Grange FAIR TIGARDVILLE

BY DERLE-DENNEY

Three of my friends and I talked of going to the Tigardville Grange Fair, which was to be held Saturday Oct. 5th. One of the girls finally decided she did not care to go, but the rest of us arranged to go.

The day was very pleasant, and just the right kind for a fair. We took the car at Garden Home and in about ten minutes alighted at Tigardville. The Hall where the Fair was held is about a mile from the prosperous little town. The sun was shining enough to make everything look beautiful. A steam roller was at work on the approach to the Fanno Creek bridge. As we crossed the bridge we could see the water sparkling in the sunlight. The maple trees along the path protect the passer-by from the hot sun. We enjoyed the walk very much. As we neared the Hall the beautiful melodies of the band could be plainly heard.

The hall is situated on a tract of land donated to the Grange in early times by Mr. Wilson Tigard, an old pioneer. At one side of the Hall a grove of fir trees are growing. We entered and were ready to see the exhibits brought by the people of that vicinity and the surrounding country. The exhibits were arranged in the middle of the room so you could see from both sides.

Everyone seemed pleased at the number of exhibits. Green vegetables, fruits also canned vegetables and fruits of all kinds and various sizes were to be seen. The school children's exhibit was at one end of the hall, it proved equally as good as the exhibits of older people. It consisted of green fruits, bread, cakes and needle work the womens exhibits of needle work were very nice and showed a great talent for for that art. Outside were coops of chickens and rabbits, one coop of chickens took the blue ribbon at the state fair. At noon a bounteous dinner was served in the dining room which every-body pronounced fine.

About 3 o'clock the races took place as follows; potatoe race, small boys foot race, small girls foot race, older girls foot race, and a foot race for young men. These races were very interesting. While the races were being run the judges were awarding the prizes in the hall, which they thought was a hard task as every thing was nice. As it began to get late people began to leave and take away the things they had brought or exchange with their friends.

The car we were to leave on would soon be due so it was necessary to leave. The walk back to Tigard was a very pleasant one.

As we walked along a little dispute arose as to which way our car would come one of the girls being sure the road to Salem was the right one. The car was several minutes late, which meant that we were to get home after dark. After we got on the car we asked each other if we three would ever get on at the station together again.

We reached Garden home just at dusk.

BASKET BALL GAME

BEAVERTON vs CHRISTIAN BROTHERS COLLEGE

In the Basket Ball game here last Saturday night the Beaver-ton boys were defeated by the Christian Bros. College of Portland 40 to 17 they admit that they were beaten fairly for the referee was very good, but some people seem to think that the boys should quit but they are not quitters, their first game last season proved this when they were beaten by Forest Grove. The line up Sat. night was.

Beaverton—Barnes did Wilhans Ashworth who took Barnes place in the second half, Davis Center Berst and Allen guards.

NEW Comet

GENEVA, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Dr. William Brooks, director of the Smith Observatory and Prof. of Astronomy at Hobart College, discovered a comet about 4 o'clock this morning in the Eastern sky.

Its position was right ascension 10 hours, 37 minutes, 20 seconds declension south one degree 87 minutes. The comet is in constellation Sextans, with moderate motion eastward and visible through small telescopes.

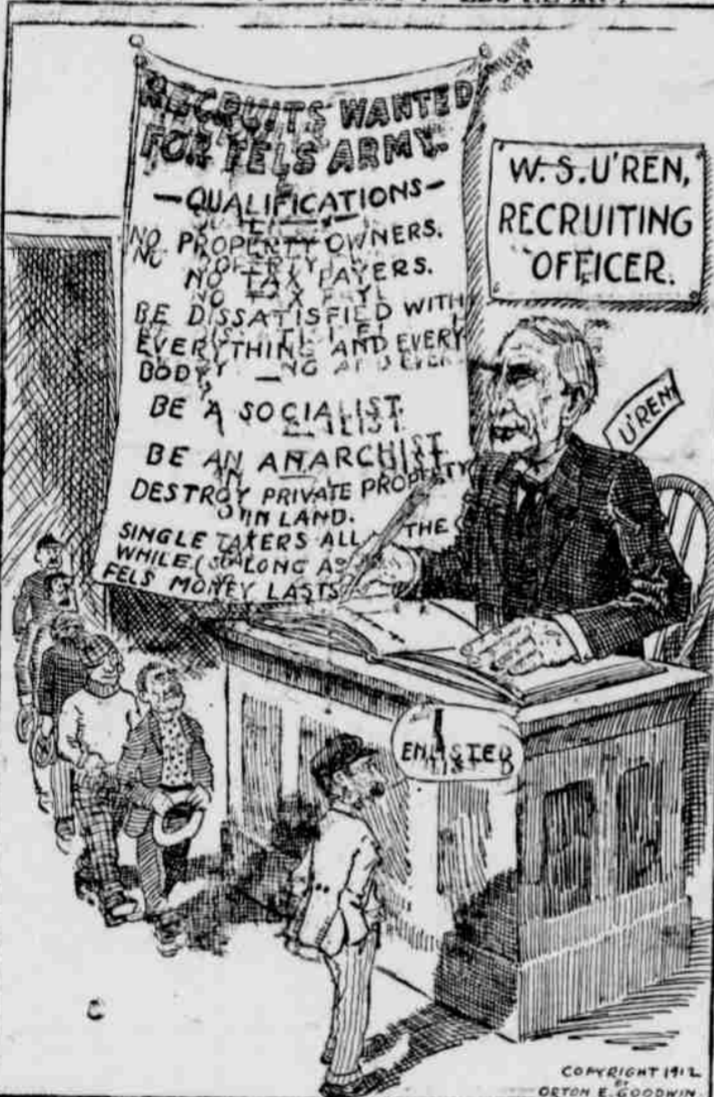

This is the 27th comet discovered by Prof. Brooks.

Breaks Leg

GORDON CARTER

Gordon Carter a little fellow who is staying with his grandmother Mrs. Gordon of this place undertook to climb over an empty car No. 142 attached to Extra Work Train No. 2036, while train was stopping here at the depot on the main line while the crew were eating dinner at the hotel. As he walked over the car he stepped on the Hand Hold Rod on the side next the depot, his foot slipped between the car and rod, bending his right leg double and breaking both bones between the knee and ankle. Two brakemen and Earl Fisher got the little fellow down to the doctors office. Dr. Carstens set fracture.

COUGAR ON McCALLIN'S PLACE

About two weeks ago a party of hunters from Portland came out to Daniel's place about three miles north of this place and killed 2 coyotes. Several pigs and a calf have been killed in this part of the woods, and several people claim to have seen cougar tracks. William McCallin while looking for his horses one evening heard a cry like that of a child thinking that his little boy had followed him he called to him but got no answer, hearing it again he returned to the house but found that the boy had not been away from the house at all. "Bill" concluded that close as he cared to get to a cougar without a gun.
