Harvey is visiting relatives in Aurora, Neb.

Olaf Sundin, who died last week was 70 years of age. He was a native of Sweden and a bachelor.

J. O. Miller, of Cornelius, suffered the fracture of a bone in his leg one day last week when a log which he was cutting rolled onto him.

B. Leis, the apple king, of near Beaverton, was a County seat visitor one day last week. He knows how to produce a fine grade of apples and does it by intelligent care of his orchard.

The Hillsboro Commercial Club has elected the following officers for 1921: Dr. L. W. Hyde, president; C. E. Wells, vice president; F. J. Sewell, treasurer; B. W. Barnes, secretary.

The Hillsboro City Library was recently entered a second time by a petty thief. The drawers were rummaged but no money obtained as no cash has been kept there since the former burglary when fine money was stolen.

County Clerk H. A. Kurall has issued the following marriage licenses since last report: Frank Burgholzer and Therza M. Morton, Almon Lauterbach and Josephine G. Edmunds, Henry F. Friesen and Florence L. Magee, Edward D. Van Lom and Frances M. Bernard, John Vandomelen and Lena Meury.

Following are the newly installed Knights of Pythias officers: E. E. Fayram, chancellor commander; Ralph Deaville, vice chancellor; Dr. J. H. Roseman, prelate; T. C. Reynolds, master-at-arms; A. H. Morgan, master of work; J. W. Connell, master of exchequer; Jas. D. Anderson, master of finance; E. C. Lucas, keeper of records and seal; Fred David and Fred Taylor, guards.

These are new officers for the local lodge of Pythian Sisters: Mrs. Eliza Shroy, Past Chief; Mrs. H. R. Emmott, M. E. C.; Mrs. W. E. McCourt, E. S.; Mrs. S. E. Fayram, E. S.; Mrs. Lela Applegate, M.; Mrs. J. D. Anderson, M. of R. and C.; Mrs. Lloyd Brown, M. of F.; Mrs. Ralph Deaville, protector; Mrs. Alfred Morgan, guard.

Probate—J. E. Parmley estate filed in probate with the widow as administratrix. The property is estimated at $16,000. The wife and four children are the heirs. —The estate of the late Wm. Wohlshlegel, who died near Laurel in 1907, has been probated, Fred, a son, being appointed administrator.—Geo. Saxton has been named guardian of the property of Johnny Defabio, now a state charge.—Argus.

Carl Banks has been appointed executor of the estate of his mother, Nancy J. Banks, who died December 7, leaving a will disposing of an estate estimated at $4500 real property.

Finance has its romance as well as other walks of life. About 30 years ago Hillsboro was the home of a minister's son. The boy was J. W. Spangler, and his father preached in the M. E. Church. "Jimmy," as he was familiarly called, was prophesied the usual channel—but today he is president of the Seattle National Bank, which has deposits in the sum of over twenty-one million dollars.—Hillsboro Argus.

Uncle John Caples was eighty-one years old the 18th of this month. Mr. Caples is a native of Ohio. From there when a small boy he moved with his parents to Missouri and when ten years of age he came with his parents to the State of Washington. At Woodland, Washington, May 20, 1866, he was united in marriage to Harriet Gilson. In 1883 the Caples family came to Forest Grove and have continuously lived here since. Mr. and Mrs. Caples have four sons and one daughter. They are Arthur and Con, of this city, Jesse and Bert, of Portland, and Mrs. Ora Dimmick. Mr. Caples has three sisters. They are Mrs. James Woods and Mrs. Mary Gardner, of Portland, and Mrs. Flora Calhoun, of Fresno, Cal., who is at the Caples home visiting.

Mrs. Ed. Ahlgren, Worthy Matron of the Eastern Star, entertained the officers of her chapter Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Ida Umbach, Worthy Grand Matron of the State. A splendid social afternoon was spent and all enjoyed getting better acquainted with the honor guest, who is a very affable lady. Dainty refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. G. M. Littlehales and Mr. Bertha Follette.

Forest Grove Locals

Joe Harrington, of Schofflin, trucked 20 fine Berkshire hogs to Portland this week. His hobby is Berkshire hogs and Shropshire sheep. H. Galsger, who lives on Third street between Second and Third Avenues, South, sailed last week for Honolulu to spend several months with his son.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buxton, of Corvallis, Oregon, were guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Porter, and the Buxton families and friends here from Saturday until Monday, after having attended the auto show in Portland last week. They purchased a fine new machine while there and had it shipped home. Mr. Buxton is a successful architect and builder in his home town.

Attorney Loyal Graham has purchased the frame building and the lot it occupies just south of Masonic hall from W. L. Cady and will occupy the building with his offices soon. For the present he will not build. It is hoped that the Masonic bodies may see fit to soon build a fine new structure, and in that event Mr. Graham will also build, and give the Masons an opportunity of using the upper part of his building if they desire to use it. That certainly would make a fine addition to the city if a modern building could be erected there.

