He drove through by automobile and was accompanied by Rev. E. E. Flint, of Portland, and on account of going overland started a week earlier than was at first planned.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hughes left Tuesday for Ketchikan, Alaska, for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Ireland. They expect to be gone about two months, and possibly longer if Mr. Hughes finds something to his liking in that section of the country. They were accompanied on their way as far as Tacoma by Mrs. A. A. Hall, Mrs. Hughes' mother, who will visit at various points in Washington and will remain away from home about two months.

—W. F. Lawray, a prominent jeweler and Mason, of Hood River, Ore., and brother Warren, of Glenwood, Iowa, came Thursday last and visited their old-time friend, C. V. B. Russell, whom they had not seen for twenty-five years. It is needless to say these old friends had a most enjoyable time talking over things of long ago. These gentlemen were enroute to Tillamook on a fishing trip. These men in talking over old times discovered that they were the only ones now alive, who, twenty-five years ago, were in business in Glenwood, Iowa. Mr. Lawray being in the jewelry business and Mr. Russell in the shoe business.

—Attorney Loyal M. Graham was before the State Highway Commission at its meeting on Tuesday of this week in the interests of the proposed paved highway up Scoggin Valley and secured the promise of the Commission to visit the valley before the next meeting and look the proposition over. It will be remembered that the Scoggin Valley people were the first in the State to file a petition to pave under the new state law which provides that paving districts may be formed and the people of a rural community be given the opportunity to pay for the road in ten annual payments. Mr. Graham believes that this road that they will grant the prayer of the petitioners.

—The Warren Construction Company has completed the paving of the highway to some distance beyond Dilley and the road is now open to Gaston by way of the City Power Plant. A small stretch yet to be paved this side the Gale Creek bridge, which will be done later. Work has been resumed in the city to complete the work here.

—Mr. Rogers, of Rogers Auto Truck Line, has moved his family to this city and they live on North B Street. His truck headquarters here will be at the Valley Tire & Rubber Co.'s place of business.

—Next Monday is the Christian Fourth. Celebrate where you like, but celebrate somewhere, even if it is a same celebration right at home. The business houses of the city will practically all be closed. The banks will have a legal holiday, the post-office will be closed from 9:30 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. There will be no rural delivery that day.

—The many friends of Dr. C. E. Hawke will be much pleased to learn that the doctor is improving in health quite rapidly. He is able to sit up a great portion of the time and can walk around the house. He hopes soon to be able to return to his practice, but he may be several weeks before that result is obtained.

—M. J. Cummins, a brother-in-law of Mail Carrier J. L. VanKirk, is in the city today for a brief visit. Mr. Cummins is a marine engineer and has made a number of trips to China and Japan. He is just over from England and says that conditions are terrible in England on account of the coal strike. He says people were actually going hungry and in desperate straits. It was been eleven months since he was at home, and he expects to sail again in a few days. He is a Mason and paid a visit to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home and thinks it is great.

—Mr. Blair is making the trip to Los Angeles overland by auto to attend the Congregational National Conference.

—Miss Carrie Beach, of Akron, Ohio, is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. H. E. Kauffman and Mrs. McCoy, of this city. Miss Beach visited in the Grove four years ago and is very fond of our beautiful Oregon.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joy E. Badley, who have been here for the past six months, have moved to Portland. James Wilson and wife moved into the house vacated by the Badleys.

—Levi Smith, aged 91 years, and one of the best known citizens of Washington County, is now 87 and is expected to live to be at least 100. What has given him a new grip on life is a new great-grandson. The Stork recently left the boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emery La Mont.

—S. B. Ventura, of Portland, has succeeded Mr. Anderson, who has had charge of the Peterson Studio, of this city, and is now in charge. Mr. Ventura is an expert in his line of work, having had much experience in that business, operating with Sandy of Portland. He will improve the service and guarantee the best of work.

—Postmaster R. P. Wirtz is improving the appearance of his residence property on South Main Street by applying a new coat of paint.

—O. P. Burris, minister of the Christian church, will be absent from the city for the next ten days, at Turner, Oregon, where he has charge of the music at the state convention for the Church of Christ in Oregon.

