FOREST GROVE ITEMS

(From the News-Times)

—Mrs. H. A. Hatfield, who has been seriously ill for some time with a nervous breakdown, remains about the same.

—L. J. Jilson, of Portland, has been in this city the past week with a view to locating here where his children may enjoy good schools. Mr. Jilson is looking for a business also.

—E. W. Lowe, manager of J. C. Penney Co. store, leaves Sunday night for Salt Lake City to attend the Buyers' Convention of the company. He expects to be in Salt Lake about ten days.

—John Henderson, representing L. J. Jones & Son, monument dealers, of Portland, was in the city Tuesday on business connected with the firm.

—Mr. Jones, it will be remembered lived in Forest Grove a few years ago, but later moved to Portland. Mr. Henderson has just recently come to the coast from Champaign, Ill.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Macrum, of Portland, were visitors at the home of their brother, J. W. Macrum, one day last week.

—E. E. Watt, who is at present at Banks, selling out a hardware store, was a guest of his sister, Mrs. J. W. Macrum, over Sunday.

—Frank Fleck, who for so many years was employed by the A. B. Caples Grocery Co., has again accepted a position with that firm and his many friends will be pleased to see him behind the counter.

—Mr. and Mrs. Marie Campbell, of Portland, were guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Richard Fendall, Sunday. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Belt, who remained for a longer visit with her husband and daughter, Mrs. Fendall.

—Mrs. Anna Pease, of Burlington, Vermont, arrived last week for a visit with her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hall. She expects to be here about two weeks and from here will go to Tacoma for a visit of several months with her daughter.

—Theodore Van Loo removed his wife from the hospital at Hillsboro where she has been for some time, following an operation, to their home east of this city. She is recovering slowly.

—Mrs. Swope, state president of the Woman's Christian Missionary Board, will be present Friday at an all-day meeting of the members and friends of the Christian church in this city. The day will be devoted to a program and missionary work. The Hillsboro members are also expected.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watkins, of Hillsboro, were here Friday and visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Giltner, and Mr. and Mrs.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Anderson, parents of Albert A. Anderson, who visited here some time ago and whose family spent the winter in this city, stopped off here last week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. VanKough.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. L. VanKough, who enroute home to Sturgis, South Dakota from California, where they spent the winter. They left Sunday night.

—Many people about town are greatly enhancing the beauty of the city streets by leveling down, filling and otherwise improving the parkings in front of their residences. It is all very commendable and the News-Times is greatly pleased to see such interest in civic improvement.

—Plant rose and keep up the lawns. No better way to help beautify the city.

—Mrs. Charles Williams and daughter, Anna, of Patton Valley, were here Wednesday shopping. Mrs. Williams was Miss Nettie Smith and lived here several years ago. She is the daughter of Darling Smith, one of the old pioneers of Oregon. Mr. Smith came across the plains in the early days and settled in Scoggin Valley on a donation land claim and was known to all old settlers.

—Chief of Police Mills informs the News-Times that parties who persist in tying their cows to that they have access to the sidewalks of the city and cause inconvenience and often times dire calamity to foot passengers, will be prosecuted to the limit of the law. People have no right to pasture the sidewalks and should keep their cows tied so that they will be in the limits of their own lots at all times.

—The Masonic and Eastern Star Home Building Committee and the Architect visited the building Tuesday, inspected the work that is in progress and gave further directions. The driveway have been laid out and staked out. They will be ready for the ground in the near future and the work will commence at an early date. The work of laying brick is going along nicely.

—If building is to be done in Forest Grove this season the contractors, lumbermen, hardware men, workmen and all others concerned must be prepared to make sacrifices. Get the

Beaverton, Or. Phone 5, 1245

—Mrs. P. J. Wilson called on Monday of this week and called on a new subscriber to the News-Times, rapidly growing family of residents.

—The members and friends of the Beaverton lodge enjoyed a taffy pull at their hall Sunday night, following an interesting program. A jolly good time was enjoyed by all present.

