Mrs. H. W. Hoehle of Progress has just returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Otto Gunderson, at Spokane, Wash. Mrs. Gunderson hadn't seen her sister for 20 years, and said she looked as young as in 1893. Their visit was sure a pleasant one.

A. H. SPRANER has the largest line of toys in Washington county. Visit Toyland at his Big Store, and bring along the children, and see the Ferris wheel with electric lights in full swing for Christmas.

The Basket Social at Skookumville, last Wednesday night, was a big success. Enough money was raised to buy a beautiful new flag.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

On the evening of November 29, a goodly number of persons met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Denney to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Miss Marshall, the teacher of Progress school. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Richardsen, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Pierson, Mrs. Hyde, Mrs. Lilja, Mr. and Mrs. King Denney, Mrs. M. Burge, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johnson, Mrs. Smith, Miss Jessie Peterson, Miss Iva Peterson, Bruce Denney, Miss Derle Denney, Miss Alice Erickson, Miss Florence Snyder, George Snyder, Peter Olson, Miss Elsie Lilja, Victor Johnson, Carlton Olmsted, Miss Ethel Johnson, Earl Johnson.

A most enjoyable evening was passed. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Our delightful hostess rendered us many beautiful piano selections, including old-time songs, which all could join in song. All felt they had passed a most enjoyable evening.

"Round Up" in East End

John Barry and Nick Miller had an exciting old runaway last week. His colts ran around the barn four times, knocked down the picket fence, running up the old road to Schiller's place, then whirling around, made for home. The only way he could "head 'em off" was to run the horses into the corner of the barn. "Let 'er buck."

FARMERS' WEEK

December 8 to 13, 1913

This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon.

Farmers' Co-operation will be the leading topic of a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions, and demonstrations in everything that makes for the welfare of the farmer and home-maker.

WINTER SHORT COURSE

January 5 to 30, 1914

The College has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of courses will be offered in General Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Dairying, Poultry Keeping, Mechanic Arts, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce, Forestry, and Musk. Numerous lectures and discussions on FARMERS' CO-OPERATION, at home and abroad will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition. Accommodations reasonable. Reduced rates on all railroads. For further information address
