BIG BOXING CARNIVAL

The B. A. A. C. will hold its first boxing carnival this season next Wednesday night. The programme is exceptionally good. Schmeer of the Multnomah A. A. C. will box Carlson of the Columbus club as a main event. These boys weigh 135 pounds and have never lost a battle. Special trains will run from Portland and Hillsboro to Beaverton. The Beaverton band of 17 pieces will escort the fans from the train to the boxing pavilion. Everybody knows what a good show the B. A. A. C. gave last June, and Manager Chisholm promises us a programme that has never been equaled in the Northwest. There will be six contests. Everybody come.

LOSES CLOSE GAME

In a fast and furious game before a big crowd. The Christian Brothers Business College basket ball team won its first game of the season in a hard-fought game from the Beaverton five last Saturday night at Beaverton. The score was 20 to 20 at the end of the regular time limit, and more time was given until one of the teams threw a basket. The Portland team scored a field basket two minutes after play started.

The lineup: Ashworth, Allen, Barnes, Berst, Davis and Gage. After the game a good literary program was rendered, as follows: Mr. Scott played a fine clarinet solo, "Whistling Rufus" whistled like a mocking bird. Billy Thompson drew some dandy cartoons, Mr. Smith had a tip-top monologue, and the "Big 4" quartette sang.

B. A. A. C. is handling the games in the best of style.

OLD PIONEER PASSES AWAY

Catherine Haines Livengood was born in Virginia, October 16, 1826, spending her girlhood days in the Sunny South. She was married in Indiana to Christopher Livengood, moving to Iowa, Decatur county, then to Northern Missouri, and took up a homestead; later coming to Oregon, arriving in Portland, October 18, 1871, thence to Yamhill county, Oregon, and lived there until coming to Beaverton in the early nineties. Mr. Livengood died in the Fall of 1901. Mrs. Livengood made her home with her son Henry for a long time; was a life-long member of the U. B. church, at her death 87 years and 5 days dying last Tuesday. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Olds of Lents, Oregon, and Ira, Yakima, Wash.; John, Hillsboro, Ore.; Henry, Hemlock, Ore., and Joe, Reedville, Ore.; 21 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Brymer at the M. E. church. Interment at Crescent Grove Cemetery.

BLOWS UP SAFE

Tigardo, Ore.—Desperadoes broke in the Oregon Electric depot at this place, Sunday night, between 12 and 1 o'clock, blowing the door off the safe with a heavy charge of dynamite, getting about $2.50 for their trouble. This makes the second robbery of the depot in two weeks' time.

NOTICE TO FRUIT GROWERS

Now is the time to spray for apple tree anthracnose, a disease which is rapidly destroying our older apple orchards and seriously menacing the younger ones. It is responsible for the dead tops and the ugly, canker-like spots on the limbs, often occurring so close together as to cause the limbs to break when loaded with fruit. Winter strength lime sulphur may be used with good results, but it should be applied every year about this time. If trees are badly infested, as most of our old family orchards are, spray with Bordeaux Mixture of the 6-6-50 formula. This means six pounds of bluestone, six pounds of cleanstone lime, and fifty gallons of water. H. C. ATWELL, County Fruit Inspector Forest Grove, October 20, 1913.

Deuches Verein

A. A. Pike has a big gang of men digging potatoes, and will finish by Saturday night; 20 acres yielding about 75 sacks per acre. Mr. Pike states one of the best crops he has ever grown.

Azela Young, only daughter of Mrs. Chisholm, was operated upon, Wednesday, for appendicitis at the Good Samaritan hospital, and at this writing is getting along nicely.

L. S. Barnes is very low at the present time with an attack of paralysis, his lower limbs being paralyzed.

The Beaverton Deuches Verein met at Mr. Bolan's home Cooper-Mt. last Sunday. A good attendance was present. Nick Kemmer helped entertain the guests. Four new members were taken in Messrs. Gus and Ed Grabhorn, Messrs. Leopold, Wenzler. All present had an enjoyable time. Next meeting will be held at Chris Ofinger's place.

Passenger train No. 4 was 4 1/2 hours late today the engine broke down up the line.

Tea Party

There will be a tea at Mrs. Tucker's next Wednesday, October 27. Everyone invited; given by M. E. Ladies' Aid.

Pete Van De Hey called Thursday morning with a curio seldom seen around this part of the timber.

Close Call in Well

Mr. Humgrum had a narrow escape recently, while digging a 50-foot well for George Davies. A blast was set off in the well. Humgrum went down to dig and was nearly overcome with foul air. Mr. Davies worked hard, running a bunch of brush up and down the well with a rope to get the air circulating, and finally Mr. Humgrum began to talk and was able to tie the rope around his waist, so that he could be yanked above.

ROBS JIM HILL

Somebody put one over Jim Hill in the dead of night, and came in the baggage door with a skeleton key, and took about $16 (express money) out of the sidetracker. It was supposed to have happened right after the freight pulled out. It is somebody who knew the location of money—an expert likely. The safe is left unlocked. Marshal Pappel arrested five suspects, and thinks two are the fellows. They had money and keys—that looks suspicious. One of the arrests was made by Marshal Pappel in Beaverton barber shop while he was waiting for a shave.

This robbery happened at the O. E. depot, Beaverton, Thursday night, between midnight and 5 o'clock, Friday morning.
