WITH THE PORTS

The coppers seen that in between No mustard did they use That sausage great was quickly ate To get a nip of booze.

Though old in age no dog did rage They were full as a tick They did not bite but gave delight Because they had a kick.

Cops did behind how hot dogs sold And were wondering why And so at last while walking past A frankfurter they did buy.

Ah ha they said when biting bread The weenie end so near With the first nip they got a tip Bootlegging an right here.

Eat stands in town now get a frown They look at them agog The cops go by with watchful eye Where they see the hot dog.

NEWS ITEMS

Local, Personal and Other City Events Briefly Noted.

E. E. Swenson on Thursday sold to Dan McLeod two lots on Angel St. belonging to Doy Gray. Mr. McLeod will build a garage at present for living purposes but later will erect a good home.

A. Weiant, chicken expert for the Fisher Flouring Mills, in company with W. C. Gifford, local manager for the Beaverton Feed and Produce company, have been interviewing the chicken growers of Beaverton and vicinity and canvassing the territory for orders. Mr. Gifford will carry the Fisher products, including the Fisher's baby chick feed and supplies. He has a bulletin in the care and feeding of baby chicks which is free for the asking.

Charles Berthold, local feed merchant, spent Thursday in Portland interviewing the wholesale dealers and getting ready for spring trade. Beaverton, Route 3. 2114

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hoppood visited in Corvallis Tuesday.

Mrs. C. J. Stevens is quite ill at her home on First Street.

The light at Second and Erickson avenue which was ordered by the council a month ago, has been installed by the North Coast Power Company and now sheds its rays along the new pavement, much to the delight of residents living out that way. In fact, it is so much appreciated that residents living further out on Erickson avenue have decided to have another light near the city limits and have offered to pay $30 toward the cost of the light. The council has indicated that the light will be supplied. The card party held last Sunday evening at St. Cecilia hall was well attended and a good time reported. Refreshments were served. First prizes were awarded to Mary O'Mara and G. Holbake, while consolation prize went to Catherine O'Mara.

The W. C. T. U. held their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. McLeod with a good attendance. Mrs. J. D. Wilcox had charge of the program, which was very interesting. The next regular meeting will be the second Wednesday in February.

Hugh Lewis is improving his property on Angel Street by putting in a sidewalk.

Mrs. Richard Nutter, who has been quite seriously ill, is much improved. A. M. Cannon, of Hood River, visited during the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hoppood and family.

Mrs. Edwin Simpson and grandson, Harold Simpson, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinder, were called to Pendleton Tuesday by the illness of a son-in-law. Mrs. Simpson is the mother of Mrs. Pinder.

The standing in the Diamond Queen is: Charlene Fredrey, 928; Noreen Nelson, 903.

FOREST GROVE GAMES

Beaverton traveled down to Forest Grove last Saturday evening and broke even with the high school there in basket ball by the girls winning their game and the boys losing theirs.

The score of the first game was 18-4, and the boys came out on the losing end of a 23-8 score.

The stars for the winning aggregation from Beaverton were Crete Gray and Ruth Jones. The other girls played stellar ball and the high school believe they have a rising star in Frances Allen, a freshman, who has lots of fight and is a good shot.

In the boys' game, the shooting was mostly done from the center of the floor. Merrill and E. Masters seemed to be the only ones capable of looping them in. The boys seemed to be lost on the large floor of the Pacific U. gymnasium, and were unable to convert their free throws as they made only two out of eleven chances. The boys all put up a game fight and it was a better game than the score would indicate. Cap. Kemmer and A. Masters showed their fight and held the Forest Grove forwards down in great shape.

Following are the lineups for the games:

Girls	Boys
Crete Gray	F. George Wilson
Frances Allen	F. Edward Boring
Velma Davies	C. Joe Merrill
Virginia Wilson	C.
Ruth Jones	G. Albert Kemmer
Marion Jones	G. Archie Masters
Helen Kearns	S. Ernest Masters
	S. John Malarkey
	S. Myron Jones

Forest Grove Locals

(From the News-Times)
—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Collins and baby boy returned home Sunday night after a visit of two weeks in Spokane, Wash. They say the Willamette Valley looked like summer to them when they arrived as the thermometer had been toying with zero during the time that they were there. They were glad to get back. Mr. Collins is the job man at the News-Times printery.
—Ed Ahlgren's Ford took a nose dive at the corner of Main Street and Third Avenue South last Friday morning on the frosty pavement. Ed was on his way up town when he attempted to negotiate the corner at that point when the machine suddenly cut a notch to sideways a little and cut a few dices, then turned a nose dive into the curbing, smashing a front wheel. Luckily no one was hurt.
—The "Live Wire" Bible Class of the Christian Church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Hutchens on Friday evening of this week for a good time social. All members are asked to attend. Something of importance to be brought before the class. Also election of officers. Special invitation to those who are interested. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchens have moved to their new home on B Street.
—This week the Southern Pacific railway has had a force of men at work putting in new crossings on Main Street to replace the old ones that gave autoists such heavy jolts when crossing. It is hoped that the evil will be remedied. Large, thick plank is being used instead of the great big cobblesstones that were there before.
—Mr. and Tom E. Luster and baby, of Ridgefield, Wash., spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Todd in this city.

Steve Yurkovich uses Thomas Rollins for $301 alleged due for cutting and hauling wood and repairing a road.
Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Miltenberger, of LaBine, were called here the past week by the serious illness of the former's mother.
L. A. S. Harding and wife, of Bremerton, Wash., where Mr. Harding is connected with the U. S. Navy, were recent guests of the family of T. S. Weatherford.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Polly Silver, of Portland, to Jacob Weil, of Forest Grove, was published in a Portland paper recently.
The Washington County Health Association held its annual meeting last Saturday, Sadie Orr Dunbar and Clinton C. Bay, of the Oregon Tuberculosis Association, gave addresses at the meeting.

A large plate glass in the Corwin Hardware store was last week mysteriously broken. A hole large enough for a man's head to go through, cut clean, with no sign of what caused the accident.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Enschede are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, born to them Tuesday of last week. They reside on the Hawthorne place east of this city near Orano.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Coulthard, who have been guests of their cousins, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Hyde, have returned to their home in Seattle. Mr. Coulthard is a linotype operator on the Seattle Times.
Dr. L. W. Hyde, Commander of the Spanish War Veterans, department of Oregon, installed officers last Tuesday night at Scout Young Camp, Portland, after which there were addresses and a splendid banquet.

Deputies Weckert and Stockdale, with revenue agents, raided the home of Joe Ruchek, northeast of Beaverton, one day last week, and seized 250 gallons of hard cider, and a quart and a half of moonshine. Ruchek is charged with selling the liquor.
H. G. Shout and C. E. Logan, who recently came here from Canada, have purchased the Egler tract of seven acres on East Oak Street and will go into the poultry business. They were former residents of the United States and say they are glad to get back.

Kaufman went on his way, blaming no one for the accident, and only feeling fortunate that he escaped with his life.
In a divorce complaint filed this week Margaret Larmer charges that her husband, James T. Larmer, on New Year's day, ordered her to leave their home at Seaside, accompanying her with a personal assault and threats of violence should she remain. The complaint charges when she returned the next day she was again ordered to leave. She says her husband earns good wages as an employe of the Standard Box Co. and draws a pension as a Spanish war veteran, and she asks $100 suit money, $150 attorney fees, $100 temporary alimony and $50 per month permanent alimony. The couple were married December 12, 1918, at San Jose, Cal.
