Philosophy.

A philosopher is a man who can look at a hard luck in the face and think of the value the experience he is having will be to him in later years.

There Are Compensations.

"This increased cost of living is something terrible!" said the young man as he paid the third installment on the engagement ring.

NOT SUCH A GREAT AMOUNT

"Worth One's Weight in Gold" Has Been Accorded Altogether Too Much Significance.

You often hear of a man or a woman or an object of some sort that is proclaimed to be "worth his or her weight in gold." Did you ever stop to figure out what your weight in gold would be? Or your sweet-heart's? Or your baby's? Or your favorite pipe's? You can do it—approximately. The value of gold fluctuates. Usually it runs in price somewhere between $19 and $20 and ounce. Let's take the latter amount. It's easier to figure with. Gold is weighed by troy weight, twelve ounces to the pound. In other words (at $20 an ounce) $240 a pound. Do you weigh 150 pounds? Then your weight in gold is about $36,000. (The "capitalization" of a man who gets an $1,800-a-year salary.) Is your girl's weight 110 pounds? She is worth only about $26,400. Nearly $10,000 less than yourself, though you probably won't acknowledge it to her. If your pipe weighs two ounces its weight in gold is $40. Your 10-pound baby is worth only $2,400 in gold. So you see "worth its weight in gold" is not such an exorbitant praise after all. Next time tell her instead that she is worth her weight in radium.

Ambiguous.
Mrs. Knagg—"You may not know it, but I had refused Billy Batch, who stood up with you when we were married." Mr. Knagg—"Well, the best man won."

Small Boy Again.

"Bobby, do you see that bright star overhead, at the top of the big cross?"
"Yes," "Well, that's Deneb. It is nearly three quadrillions of miles away." "Hub! Then how do you know its name is Deneb?"

Furniture New to Mary.

A lady out shopping ordered an umbrella stand sent home for her vestibule, and only reached home late in the evening, where she had left her new maid in charge. "Well, Mary," she said, "did any packages come?"
"Yes, mum," was the reply. "The wagon com wld th' cuspidore for th' umbrellas."

Making Bomb-Thrower Out of Host.

An English wit of reputation, who has been visiting New York for the last two weeks, remarked at the conclusion of a little dinner given him: "It's been excellent. I never heard older stories nor drank newer wine in my life."

Not a Man's World.

This is not rightly a man's world. Great men are but dreams of women become militant. Women are the real inspirers of men; they ignite his every conception. Never yet has man rung, painted, prophesied nor in any way woven tighter the spirit of his time, but that his mother was first great enough to attract the gift; and more often than not, upon his maturity, the potential gift was startled into its supreme expression by another mother's daughter.—Will Leighton Comfort.

Worth While.

We may be sure, although we know not how, we give our lives like coral insects, to build up, invisibly, in the twilight of the seas of time, the reef of righteousness; and we may be sure, although we see not why, it is a thing worth doing.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Varieties of Sharks.

The many varieties of the shark are divided into the littoral, the pelagic and the bathyal, according as they are found near the shore, or in mid-ocean, or at great depths. Besides those mentioned there are the liver, the bound, the shovel-nose, the tiger, the hammer-heads, the porbeagles, the box or thresher, and the basking shark, sometimes, though wrongly, called the sunfish.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to give for their children during the teething period.

Completing the Course.

"Now," said the professor, "when you have taken a few lessons in acting, I think I can commend you as a slightly competent dentist."

"What do I want with lessons in acting?"

"After you have assured a patient that you are not going to hurt him, you must show great skill in displaying a smile and surprise when he yells."

Sleuthing Coffee Fragrance.

Under Frederick the Great fellows with keen, long noses, throughout the country got jobs as Coffee-smellers to smell out the bean roasting and to detect the odor of the boiling coffee. The government tried building big coffee roasting plants and charging high prices, and in time the Germans all turned again to beer, and coffee was considered a luxury.

Useless Worry.

"Much of our worry is useless." "Yes; it is. I once bought some stock in a rubber grower and worried two winters about frost before I ascertained that the trees hadn't yet been planted."

Hundreds of Centuries Old.

What is believed to be the earliest human skull yet found in England has been unearthed in a Sussex gravel pit. It is judged to belong to the pleistocene period, and to be quite as old as any human remains yet found in Europe. The skull is said to have evidently belonged to an exceedingly primitive type of human being and to have enclosed a brain with marked differences from that of any living race.

Be thrifty on little things like bluing. Don't accept water for bluing. Ask for Red Cross Ball Blue, the extra good value blue.

Simplify Life.

"I do believe in simplicity. It is astonishing as well as sad, how many trivial affairs even the wisest man thinks he must attend to in a day; how singular an affair he thinks he must omit. When the mathematician would solve a difficult problem he first frees the equation of all incumbrances and reduces it to its simplest terms. So simplify the problem of life, distinguish the necessary and the real.—From Thoreau 'Letters.'"

Believes Hens Once Had Teeth.

That hens had teeth in the olden days is the opinion of Professor Gilbert of Los Angeles (Cal.) high school. In a recent address before a local organization of naturalists he also told his auditors that the eggs of birds have greatly decreased in size since their teeth became extinct. Had they been marketed then as they are now, he considered, they would, at the present scale of egg prices, bring from $250 to $1,000 each.

Judge's Rebuke.

This incident of a judge's rebuke is related in the case of a lawyer of the aggressive and belligerent class. When the latter concluded a speech of great length, delivered in a particularly loud voice, the judge quietly remarked that he had a few observations to make to the jury "now that the uproar in court had subsided."

FARMER'S WIFE

ALMOST A WRECK

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Own Story.

Westwood, Md.—"I am a farmer's wife and do most of my own work when I am able. I had nervous spells, female weakness and terrible bearing down pains every month. I also suffered much with my right side. The pain started in my back and extended around my right side, and the doctor told me it was organic inflammation. I was sick every three weeks and had to stay in bed from two to four days."

"It is with great pleasure I tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I have followed your directions as near as possible, and feel much better than I have felt for years. When I wrote you before I was almost a wreck. You can publish this letter if you like. It may help to strengthen the faith of some poor suffering woman."—Mrs. JOHN F. RICHARDS, Westwood, Maryland.

Women who suffer from these distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is sold by all druggists and by mail.
