INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AND PROGRESS OF OUR HOME STATE

DEMONSTRATE MEAT CUTS.

Interesting Feature of O. C. G. Farmer's Day Tours to Oregon Agricultural College. We see the meat cutters turn their ramp stork! Do you know where the tours to Oregon Agricultural College are going to be? Why not join the Online Wagon for one of these tours and be the first to see this year's new displays?

The Oregon Farmers' Union will hold a series of tours to Oregon Agricultural College this fall, and one of the features of these tours will be the new meat cutting display. The Oregon Farmers' Union is the largest agricultural organization in the state, and it is proud to offer these tours to its members. If you are interested in learning more about the display, please contact your local Oregon Farmers' Union office or visit their website.

WORK IS STATEWIDE.

"Men in Oregon" Campaign in So-called "Men in Oregon" campaign that has been waged as a part of the Oregon Agricultural College's ongoing mission.

The campaign aims to promote agriculture and show the world how Oregon is a great place to live and work.

The campaign is run on a shoestring, and the success of its efforts can be seen in the results it achieves.

The campaign's success can be attributed to the hard work and dedication of the Oregon Farmers' Union members, who have worked tirelessly to promote agriculture in their state.

The campaign has already made a positive impact on Oregon's economy, and it continues to grow in popularity with the public.

"Men in Oregon" is not just about agriculture; it's about all the things that Oregon has to offer, including our beautiful natural landscape, our friendly people, and our rich history.

The campaign is run by volunteers who are passionate about Oregon and its future. If you are interested in getting involved in this important campaign, please contact your local Oregon Farmers'

Union office or visit their website.
