MAKING A MEAL ON BREAD alone would not be unpleasant if it were our bread. The loaves come daily from our ovens, to crisp and appetizing have a flavor that appeals to the palate.
People don't eat our bread from a sense of duty. They eat it because they like it. So will you when you come to try it. Will it be today?

E. ANNUAL CONVENTION

Albany, Ore.—The 24th Oregon Christian Endeavor union convention will be held at the First Presbyterian church at this place on February 20-21-22, 1914.
A grand time is in preparation.

The Owl Quartette will hold their next rehearsal at the home of Floyd Tefft on Monday, February 23.

Some pianos sound fine before they are tuned, while others have sort of a "Farmer in the Dells" music, after they are fixed up, makes us think of the "good hayhauling times" to listen to their enchanting tones.

We are not running a grocery, but we do keep the bakery line.

THE BAKERY.

HOW GOES THE TIMES

It looks to The Owl like this.
The rich man is growing richer, the poor man poorer, and the middle man is kept hustling to pay taxes.

This has been rather a stormy winter, and the windstorms have played havoc with standing timber in this part of the state.
From recent reports, even some gates upon Piety Hill "are leaving" from the bad effects of the storms undoubtedly.

Cedar Mills

Who said Cedar Mills wasn't on the map? Well, we want to say it is there, and what do we care so long as the little crossroad's place is booming, and everybody happy and healthy.

The Ladies' Aid of this place was only organized a few weeks ago; in fact it's only in its infancy, yet there are already good results reported from it. Last Friday night, the 13th inst., the Ladies' Aid gave their first entertainment at the Grange hall, had a large crowd, despite the bad roads. Everyone had a nice sociable time and the supper was immense. If everyone didn't get their money's worth, it was certainly their own fault, as the "eats" were before them. Rev.
Brymer was over from Beaverton; also some other Beaverton folks. The program was also excellent. We have our young folks to thank for the last named. They certainly did fine.

There has been a few meetings held for the purpose of stirring up enthusiasm enough for a Cedar Mills improvement club. I think it will be organized.

Friday night, February 27, with Mr. McDaniels of Portland, Mr. Wilmot, also of the city, and others in this vicinity, who are interested in getting a streetcar line out here, and other general improvements that tend to make it a more desirable place in which to live.

B. B. Reeves has organized a debating society here.

Mr. May, our merchant, says business is good.

Mr. Reeves is building a new dwelling on his property, near the church, for H. R. Kagler.
Mr. Kagler works for Mr. May in the store, and is also delivery man. It looks from the amount of goods hauled from Portland each week that someone is "delivering the goods."

There were four more added to the church here yesterday, February 15.

The Ladies' Aid met at Mrs. Purden's, one of their members, who is a widow, and built a poultry house, quilt a quilt, saw and haul wood, set fence posts, build fence, and serve dinner. Tuesday a jolly time was enjoyed. Well you see the women won't do all the work, as they intend to take some men along, but the Ladies' Aid expects to see that the work is done. INO MOORE.
