SWAT THE FLY

Now is the time to "swat the fly" and also to "head him off" by keeping the barns clean and siling the streets.

HONOR BOYS OF '61.

One of the great scenes that we see yearly is the company of men with Old Glory up in front and the emblem G. A. R. pinned on their coats as they march to the church for memorial services in honor of the noble dead. It takes a brave man to fight and be shot at, for three years going through the hardships of war that we might enjoy the blessings of liberty and a united country.

Why not distribute some of the bouquets with the old boys while they are with us, and thereby make their last days on Earth the happiest and brightest.

SOCIETY.

Ben Denney one of Raleighs enterprising dairymen was in town Saturday.

Love is thin when faults are thick.

What is laughter? asks a scientist. It is a sound that you hear when your hat blows off.

James Hunter of Portland, was visiting relatives in this city Friday. Mr. Hunter is one of the popular brakemen for the S. P. Co. and at one time was Chief of Police of Beaverton.

The Editor had the pleasure of meeting Mr. W. J. Henry of Hazeldale last Saturday. Mr. Henry is one of the progressive farmers of the East End, owning a beautiful place of 35 acres in Hazeldale. He subscribed for The Owl.

Nick Kemmer of Cooper Mt. was in our city Saturday.

Mrs. Hamilton and daughter Maud have been visiting with Mrs. Hamilton's sister, Mrs. C. E. Hedge of this place, for the last few days.

John Smith says: "give me a pig!" and he got half a gallon.

Mr. J. C. Jenne was in town Tuesday getting some butter wrappers printed at this office.

Now is the time to mow down the grass in front of your place, along the sidewalk.

Mr. John Summers called Tuesday night and subscribed for The Owl for one year. Mr. and Mrs. Summers son Stanley Summers had the honor of being the only scholar to pass the 8th grade examination in Beaverton School.

Make it a rule to have the back yard, at all times, as clean as the front one.

James Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Reed of this place, has been home on a visit after an absence of a year. A happy surprise to the "old folks at home."

NEWS

Prof. J. C. Ryan of the Beaverton School has accepted the principalship of Forest Grove High School, leaving a vacancy in this place here. The Misses Van Blaricom have been retained for another year, being their fourth year here. This speaks well of two deserving teachers. The board is to be congratulated on being able to keep them.

We are now approaching the barefoot season, when the small boy is unhappy if he is not allowed to blister his feet on the hot walks, cut them on sharp edged objects, run pieces of glass into them and knock off the nails from the big toes, such is life—with the small boy.

Otto Muessig had a bad accident on Decoration, he was a horseback trying to catch McGills horse in Hockens grove and was "going some" when his nag jumped between two Oak trees scraping Otto off the horse bruising him up badly. Harold Johanson caught his pony and made a wild ride for help.

Thank God! some of us have an old-fashioned mother. Not a woman of the period, painted and enameled, with all her social manners and fine dresses, whose white, jeweled hands never felt the clasp of baby fingers, but a dear old-fashioned mother with a sweet voice, eyes into whose clear depth the love light shone, and brown hair, just threaded with silver, lying smooth upon her faded cheek. Those dear hands, worn with toil, gently guided our steps in childhood and smoothed our cheek in sickness, ever reaching out to us in yearning tenderness. Blessed memory of an old-fashioned mother. It floats to us like the beautiful perfume of some wood blossoms. The music of other voices may be lost, but the enchanting memory of her will echo in our soul forever.

The Toggery.

Have something for your children to do each evening after school. Work makes things sacred. The child whose home memories are not halved by work, who is not needed and does not feel that need, will not love honor.

NEWS

Progress School closed last Thursday with a big ciphering match the school house. Refreshments including Oranges and Ice Cream were on the Bill of Fare. Many parents and friends were present all had a good time.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational Church raised the funds to repaint the inside of the church and revarnish the seats. J. A. Shepard did the work and the church now has a beautiful appearance.

Last Thursday while Mr. Cole of Cooper Mt. was away from home plowing, his house caught on fire and burnt to the ground, nothing being saved except a "New Home" sewing machine.

The agent for the Grand Union Tea Co. stopped at a residence East of town last week leaving his rig down at the front gate without tying the horse—the tall grass looked tempting so the "old nag" began browsing down towards the ditch finally upsetting the stock of Tea mixing tea, coffee pepper, ginger & etc. with the aid of Messrs. Williams Smith, Bud Hunter John Sullivan the teamster and Ed. Barry doing the yelling the rig was straightened up and the old boy sold "Allspice from here to Portland."

Our old friend Ed Barry called Thursday night and subscribed for the "Night Bird" for one year. Mr. Barry and the Editor were school boys together, we had great times in those days and of course "much hard studying was done"—and the password was; "Coming up."

A Good Sign

The man who has enemies amounts to something. He is a live man. He is a fighter. People don't kick a corpse. A live man can swim against the current; a corpse floats down without hindrance. God bless our enemies. We love them. They make life worth living.

"Nearly all those Wagons and Buggies are Studebakers"

Every year over one hundred thousand Studebaker vehicles are sold.

This tells you what the farmers of the country think of the Studebaker wagons.

This appreciation has been constantly growing for sixty years.

This appreciation has been earned by the determination of Studebaker to produce an honestly built wagon that will do a full day's work and keep on doing it, and not to build a cheap one.

The man who buys the Studebaker gets all the improvements gained by the experience of two generations of wagon builders.

Farm Wagons, Dump Wagons, Business Wagons, Trucks, Buses, Delivery Wagons, Street Cars, Horseless Carriages.

Sold under the Studebaker guarantee.
