Rep. Fisher, of Washington County, "Mr. Speaker, S. B. No. 300 is a measure which means much for the future welfare of Washington and Multnemah Counties. This measure if enacted will shorten the distance between Washington County points and Portland five miles, thereby cutting the present carfare between Beaverton and Portland on-balf, saving 40 cents on each round trip for every passenger not only from Beaverton but the whole Willamette Valley. The four per cent grade over Terwilliger Boulevard will be avoided and a practically level highway to the Tualatin valley established. This measure received a unanimous support of the House R. R. and Transport of the House A. R. and Transport of the House A. R. and Transport of the House A. R. and Transport of the House R. R. and Transport of the House R

Representative Fisher brought home a number of copies of S. B. No. 300 for the Commercial Club. He says: "Since a boy I have been traveling over that hill to Portland—but soon the people of Washington Couety are going under County of the county of the comment of the same state of the comment of the same state of the county of the comment of the same state of the same state

MOTHER AND CHILDREN DIE IN FLAMES

Monday's daily papers carried the following tragic story of the death of a mother and two children, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Dedge, live in the Thatcher neighborhood, near Forest Grove:

Mrs. Lorne Young and her two children, Dorothy, aged 3 and Loren, aged 1, ware burned to death Saturday afternoon in their home at the Inman-Poulsan lumber camp, seven miles west of Castle Rock.

Neighbors were horrified when they saw Mrs. Young with her baby in her arma appear on the porch, her clothing enveloped in flames. The girl was burned in the house. The mother and baby died while being taken to Fortland.

That there was an explosion w thin the house is believed. The fire was apread by kerosene, it is thought.

Young is foreman of camp five, and a son of L. A. Young, camp superintendent. Mrs. Young was formerly Dorothy Dodge.
