PETER L. CARLSON

In the death of the late of the late Peter L. Carlson, Beaverton lost a good citizen, a man who was always found doing his share of the hard work, and yet made no complaint always greeting us with a smile.

SOCIETY.

Rev. Robert Brymer was over to the big bazaar at Cedar Mills, Friday night, given by the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church.

There was excitement in the west of town Saturday morning when a "wild cow" got loose. The old bovine sure made the dust fly until caught.

This man Hines is some high diver. Last Sunday, at the ball grounds, he made the "famous bear slide."

Messrs. Hodge and Vincen have been busy, of late, spraying their orchards.

Ben Cornelius Ex-county judge and now inspector of weights, was in town, last of the week, testing scales.

Billy Campbell went fishing last week. He says "suckers are biting better than trout this spring."

Prof. Calvin C. Cloud, principal of the Kinton high school, was over Saturday. While in town, made this office a pleasant call. Prof. Cloud is doing excellent work at Kinton high school.

Judge C. E. Kindt of Kinton came over to Beaverton, Saturday, in his auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Behm of Portland were in the city, Thursday.

A. M. Kennedy is getting his auto fixed up for spring; just bought his new tires of the Beaverton Hardware company.

School Superintendent B. W. Barnes of the County Seat was in town, Tuesday.

Bill Wolf had to quit his big woodcutting contract on account. His saw would run so fast that he could hardly get his wind so much sawdust in the air.

Walter Hughson, wife and two children of Red Bluff, Calif., have been visiting with relatives here during the week.

E. Wood of Beaverton bought five-passenger Ford, through Beaverton Hardware company.

Albert and Frank Erickson, two of Progress' famous ball-players, were over, Sunday, "warming up" on the local diamond.

The following clubs were organized last week: Harrison, L. del, Fire Grove and Baciotti.

Mr. Chalman of Raleigh was down, Monday.

Rinehart Scherner, the "bad man with the club" on the Garden Home baseball team, was in town, Sunday, and took a stroll over to the ball park. He looked "pretty good" from the press box.

Lafayette Davis, formerly owner of the Toggery, was a visitor here, first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Davis of Kinton were in Beaverton, Thursday. Mr. Davis ran a sawmill near Tigardville for a number of years.

Miss Ella Chalman and Miss Freddeen were here, Sunday.

Messrs. Morelock and Kerr of Progress were over, looking for horses, Monday.

Judge Henry L. Benson for Supreme Bench

Judge Henry L. Benson of Klamath Falls, now a candidate for the Supreme bench, is a brother of the late Secretary of State Frank W. Benson, who was also governor of the state for a time.

There seems to be a big scarcity of crawdads this spring, due, undoubtedly, to the "big crawfish picnics" along Rock last fall by Pete Van De Hey and friends. There is a "houndog" that "comes to town every morning, and goes out of town faster than he comes in. When Gus Rosai's bulldog gets after him, they travel at 2:40; that is "two dogs" and the "houndog" 40 ft ahead.

WEDDING

John E. Zimmerman and Martha A. Johnson. Gustaf E. Erickson of Multnomah county 36, and Katherine Sebedvin 26.

Old-Timer Comes Back

Harry Morton, who was in the mercantile business here with his father, W. H. Morton, back in the nineties, shook hands with friends here, Saturday night. Harry looks fine, and says he feels as young now as in the "old times" when he and the editor were boys together and used to find "muskmelons in the twilight." Gee! Those melons did taste fine! It seems good to meet an old-time chum.

Harry has proved up on his homestead at Welch, Ore., eight miles from Mt. Hood, and has a nice home and a bunch of cattle. "Happy days, old boy."

A Fine Town

For a town of 500 or more inhabitants and a big surrounding population, Beaverton does a tremendous big business, which is daily increasing. Furthermore, this is one of the best governed towns in the state. Our mayor, councilmen, marshal and recorder are to be congratulated on the orderly condition of our city. Homeseekers will do well to look over the advantages and good conditions existing in Beaverton, "the Garden City."

Eastern Star Beaverton Chapter, Eastern Star—Regular meetings, first and third Friday nights of each month at Grange Hall. MRS. HATTIE BRUCE, Matron MRS. FRANCES HUDSON, Secretary.

A.V. Denney—Fruit Inspector H. C. Atwell has resigned the office of county fruit inspector, having assumed the management of the Forest Grove cannery and finding that it will require his attention. A. V. Denney of Beaverton has been appointed in his place, and he sure will fill the position creditably.

Sawmill Starts Peterson's sawmill at Cedar Mills is running full blast these days, cutting railroad ties and other lumber.

PROBATE COURT

Executor receives order of discharge. Having filed receipts and complied with proper requirements in the matter of the estate of George Rowcliffe, Court honors same.

T. P. Bushard, deceased; Mirnie A. Bushard, administratrix, has received $566.75 cash, personal property valued at $631; inventory is approved.

Frank Hoverdon, deceased; S. H. Davis, administrator, is authorized to sell personal property and report amount of proceeds to Court.

Ira D. Smith, deceased; M. F. Smith, administratrix, is granted an extension of time in matter of paying certain mortgage, whose principal is $8,250, covering or secured by certain 40 acres in Hood River section.

Scarcity of Crawfish

There seems to be a big scarcity of crawdads this spring, due, undoubtedly, to the "big crawfish picnics" along Rock last fall by Pete Van De Hey and friends.

There is a "houndog" that "comes to town every morning, and goes out of town faster than he comes in. When Gus Rosai's bulldog gets after him, they travel at 2:40; that is "two dogs" and the "houndog" 40 ft ahead.

Sidewalk Needed

There is a big demand for a new strip of sidewalk to connect with George Hughson's sidewalk and the Catholic church walk. Many school children and church people travel this way.
