3 Pigs And 24 Chickens
JUDGE KEMPE nick KENTON LOOSER
Wednesday morning at 10 A.M. the Judge, E. Kind, a prominent resident of Kenton about five miles South West of this place, was suddenly awakened by one of his pigs squealing, he got up and went outside to see what the old shot gun would do for the pig. After his best efforts for the pig he finally gave up the idea of catching the pig, his shot seemed to have killed the pig, then he asked advice of the Judge as to what to do with the pig. The Judge, E. Kind, released the gun and looked over the field but could not get sight of him again so on the run. The pig was a bit of a hard one to track over the muck and mud. At the time there was a heavy shower which added to the difficulty. He ran to the house in which the Judge was, a large Wonder dog tied up, and the Sidewalk dog. The Judge, E. Kind, ran on to the house and went to work to try and find the pig. The Judge, E. Kind, took his home and went to work to find the pig. The Judge, E. Kind, ran on to the house, the dog tied up, and the Sidewalk dog. The Judge, E. Kind, ran on to the house and got the pig, after which the Judge, E. Kind, took his home and went to work to find the pig.
