WATER

Last Tuesday I was strolling down our only Boulevard. Where the noisy water wagons never come,

And I heard the people talking "City Water" by the yard, I listened, sighed and silently passed on.

The night cop took me in e're I reached a dark side street, And as quickly "hiked" me to the City jail.

Where I found the City "Fathers," for there is where they meet,

But they told me I must call it "City Hall"!

They showed me into a dung-son, where I made a mark or sign, On a yellow sheet of paper, called a ballot;

But I found before I left, it was a kind of tax, or fine,

For the water that should cool my parched throat.

Here I found that old, old proverb, "Free as Water" was a fake That it did not mean that same at all, at all,

For each gallon that we use, and each glassfull that we take, There is charged an I, O, U, against us all.

We have to pay for water and we have to pay for light,

And we have to pay for walking on the street,

And we'll have to pay for freedom, if the prophecy is right,

When the fullness of the time is all complete.

AGED WOMAN IS LEADER IN FIGHT

MRS. MATT MITCHELL, OF COVE, IS UNAFRAID.

Union County Lady Works Vigorously to Down "Wolf in Sheep's Garb"—Single Tax Disliked.

Although an old woman, Mrs. Matt Mitchell, who lives at Cove, Oregon, says she is never afraid to work when the cause is good.

Mrs. Mitchell's home in Union County, she says, is one of those threatened by the Single Taxers with their Single Tax propaganda. Aroused by the efforts of what she describes as "U'Ron and his ilk" and their "false trash," Mrs. Mitchell has gone into the field herself.

Modern Joan of Arc.

Like a modern but aged Joan of Arc, this old lady organized them against Single Tax. At her own expense she received books on the subject of the fight against Single Tax and she distributed 200 of these herself over the great county in which she lives.

"It is people who own no real estate," said Mrs. Mitchell, the other day, "who are in favor of Single Tax, also the ignorant class, and those who take no newspaper at all. It is a shame that such men are allowed to vote at all on anything pertaining to taxation, while thousands of intelligent people, who are heavy taxpayers, must have their homes taxed away from them by such ignorant persons."

Whole Section in Arms.

"Union County is one of the counties selected by that 'wolf in sheep's clothing,' U'Ron, so we will all have to help in the fight. I am an old woman, but not too old to work in a good cause."

Mrs. Mitchell says that the whole of her section is up in arms. Every property owner in Eastern Oregon, from the man or woman who owns a small lot to the wheat farmers, is fighting what is known to be a confiscation of their homes, declares this old woman fighter for the "common good."

Ballot Numbers Told.

Mrs. Mitchell, despite her years, worked arduously in the campaign against Single Tax. She circulated petitions, distributed 200 books, circulated cards and gave her time freely. In addition, she expended her own money in the fight.

And when a person is willing to spend real money in a fight for a vital principle it must be conceded there is real enthusiasm for what she knows to be right.

The ballot numbers which will bar Single Tax from Oregon are 304, 305 and 308.

ATWELL DISLIKES SINGLE TAX.

H. C. Atwell, president of the Oregon State Horticultural Society, who lives at Forest Grove, declares that he is bitterly opposed to the Single Tax propaganda. "I shall be glad to talk against Single Tax whenever I have the opportunity," commented President Atwell. Mr. Atwell is one of the most prominent farmers in the State of Oregon and his views are considered valuable by many Oregonians.

TEAMSTER DOES GOOD WORK.

Travelling the whole extent of the country north of the John Day River, C. W. Bonham is making an ardent volunteer fight against what he feels to be the doctrines of Single Tax. Mr. Bonham makes his headquarters at Canyon City, Ore. "Although I don't get my mail regularly," said Mr. Bonham, "I am doing all I can in the good work. My friend, Phil Metschan, can tell you of the extent of the country over which I travel." Mr. Bonham distributed over 200 copies of "Single Tax Exposed," a work by Charles H. Shields, secretary of the Oregon Equal Taxation League. This book should be read by every voter in the State of Oregon. It proves conclusively that Single Tax is not a system of taxation at all, but a means to destroy private ownership of land.

GARDINER, ORE., MAN IS GLAD.

"I am glad to note the steps being taken," remarked Fred Assenheimer, a confectioner of Gardiner, Ore., the other day, "to stamp out such an unjust law as Single Tax." While Mr. Assenheimer would benefit personally under Single Tax by reduced taxation, he declared that he did not consider it fair that he should escape while his farm friends were taxed out of existence. "I am glad there are not many Single Tax people around here," he told an interviewer.

OH! YOU OCTOBER!

Libra, the sign ruling between September 23d and October 23d, is that part of the Grand Man, known as the Reins. Ancient mythology classed it as the psychic principal. For this reason spiritual control and great power of discernment are the dominant characteristics of Libra people. It would necessarily follow from this that among them will be found spiritualists, mediums, and clairvoyants. People of this class recent being asked to give a reason for their impressions; they know they come by intuition and feel as though others would not understand or appreciate them if an explanation was gone into. This Foresight will of necessity make them excellent traders, being, as they are, able to take at a glance the best end of an argument, and realize any defect not discernible to the ordinary observer without close scrutiny. Soon learning to have confidence in this intuition, they are apt to fall into excesses if not guarded in their vocation; for instance, speculation, gambling, ect. Unknowingly this force is drawn on and if used to excess or abused, the system is weakened and they die prematurely.

You will be honest in all your dealings and if left to your own inclinations, it would be a hard matter to deceive you. Your love of research leads to a desire for books for which you have decided liking. Your ability to live in a world of your own is inclined to make you of a melancholy disposition, unless you seek out agreeable companions.

The Libra people make good writers, artists or professional men. The conservative Libra should wed with the bold Aries.