—Grandpa Vance, father of Mrs. P. M. Mann, who lives out east of town, on Tuesday of this week passed his 93rd birthday, hale and hearty. He was born in Canada, June 28th, 1828. Mr. Vance has been a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal church for many years and on Tuesday he was remembered by the Bible class of that school sending him a postal shower. Here's hoping that he may at least reach the century mark.

—C. W. Russell, a nephew of C. V. B. Russell, our pioneer shoe merchant, was in the city a brief while one day last week for a call upon his uncle. Mr. Russell's home is in Omaha, Nebraska. He is of the firm of M. E. Smith Dry Goods Co., and is on his way home from Honolulu. Mr. Russell says that this section of Oregon is in a fine way compared with many other parts of the country, particularly in the middle west and south where the stock raisers and the cotton growers have been hit so hard by falling prices. He thinks this valley is a wonderful locality and says that we ought to be congratulating ourselves on our good fortune instead of complaining of such declines as we have been meeting along the lines we are engaged in.

—The Woman's Relief Corps met at the K. of P. hall, June 23, with a good attendance, at which the president, Mrs. Sophia Smith, gave an interesting report on the G. A. R. convention which was held at Pendleton this year. After the business meeting was over a splendid lunch was served by the committee. The ladies have decided to give a food sale, Saturday, July 2, at H. T. Giltner's and would like to have all the Corps ladies to contribute to this sale as the money will go to replenish the treasury.

—At the meeting of the directors of the Forest Grove Commercial Club one evening this week an arrangement was entered into between the Club and Pacific University whereby the two will join forces in preparing and having printed a pamphlet descriptive of Forest Grove and vicinity and the advantages of Pacific University. This is something that the city has long needed and when well prepared and properly written and printed will be a source of much benefit to our city and the University.

—Our good friend and subscriber, William J. Reeves, who lives out on the Base Line Road east of town, thinks he has the blue ribbon patch of strawberries, and so far as we know he is entitled to the honor. Mr. Reeves says that he has a small patch, strawberries, 70 by 60 feet, less than a tenth of an acre from which he has picked and sold so far this year 1522 pounds at 4 1/2 cents per pound, making a revenue of $68.49 or at the rate of $684.90 per acre. That he has picked for his own use about 100 pounds and that there is probably 100 pounds more on the vines. If anybody can beat this record the News-Times would like to hear from him, her or them. Mr. Reeves used the "matted row" system, picking the berries himself, or maybe Mrs. Reeves picked, them, we don't know.

—Doubtless no one in Forest Grove takes more pride in her home surroundings and devotes more time and money to the upkeep and beautifying of her premises than does Mrs. A. F. Rogers, who owns the whole block surrounded by Fifth Street on the East, Third Avenue on the South, Fourth Street on the West and Second Avenue on the North. The lawn is always well kept, the shrubbery is nicely trimmed, and there are many beautiful flowers and the whole plot of ground is a very delightful place. The paving is now being finished up on Second Avenue south and when this is completed there will be paving on three sides of Mrs. Rogers' property. It is one of the show places of town, and no one takes more pleasure in showing her visitors over her premises than does Mrs. Rogers.

—The entertainment given by John Frederick Mason, electrician, of Eugene, at the Christian church on Friday evening was very well attended and exceedingly well liked. Mr. Mason proved himself a versatile reader of ability, by handling selections of pathos and dramatic appeal as capably as he handled his more numerous humorous selections. His interpretations of comic characters were such as to bring forth peals of laughter from the audience and won him great applause. The entertainment was under the auspices of the Young People's Endeavor society and they netted more than enough to complete the piano fund for which they have been working. Miss Lyla Short gave a heartily enjoyed vocal solo, the church choir sang an appropriate selection, and Duenna Brown and Marial Clark played a piano duet during the interludes in the main program by Mr. Mason.

—A card from Rev. W. Walter Blair received here this morning postmarked at Sacramento, California, June 29th, says: "Having fine trip and making good time. Roads good and bad. Very fine roads now."

—Mr. Blair is making the trip to Los Angeles overland by auto to attend the Congregational National Conference.

—Miss Carrie Beach, of Akron, Ohio, is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. H. E. Kauffman and Mrs. McCoy, of this city. Miss Beach visited in the Grove four years ago and is very fond of our beautiful Oregon.
