ROBBING THE CHILDREN

Wholesale change of School Books in this state is on the Bill O' Fare again this Fall. Every Six years the Big Book Corporations have a smile on Oregon "we have to take our medicine" the Owl says, knock out this old text book law! Let the state of Oregon establish a state series of text books, same as California, and sell them at actual cost to the children.

BEAVERS WIN

The most exciting game of the season, in the A. & W. league, Beaverton, beat the Broadway Dye Works team, 7 to 6, on the home grounds. Both pitchers were in rare form and received bully support. Husky for Broadway struck out 2, and Howell of Beaverton fanned 8. The features of the game for the visitors were the good work of Kack on first, Nelson on third, and the hard hitting of Nelson, Kack and Laird. For the home team Howell's pitching, great team work and the terrific slugging of H. Aikin, Howell and Jameson, Aikin with a screaming three-bagger drove in two runs in the 5th inning, and Jameson broke up the game in the ninth with the base full slammed out a liner that fairly scorched the grass, and broke up the game in Beaverton's favor. Mercer and Hardy did some good work in pulling down the high ones. Tallman made a peach of a slide for second, and O'Meara made one of his famous "Irish Dives," and tallied.

The score:
Broadway 0 1 0 0 2 0 0 0 3-6
Beaverton 1 1 0 0 0 0 2 1 2-7

Three base hits—Kack, Nelson and H. Aikin. Two base hits—Laird, Howell. One base hit—O. Aikin, H. Aikin, Howell Jameson.
Batteries—Broadway, Husky and Newman. —Beaverton, Howell and Jameson.
Attendance, 510.
Umpires, Filley and Haswell.
Next Sunday the Sun Set team will play the game in Beaverton's favor. Mercer and Hardy Locals.

WASH. CO. AT STATE FAIR

The manager of Washington county exhibit for our state fair at Salem has been devoting much time to planting, cultivating, growing and working over grains and grasses for that fair. His products are more than 100 per cent better than last year. Said Manager L. D. Westfall, of Tualatin, is now assured that many districts in our county will display their excellent products in groups, within the Washington county space. The effect of thus displaying by districts will be to show the large variety of products of each district, and that the county, as a whole, is unsurpassed in horticultural and agricultural resources. A drummer, who "makes" our county, said "Washington county is the richest in the state, but people don't know it." We can make people "know it" by a full line display of creditable products.

The railroad companies have learned that a district is most effectually advertised by displays of its products. Forest Grove, Hillsboro, Tualatin, Sherwood, etc., will have district displays. Let Beaverton join them and strive to have the most creditable products.

The season has been dry, and some products will be under-sized. The whole valley is thus affected. But bring a few of the largest and best. Do not use the very largest pumpkins, squashes, etc. Save these for the fair; also potatoes, onions, celery, horseradish, turnips, rutabagas, parsnips, carrots, cabbage, cauliflower, beans, field corn, sweet corn, popcorn, threshed wheat, oats, barley, buckwheat, apples, peaches, pears, quinces, etc. Report to J. Stroud and Son, who will care for products and ship by September 25th.

Let us help Washington county win the blue ribbon.

Deuches Verin

The Beaverton Deuches Verin held their regular meeting at Jake Olinger's home Sunday. Fifty members and many guests were present, also a visiting delegation from the Cornelius Verin. Everybody had a good time—sing songs and telling stories, renewing acquaintances. Several new members were taken in. Refreshments were served under the trees in the orchard. The officers of the local Verin are: W. F. Desinger, President; Theo. Dorring, Secretary; Alb. Muessig, Treasurer.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Wm. Matzke, one mile south of Beaverton, Third Sunday, September 21.

On Mt. Hood

On August 20, 1913, Rev. C. B. Rees of Beaverton, Edward Rood of Farmington, and Guide Meyers, left the timber line, south side, 4:25 A. M.; arrived at top, 9:45 A. M. They could see Mt. Shasta in California, Three Sisters and Mt. Jefferson in Oregon, and Mts. Adams, Rainier and St. Helens in Washington, grain fields in Eastern Oregon resembled large lakes.

At a previous trip in June, they only reached the crater; then there was a tar-black smoke emitting from the crater, but this time it was mostly vapor with a strong sulphur odor. At the lunch place the the stones are so warm you can't keep your hand on them. No guide will make the trip for less than $10.00. Parties over four are $2.50 each. When you reach the top, you write your name, date and residence in the two Mazamas' books, the older book is the smaller 5 in. x 7 in. x 3/4 in.; the new book is 9 in. x 6 in. x 1 in. These books are enclosed in a copper box chained to Mazama Rock; Mr. Rees read after one girl's name "reached the peak, but never again." To look at Mt. Hood, you might think the top ran to a sharp peak, but on the highest point is composed of about one and one-half acres, quite smooth.

The north side from Cloud Cap Inn is very steep with cables, but the south side is more dangerous, two places you have to cross over on a ladder—one of these was the snow bridge—here you have to be very careful. They remained on top Mt. Hood 45 minutes. It was nice and warm. Wednesday, August 20, took some pictures and returned to Government Camp, 2:35 P. M., sliding down hill in some places. In going up the guide's signal back to Government Camp to Crater Rock and Summit; to let them know all is well. There have been no accidents this year.

Our party made the second best time of the season. Those who are contemplating making the trip, don't try to rush in climbing—take your time. Rev. Rees states climbing to the top of Mt. Hood is a wonderful experience.

"Let Er Buck"

Morg Hardy, the speedy boxer of the B. A. A. C., has just arrived from the Boxing Tournament at Pendleton. The boxers drew straws, and as "luck would have it," Hardy got his first fight with Bontright of M. A. A. C., his old antagonist at the recent Smoker, and he walloped him in good shape, knocked him on his back, and then Bontright threw up the sponge. In his second fight he had Andy Duval of the Seattle Club, a hero of many an encounter. Hardy knocked him around the ring, and Duval to save himself, jumped into a foul. The crowd hissed him in great shape when he left the ring, and gave Hardy a stormy ovation when he departed. Here is 3 times 3 to Hardy, and good old B. A. A. C.!