The Divorce Mill—Several cases of suit for divorce were filed the past week. Martha Weist, who married S. M. Weist at Kalama, in 1897, charges violent temper and desertion. Betty Goble, who married G. G. Goble in California, in 1918, charges that her husband has told her he did not love her, and that when she came home from a visit with her mother he asked her "why in the devil she came home?" She says he has called her a damned fool, a cat, etc., and wants a decree, custody of a minor child, and $100 monthly alimony, for support of self and child. The husband brags for a railway company. Violet Robinson sues her husband, Roy, for a separation, alleging that he calls her vile names. There is a boy aged 2 years, and she wants his care and asks that the husband pay her $15 per month for the support of the lad. Venus Simpkins, married in 1911 to Nathan Simpkins, in North Dakota, wants a divorce, and is willing the 9 year old daughter shall be cared for by the husband's mother. She says the husband treats her with disdain and contempt, and she wants relief. Florence Taylor, who married G. V. Taylor at Vancouver in 1919, says she wants the marriage annulled because her husband procured a divorce from a former wife in this court less than six months prior to the last marriage. She says the husband disappeared shortly after her marriage with him.—Argus.

NOTICE

Having sold my business known as the Home Bakery to Mr. Ray Mann, I will not be responsible for any bills contracted in the name of the Home Bakery after January 22, 1921. Bills contracted before that date will be paid on presentation to me. Parties owing money to the Home Bakery will please settle same.

WHY WINTER DEMANDS A LOW COLD TEST OIL

"If the oil in your engine will congeal, or thicken excessively, at 15 degrees above zero, you should hardly expect it to splash and flow freely at 12 degrees above zero," said Mr. F. H. Johnston, Special Agent of the Standard Oil Company, yesterday.

"Yet some motorists wonder why it takes so long to get the engine to run freely these cold mornings. The cold engine, not getting sufficient lubrication, is subject to excessive and damaging friction. The oil pump cannot circulate congealed oil, so there will be an insufficient supply thrown upon the cylinder walls, until the struggling motor has warmed up the oil so it will flow more freely.

"A Zero Cold Test oil flows freely at all temperatures down to zero, that's why it is called a Zero Cold Test Oil. Zerolene Medium (or Zerolene Light for Ford's) is a Zero Cold Test Oil. It is correctly refined from selected California crude oil and flows freely and splashes properly at all temperatures down to zero. This Zero Cold Test Oil gives the same correct lubrication to your engine during these cold days that you are used to getting during the summer months."

Carl Pfahl, of Blooming, was a city visitor Monday. He recently received a letter from his mother, in Germany, and she writes that the food situation over there is appalling. The mother is aged 84 years and the restrictions are such that a pint of milk is all she can obtain under the card system. As milk is her chief article of diet she finds it pretty hard to keep her health on the restricted conditions.—Hillsboro Argus.

Finance has its romance as well as other walks of life. About 30 years ago Hillsboro was the home of a minister's son. The boy was J. W. Spangler, and his father preached in the M. E. Church. "Jimmy," as he was familiarly called, was prophesied the usual channel—but today he is president of the Seattle National Bank, which has deposits in the sum of over twenty-one million dollars.—Hillsboro Argus.

Somewhat Hard to Believe.

In the department of Seine-et-Marne, France, some years ago a picture of a cow she was herding was printed on a peasant girl's breast by a flash of lightning. The cow was killed, but the girl recovered. An Italian sailor, killed by lightning as he sat near the mast, had upon his back a print of a burrhead that was nailed to the mast.

Cow Had Novel Ride.

Motorists of Williamsport, Pa., waiting at a railroad crossing for a train to pass, found out the reason why the pilot of a locomotive is called a cowcatcher. On that part of the engine a middle-aged cow sat, taking in the view. If not enjoying the ride, when the motorist signaled the engineer the train stopped and the cow was assisted from her perch, none the worse for her experience. Where and how she was picked up, the train men did not know.

Shark Oil in Commerce.

An American citizen of San Francisco has secured a concession for the establishment of a shark oil industry in the Gulf of Fonseca. Besides the oil, which will find a market locally from the soap factories, as well as in the United States, the fish are marketable and fertilizer will be produced.

Costly Smile for Someone.

Among types of humor is the humor of the types. Example: The "expensive smile" of a certain "wisard of finance" got printed "expensive smile" in a local contemporary—rather a happy chance hit.

Cut-Rate Operation.

Billy lived next door to us. One day while he was playing with some other boys I noticed that he had his hair cut very short. He saw that I watched him and he ran over to me and said: "Oh Alice, I got baldheaded yesterday on a sale for 20 cents."—Chicago Tribune.

Escottians.
