Their Occupation.
A little five-year-old miss was visiting in the country, and was sent to the barn, where some men were shearing sheep, to look for her brother. She soon returned without him and said: "He ain't there; ain't nobody there only some men peelin' sheep."

Brotherhood Among Men.
In every period and in every society there exists an understanding of the meaning of life which represents the highest level to which the men of that society have attained—an understanding defining the highest good at which that society aims. The religious perception of our time, in its widest application, is the consciousness that our well-being, both material and spiritual, lies in the growth of brotherhood among all men—in their loving harmony one with another.—Tolstoy.

Forest Grove Locals
(From the NewsTimes)

—Rev. Blair was in Portland Tuesday attending the Congregational Minister's Retreat. Dr. H. L. Bates was also in attendance.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Badley have moved in the bungalow recently vacated by the Ed Proctor family. Mr.
Badley has the agency for tractors and is occupying the brick building south of the post office.

—Mrs. J. E. Peacock and daughter were here Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen.
Mrs. Peacock lived here about eight years ago. The Peacocks are recently from California but are at the home of his parents on the Route 2, out of Oregon City.

—Mrs. Don Giltner writes to friends here that they like it fine in the sunny south, but say that Oregon would look pretty good to them now.

The Giltner family with several other families from Forest Grove, are in Gustine, Calif., and are with the Carnation Milk Company there. The Forest Grove families are all on the same street and they call it "Webfoot Row."

—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Scott were guests of Dr. and Mrs. L. N. Palmer, of Portland Sunday.

—Houses are greatly in demand in Forest Grove. It is nearly impossible for any one coming into town to secure a house of any description.

We believe that a good investment would be for some of our people with means to build a few houses suitable to rent. A number of people have lately been compelled to go to other cities because it was impossible to get housing accommodations in this fine town. If you have any old property that is now out of repair it would be a wise plan to repair it and get it in condition to rent.

—Fred Patton, who is attending Willamette University at Salem, was operated on last Friday for appendicitis, at the hospital in that city. He is reported as getting along nicely.

ployed as pharmacist in the Litterer drug store, has purchased a store in family left on Friday for that place.

church had a surprise party on Mrs.
McLean on Tuesday. It being her eral useful presents.

working in the Hillsboro condenser since the local plant shut down, was last week transferred to Fernvale, Wash., where he will be foreman of the capping room.

—Rev. and Mrs. Nathan English arrived here last Thursday from their home at Arnold, Neb., and are the brother of the latter's brother, E. G.
Mills, and family. They expect to make an extended visit here, hoping that the change of climate will prove beneficial to Mr. English's health.

They drove through. Mr. Netzel was loath to leave Forest Grove, for in the short time they had resided here, had learned to enjoy the people and town very much.

—Mrs. Charles Stiffler, of Portland, was a recent visitor here at the home of her father, James Wilson.
Mr. Stiffler has a position with the Pacific Paper Company. Mr. and Mrs. Stiffler will go soon to Tacoma to make their home and he will still hold his position with the same company there. Mrs. Stiffler will be remembered as Miss Bessie Wilson.

—Mrs. Sam Phillips, of Hillsboro, was here one day last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N.
R. Shipley. Mr. and Mrs. Shipley's two children, Mrs. Ed Dunn and New-tie Shipley, who live at Pasadena, Cal., sent their parents a 50 pound box of oranges, and they arrived by express Monday of this week.

They grew on the orange trees in the yard of the Dunn's. Newtie Shipley is well known here and probably will visit here with his parents sometime soon. He has a position with the firemen in Pasadena.

—W. T. Newhouse and wife, of Eugene, who have been visiting relatives the last 3 months here and at Portland, returned home Tuesday.
W. T. built a truck garage for his son Noah Newhouse, while here.

—Local merchants report heavy sales on prunes this week. Eat prunes every day.

—Prof. Tuttle, of Pacific University, is supplying the pulpit at the Pilgrim Congregational church in Portland until a regular pastor is secured.

turned Wednesday morning from a few weeks' stay at the seashore down tful time.

spending the past two months in Nebraska, visiting numerous relatives and friends, returned home Sunday night, accompanied by her two youngest children.

—James Nichols is thoroughly overhauling and repairing his business house just recently vacated by Parson's Harness Shop and Whitely's Ecycle Shop. A second floor is being put in and other substantial improvements made.

—Mrs. John Buchanan spent several days the past week in Portland.
While there her aunt, Mrs. Malissa Cleaver, who has been ill for sometime, passed away. The funeral occurred Monday and Mrs. Buchanan returned home Monday night.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cady, who have been in California for several months past, returned home Tuesday afternoon, bringing a flood of sunshine with them. But Mr. Cady says they have not had a great deal of it in California. They are pleased to be back home once more.

—Gale Miller has sold his interest in the Forest Grove Garage to Ernest Tucker and Orville Bailey, and the boys will continue the business at the old stand under the firm name of Tucker & Bailey. They are both practical workmen and will no doubt make a success of the business.

of this city, will have been married sixty years. They were married in Livingston County, Missouri. They expect to pass the day quietly at their home in this city on West Pacific Avenue, where they have resided for a number of years. It is seldom that a couple have the honor and pleasure of living together for so long a time. Mr. and Mrs. Morris are quite well for people of their age, and on Monday last Mr. Morris, who is now in his eighty-second year, made the News-Times office a pleasant call. He continues quite spry.

—C. T. Richardson's many Forest Grove friends will be sorry to learn that he has been transferred from this city to Sedro Woolley, Wash., where he will have charge of the Carnation Condenser. Mr. Richardson has been a resident of Forest Grove for ten years past and in that time has advanced steadily in Condenser work until he attained the position of manager of the local Condenser. The closing of the factory here caused his transfer to the Sedro Woolley plant. He is an active, aggressive young business man, a good mixer and a mighty fine fellow. He and his estimable wife are among our best young people and all will regret to see them leave our fine city, as they are leaders socially, both of their good musicians and highly esteemed by all.

the Marine Corps and was stationed at Mare Island and then transferred to Quantico, Virginia. He had been ordered sent to San Domingo, as the —J. B. Howland, who has lived out northwest of town, has moved his family to Seaview, Wash. It will be remembered that Mr. Howland produced the big turnip that won the year's subscription offered by the News-Times for the largest vegetable of this kind. The big fellow finally landed in Texas.

—Mrs. Alice Anderson who has been spending some months in California, stopped off in this city Thurs-—Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Edginton and D. A. Finley returned home Saturabout four weeks. While they liked that country quite well, they think there is no place like Forest Grove and are glad to get back to this section of Oregon.
