BAD MAN

CAUGHT AT LAST

Tualatin, Ore.,—Romeo H. Stephens, 32, alias Harold E. Martin, under arrest here for stealing $70.90 from the Oregon Electric while acting as station agent at Tualatin, on the Salem line, today repeated and amplified his confession to Portland officers, yesterday declaring that he had swindled many railroad companies, all the way from New York to San Francisco, out of various sums.

He swore that he bilked the Gould road in New York out of $310 and left his "I. O. U." directed to George Gould, for the amount, pinned to a comment that the road's system was rotten.

Stephens says he is the son of Harrison Stephens, of Montreal, Canada, and that his father is wealthy. Speculations, according to his statement, will run into thousands of dollars, the largest amount at any one time being in the neighborhood of $400.

He says he attended McGill College, at Montreal, and shows every evidence of superior education. He is an expert agent and telegraph operator.

Three Officials Question the Man
E. B. Tongue, District Attorney; Special Agent Lillis, of the Oregon Electric, and Archie F. Leonard, of the O. W. R. & N. detective bureau, questioned Martin, whom they arrested in Portland last night.

The Beaverton Ball Team went over to Scholls last Sunday and had a "bully game" for an opener, when the visitors got started "it was a house on fire" and when the clouds roared by the score was 29 to 3 in favor of Beaverton. For Scholls Sutherland, first baseman was the bright star, while for Beaverton Aikin, Omeara and the whole team walloped the ball like a collection of Comets, and say this man Howell put the ball over the oyster so fast they couldn't get a glimpse until it hit Desinger's Big Mitt.

The Line up was as follows:

MORE MUSIC

No family can afford to do without music. It is a luxury and an economy; an alleviator of sorrow and a spring of enjoyment, a protection against vice and an incitement to virtue.

When rightly used its effects, physical, intellectual and moral, are good, very good, and only good. Make home attractive; music affords a way of doing. Constitutes kindly feeling, love. Music will help in this work.

Keep out angry feeling. "Music hath charms to soothe the savage beast." Show us a family where good music is cultivated, where the parents and children are accustomed to mingle their voices together in song; and we will show you one where peace, love and harmony prevail, and where the angry voices have no abiding place.

Cougar SEEN

2 MEN QUIT FISHING

While Chris Olson and John Peterson two fishermen from Portland were having a quiet little fishing trip over in the solitudes of Johnson Creek up above Hyland's place about 5 o'clock last Thursday night, Peterson who was futherest up the creek heard a crackling of the brush up above him, looked up and saw a Cougar wagging his tail, he said he and his partner Olson got tired of fishing right away, running faster than two "swede fellows never run before" and they were still a coming when the Editor met them over by Polson's place near the "Cut Off" inquiring for Whitford Station, their hair was standing "straight up" Olson said "This bane Wild Country all right." Cougars are not very common in this part of the woods, Mr. Huber saw one about a mile from this place a few years ago.

GOOD NEWS

BELL IS COMING FOR DANGEROUS CROSSING

The Owl recently made mention of the dangerous crossing of the Oregon Electric Ry. and Main Street suggesting the need of a bell at that point—we now informed that action of interested parties, along this line, has resulted in the authority to install an Electric alarm bell at that point, being granted and the near future will see it in place. It is to be hoped that people will not become indifferent to its warning, and that future accidents will be avoided at this point.

G.L. Thompson Agent Beaverton Ore.

The Oregon Electric Officials are to be highly commended for the prompt action taken.

Have just installed Bowser System Gasoline Pump and am prepared to furnish gasoline in any quantities. Automobile trade solicited. George Thyng Beaverton
