HOME TO-NIGHT.

A common sight we see daily: is the little children running around on the street looking for something to do. It is the very nature of these little fellows to have something to keep busy at, if it is not work it will surely be mischief, good fathers and mothers will plan to keep these little ones' heads busy, send them to school, have chores and light work then start some games after supper, take the lead keep something "going on around the fireside" make things so pleasant around home that they would rather be there than anywhere else — and in a short time you would rather be at home evenings yourself than "hanging around town" — in the meantime you are laying the foundation for the best of citizenship — while doing this, you will be heading off about three fourths of all the trouble of this old world.

Hello There! February

Gem Amethysts
 Flower Primrose
 Astral Colors Blue, Pink
 and Nile Green.

Persons born under this sign which extends from January 21st to February 19th are more apt to be paradoxical and go to extremes than persons born under any of the other signs. If you were born under this sign, Aquarius, it is somewhat difficult to describe your characteristics, for, if surrounded by advantageous circumstances, you will be capable of achieving wondrous results, while on the contrary, if adversity should be your lot, you are liable to sink to the lowest depth. Certain it is that persons born under this sign are seldom mediocre in any walk of life — they are decidedly one thing or the other.

Your talents are more in the line of the useful than the ornamental, and your successes will be mainly in mercantile pursuits. You are fond of amusements of all kinds, operas, theatres, popular resorts, sports etc. and persons born in this are more apt to dwell in the cities, their nature demanding the active social and business intercourse of city life. You are a good judge of human nature and not liable to be misled by a pathetic story which is untrue. Persons born under this sign seem to possess a peculiar ability in controlling insane persons and possess the power of healing in a great degree. Women born in this sign are the most devoted wives; they always wish to appear well dressed and are inclined to observe the conventionalities of life; their tastes run more toward the ideal than the real practical in life. You should wed with those born in Leo, they are pre-eminently home-makers.