—Walter McCracken, who has been visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. C. Lamer, during the winter, left for his home in Iowa, Wednesday. Mrs. Lamer accompanied him as far as Portland.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fletcher, of this city, on Sunday, had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hays of Portland. Mrs. Hays being the eldest daughter, Mrs. Ben Hay, of Astoria; their son, W. T. Fletcher, wife and two sons, Robert and Donald, and daughter, Elizabeth, of Portland; their grandson, Chester Williams, and wife and their son, Ray.

—Mrs. Lee Neidman returned Sunday from her trip to Hillsboro. She spent the last two weeks in that state at Kinball, helping care for her brother, Gene Chappell, who is in poor health. She brought her brother home with her and was also accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. M. Hollan, of Kinball, who will visit here a few weeks.

—The meeting at the Methodist church last Thursday afternoon was addressed by District Superintendent E. E. Gilbert, Rev. Hickman, president of Kinball School of Theology and others, and reports were given by pastors of nearby towns. At 6:30 a nice supper was served in the dining room of the church to about seventy-five people. In the evening a stereoscopic lecture on the foreign mission field was given, which was quite interesting.

—A telegram was received yesterday stating that Mrs. Arthur H. Underwood had passed away at her home in Stratton, Neb. The family lived here for a number of years and she was greatly loved and respected by all who knew her. She has been a great sufferer for years and was in poor health when living here. She leaves a husband and two sons, Dale and Basil.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. Hastings, of Portland, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Burlington.

—Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Burlington spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Copeland, in Portland.

—John Griffith, of Portland was here Wednesday at the Samuel Nelson home on North 4th Street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lynn P. Shaffer and children Harold, Loraine and Helen, of Portland, spent Sunday and Monday with E. W. Lamb and family.

—Miss June Walker, who was recently taken to a Hillsboro hospital for a surgical operation is now at home and is recovering nicely.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hurley, of Chehalis, Wash., spent the week-end with friends in this city, returning to Portland Sunday night, and leaving for their home Monday. Mr. Hurley is editor of the Advocate at Chehalis.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McEldowney have decided to move back to Beaverton where Mr. McEldowney will operate the Ladd & Tilton farm for another year. Mr. McEldowney has worked for this firm, off and on, for the past thirty years.

—Grocer Harry T. Giltner has been confined to his home the past week or ten days seriously afflicted by a stiff neck caused by an abscess. He is now getting along nicely, however, and hopes soon to be able to be at his place of business again.

—Ralph C. Walker, the electrician, was in Portland the latter part of last week attending an electrical school of information and instruction. Aside from gaining much valuable information useful to the craft the delegates in attendance were instructed in window decorating, sales, etc.

—Mr. Hill, manager of the Hillsboro Condenser, has leased the W. H. McEldowney home on First Avenue North, for a year and will move to this city as soon as school closes in Hillsboro. An excellent residence city and its excellent school facilities are attractions that bring Mr. Hill here.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Anderson, parents of Albert A. Anderson, who visited here some time ago and whose family spent the winter in this city, stopped off here last week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. VanKough.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. L. VanKough, who enroute home to Sturgis, South Dakota from California, where they spent the winter. They left Sunday night.

the colors from fast." "He told you the truth. I can see for myself how they ran."

Natural Method. "I understand you got your head some clock on the installment plan."

Contrary Fate. "Did the plan work to give the lady a hand on all her lines?"

Indefinite. "Wait a minute; do you mean a hint or a dog?"

Accounting for it. "I hear young Flyer is going to reform. They say he is dead broke."

The Answer. "He asked a lot of questions about the house. He wanted to know in the first place if it was rat-proof."

Ways of Girls. "The girls all got mad at each other and had a fight. Now they are all mad at Mabel."

An Appalling Idea. "One time when we were in Europe, we certainly did make a night of it."

"I hope it wasn't in Norway, where the nights are six months long."
