"SPRING"

"Spring hangs her infant blossoms on the trees Rock'd in the cradle of the western breeze."

—Cowper.

Reports from Portland indicate that R. A. Booth, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, is meeting with a hearty reception on his travels about the state on a get-acquainted tour. This is good news, as it indicates that the people of the state are at last beginning to realize what we want at Washington is not a non-partisan who voted with the Democrats on a tariff measure, which did incalculable damage to Oregon producers, but a brainy, able and straightforward man of the Booth type, who stands for Republican principles on the tariff and other important questions.

SOCIETY.

Mrs. R. D. Morse of Newport made Mrs. J. Peterson a short visit, Wednesday.

Nick Kemmer living on Cooper Mountain, and one of the prominent cattlemen of Washington county, was in town, first of the week.

Mrs. Rosa Merlo of Santa Rosa visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Reghetta, Thursday.

Mr. Weir, one of the Cooper Mountain boys, was down Wednesday, selling apples.

Mr. Smith of Kinton was in the Garden City, middle of the week, on business.

Mrs. Rosa Merlo of Santa Rosa has had a crew of men building a new fence around her tract of Beaverdam in the northwest part of town.

J. R. Kelly of Eugene was a Garden City visitor, Wednesday.

Mrs. Jack Gribble of Portland has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. John Peterson, and relatives, the last week.

Oglesby Young, one of Portland's prominent lawyers, was here Tuesday, early in the nineties. Mr. Young was in the mercantile business in Beaverton. Now he has a good law practice in the Rose City.

F. W. Allen and W. I. Burke of Haynes drove down, last of the week.

Otto Essig is working in a logging camp at Toledo, Ore.

Fred Sabatini has returned from a visit in California.

S. A. Howell of Woodstock, Ore., called on us Thursday. He says he has been feeling fine this spring "for a boy of his age." He had a pleasant visit with M. S. Barnes, another "one of the boys," as he says.

Mr. Conley has three domestic china pheasant hens on his place east of town.

Lou Wolf has been busy, of late, breaking a colt, a fine iron-grey.

Dave Reghetta will have an "A No. 1" crop of onion seed in 1914, having planted very early this spring.

A new (1914) five-passenger Ford just made its appearance in Beaverton Hardware and Implement company are agents.

Harry Alexander will have another new bungalow in the west part of town completed soon. Mr. Alexander has done all the work during the last two months. Cooks appreciating a modern kitchen would do well to inspect this one, which is especially up-to-date.

J. L. Hardy has put up a fine new awning in front of his place of business.

Anyone desiring to see a fine patch of green onions, just take a look at those growing north of Mr. Hyland's residence.

The Oregon Electric changed their Time Table Sunday April 5. Better service for Washington County towns.

Full line of tents and camp stoves at Beaverton Hardware and Implement company.

The last few warm days have been utilized to good advantage by the farmers of this vicinity. Onion planting is on full blast.

Mrs. C. L. Mitzel of Portland visited with her son, John Mitzel, and family here, Wednesday.

Mrs. A. E. Story, while working at F. W. Cady's place, Monday, fell and bruised her side severely. She was taken to Portland, and returned Wednesday night. She is much better at this writing.

Beaverton Hardware and Implement company just received a full line of fishing tackle and salmon eggs.

John Peterson has a fine crop of garlic this spring.

Socialists Select State Ticket

A complete ticket of candidates for state offices on the Socialist ticket was chosen at the party convention held early in the week. The names will be submitted to a referendum before being put on the ballot. The convention also passed resolutions denouncing the imprisonment of "Mother" Jones in Colorado.

The candidates nominated, as follows: Senator, B. F. Ramp, Salem; governor, W. J. Smith, Portland; state treasurer, B. J. Sloope, Astoria; attorney general J. E. Hosmer, Silverton; state labor commissioner, August Nikula, Astoria; superintendent of public instruction, Mrs. Flora I. Foreman, Quimby; state railroad commissioner, I. O. Penrola, Portland; state supreme justices, D. W. Robinson, Portland; D. Rannells, Astoria; A. G. Hotchkiss, Beaverton, and Chas. H. Otten, Portland; congressmen, first district, W. S. Richards, Albany; second district, J. H. Barkley, Madras; third district, Albert Streiff, Portland.

Good Crops--Why?
The farmers have found the three secrets of sure crops here, (1) Rain. (2) Sunshine. (3) Fertilizer. All are found in this section.

Road Opening
A petition is being circulated to have the road north of the Beaverdam, running past John Peterson's place, opened from Galbraith's southwest corner on eastward, giving a much-needed outlet towards Portland.

L. B. Snyder of Portland, who is an expert implement and automobile salesman, has been engaged by the Beaverton Hardware & Implement company to look after these lines.

$41,000 FOR SCHOOLS

Superintendent B. W. Barnes, last week, sent out the April school apportionment. The amount involved reached the sum of $41,110, and is five dollars for each person of school age—that is, between the ages of four and twenty, the number of children being 8,222. Hillsboro District No. 7 receives the largest sum of any district in the county, with Forest Grove a close second; Beaverton third.
