EDITORIAL

In theory, the exchange of New Year calls and Christmas gifts is a beautiful custom. The holiday is a time when kindly feelings and universal good will prompt a general manifestation of regard in the exchange of calls and presents. It is the friendship expressed in the fact that it is valued.

A New York man who had quarreled with his wife agreed to let her take all the household goods except his mother-in-law's picture.

The days, weeks and years slip away like water in a running stream. Time's great clock never loses a moment. Relentlessly, surely the moments pass, and our eager hands are not able to detain them. We cannot keep back the flying years, but we can and should keep the blessings they bring.

Happy New Year!

CIRCUIT COURT

J. White vs. Minnie White. Divorce proceeding prays for a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony, complaint filed December 17. Were married in Multnomah county during 1908. Charges personal indignities, which renders plaintiff's life burdensome, aggravating disposition making life burdensome. That further on November 25 defendant left plaintiff and never returned.

Affida Allen vs. Jas. M. Allen. Findings and decree, this being December 20. Cause, desertion.

M. L. Blakesier vs. Vera E. Blakesier filed December 19 were intermarried at Oregon City, Or., on April 8, 1910, and have resided in Oregon ever since. Being one child as a result of said marriage, which is 18 months old. No real property and property rights of other nature have been settled out of court. Charges, which show defendant guilty of inhuman treatment. Defendant also, since September, 1913, has become infatuated with another man, and with this showing plaintiff asks for a decree of divorce.

Firemen's Dance Clears $87

Hillsboro, Or.—At the big Firemen's dance Saturday night, $87 was cleared for the new fire alarm system. The firemen wore their uniforms, and all had a splendid time.

Old Soldier Gets Job Back

Portland, Or.—Municipal civil service board yesterday overruled the recent action of City Commissioner Brewster in discharging Mr. Chamberlain for old age and inefficiency, reinstated him to his position as janitor, and ordered his wages paid for the 24 days he has been under suspension.

DECISION IN BRIEF

Public good can be promoted best by encouraging and inculcating a civic patriotism among our servants.

A mighty factor in promoting public good is an appreciation of long and honest service.

There is a human factor which forbids the public turning coldly away from the employe, who has given his best service for many years, at the first slackening of his mental or physical vigor.

Above all local statutes or acts of congress is a public sentiment founded upon a just and righteous sense of gratitude which declares that the old veteran who by his labor is yet willing and ready to earn his daily bread should be given this opportunity.

We should not measure with too exacting a yardstick the daily quantity of work performed by such a veteran.

Mr. Chamberlain and his comrades did not measure with a yardstick the work they performed from 1861 to 1865, or try to make it represent merely the compensation in dollars and cents received.

The veteran of the civil war has created a debt not easily repaid, and now, if he is still willing to earn his living by manual labor in his humble position of janitor, we feel that the good of the service will be promoted by retaining him.

New Comet

Washington, D. C.—Delavan's comet, the latest stranger in the sky to come within the range of the telescopes of expert stargazers may be visible to the naked eye soon. The faintly illuminated object apparently is drawing nearer the earth, although up to last night it was not to be seen by a less powerful glass than the five-inch finder of the great telescope at the naval observatory here.

Scientists here are keenly interested in the comet, which was discovered by Paul T. Delavan, of the Argentina naval observatory at La Planta.

Amateur astronomers with small glasses may seek the comet. Prof. Hall said, by using the Zeta Eridani for a starting point. "The comet is approximately 14 1/2 minutes of time west of this star," he explained, "and north of it 113 degrees. It is moving west about 54 seconds of time per day, north about 5 1/4 minutes, but there has not been enough motion so far to compute an orbit."

Lower Fares

Garden Home, Or.—Residents of Garden Home and vicinity filed a complaint with the state railroad commission yesterday alleging that the Oregon Electric discriminates in charging 20c for the cash fare between Garden Home and Portland, while the people of Linnton, which is a greater distance from Portland, enjoy a 5-cent fare on the United Railway.

The petitioners ask for a reduction of the fare to 5c with corresponding reductions to Tualatin, Beaverton and other points south of Garden Home.

Although the Oregon Electric and the United railways are separate corporations they are owned by the same interests—Hill lines, and are under the same executive management and traffic direction.
