The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is now due. No derivation will be made for arrears. The paper will be stopped at the time for which it is paid unless it is renewed and paid for. A blue pencil in this notice indicates that your subscription is in arrears, and if you wish the paper continued you should remit the amount as soon as possible.

GLOBOSITIES.

Excellent food for reflection—dinner you missed. Something new in business local week. Read them. Gene Smith had a neat kitchen into his house this week. The county seat is exceedingly full of people this week. So are some of the people. The Condon Grange had an enthusiastic meeting Friday, eleven new members being initiated. Marley Downing returned home last week from Palouse City, where he attended school all winter. In England they stand for office, in this country they run, and in both countries they lie more or less. The Globe has several thousand blanks—mortgage and warranty deeds, chattel mortgage, etc., for sale cheap. Harry Joslin, the cornetist, is billed to give a musical and comic entertainment at Condon to-night—Thursday. Next Sunday is Easter—the day to make yourself sick eating Shanghai berries, or in other words, hen fruit. After their meeting Saturday night, the Masons enjoyed an excellent supper at the restaurant of Mrs. T. J. Young. L. W. Bailey came up a few days ago from McCoy, where he spent the winter. He owns a good ranch a half-mile north of town. Mrs. Belle Weatherford, who had been stopping in Portland since last fall returned to her home on Schuttler Flat this week. D. F. Ball has disposed of his saw mill property near Fossil, to Mr. Hunsaker of Haystack, who will take charge of same in about two weeks. Mrs. J. H. Miller visited the family of Frank Stricklin on Rock creek the first of the week, returning home Monday accompanied by Mrs. Stricklin. Lester Coffin came up from Arlington the first of the week to subscribe for the GLOBE, also to look after his extensive sheep interests in this section. The editor of this religious paper lost a cuff button in Condon about two weeks ago. The finder will be fabulously rewarded by leaving same at this office. "Uncle" Tommy Watson and L. M. Rhodes of Fossil were northbound passengers Monday, the former on the way to visit his sister at Cosmopolis, Wash., and the latter to Arlington. If you want to avoid long and aggravating delays caused by carelessness, send your summonses and other legal advertisements to the GLOBE—the reliable and official paper of the county. Tornadoes have begun their work of destruction in the East. One town in Kansas was swept from the face of the earth, and many lives were lost. Now is the time to subscribe for the GLOBE. The happiest man in Condon Monday was Pat Lynch when the grand jury reported "not a true bill" in his case. He smiled all over. Pat expects to remain in Condon awhile and "build" a few wells. The circuit court mill is buzzing away at an alarming rate. Judge Bradshaw is rushing them through rough and tumble, court running until 10 o'clock every night. It is likely he will dispose of all the business this week. Henry Hartman, who left this section nearly two years ago, was married on April 3d, at Wheatland, Uba county, Cal., to Miss Jennie Gilson of that place. His many friends here extend hearty congratulations to the happy couple. Candidates must not forget to file their certificate of nomination with the county clerk within the required time. If they neglect this, their names cannot be printed on the ballots, consequently they will not be considered as running for office. J. R. Frazer and family came up this week from McCoy, where Mr. Frazer spent the winter with his children. He was married Feb. 2, 1892, to Miss Clara Propst, of Albany. Mr. Frazer has a pleasant home near Lone Rock, where they will reside. The official ballot at the coming election will be a long one. According to the provisions of the Australian ballot law the name of every candidate in the field has to be put on one ticket instead of there being but one ticket for each party, as formerly. Hon. Geo. Watkins of The Dalles is with us this week. He served one term as judge in this district, and is the Rep. nominee for that position at the coming election. He is also noted for his ability to rush court matters. He will visit Fossil before returning home. The Arlington board of trade is preparing to do a big lot of advertising all through the eastern states by means of newspapers, folders, stickers, etc. The board hopes to induce a lot of good and desirable immigration, by making known abroad Gilliam county's splendid record of 1892.

to civil... Staver has left the badge in the monkey house of the Portland City Park, and it will contribute its share of amusement to the children of that city hereafter. Referring to W. W. Steiwer's nomination for joint senator, the Times-Mountaineer says: "Mr. Steiwer is a merchant at Fossil, where he has been engaged in business for a number of years, and enjoys an excellent reputation. He is thoroughly conversant with the wants of this portion of the state, and the interests of Gilliam, Sherman and Wasco counties will be carefully and conscientiously considered by him." The Athena Press (independent) voices the sentiments of this popular weekly exactly, when it says: "We advise the leading lights of the different political parties to see the finance editor of this paper at once on a matter of business that would not do for our readers to know—in other words, somebody has got to 'whack up' shortly. We want a brick building and a power press out of this campaign." During our ten years' residence in the West, we have met only four or five persons from our native county in Pennsylvania—Armstrong. This week we had the pleasure of meeting one of them—Mr. Harry Burnham, an intelligent and industrious young stockman who lives just across the river from Arlington. He came out with his step-father and family seven years ago from Manorville, Pa. His step-father, Mr. Peters is now one of the prosperous stockmen of Oregon. Thirty-seven new subscriptions this week. The GLOBE feels proud of the fact that it has nearly four times more bona fide subscribers in this county than any of its contemporaries, and we have never asked a half-dozen people to subscribe for the paper. It makes itself worthy of the hearty patronage it receives. Its publisher does not have to beg of the people as if he were in the agonies of starvation, to get them to take the paper. A paper that has to be forced onto the people, is not worth the price of subscription. As above stated, we are proud that the GLOBE does not have to force itself onto anybody. Arlington Antagonists. Heald, the bank inspector, spent a few days in town last week. The new bell for the A. F. D. has "arrove," and it's a jimdandy. Geo. Withrow is acting marshal this week, during Carlisle's absence. Our city is well represented at Gilliam's capital and metropolis this week. Arlington is without a lawyer, both of our deciples of Blackstone being at Condon. Sunday last at the M. E. church, Mrs. Ballard and Miss Dolis Lyons were baptized. The grading of Main street extension is progressing favorably, under the able supervision of street and side-walk commissioner E. B. Frum. Mrs. D. H. Gager, milliner, has removed to more commodious quarters, having rented the place formerly occupied by Ed Miller, jeweler. Arbor Day J. W. Smith presented our school children with some fine trees which they planted Friday afternoon, with appropriate exercises. Frank Hurlburt, formerly a resident of this place, secured the position of assistant cashier in the Arlington National Bank in place of H. T. Hawson, resigned. Gilliam county seems to be taking the lead for the production of fine horses, Ed Palmer's contingent of fine-blooded horses having arrived from the East this week, and were taken out to Ajax. Notice to School Officers. Taxes this year will not be delinquent until May 1st, one year later than usual. Should I appropriate the second Monday in April, there would be very little to appropriate. Therefore I have decided to not appropriate it until the second Monday in May, 1892. L. PARKER, School Supt. Dated at Fossil, Or., April 12, 1892.

vention. and Before Democ... Wood... ison. is our present incumbent in that office. He has made an excellent record for himself as an earnest and energetic worker for the advancement of education. G. L. Neale of Condon, for treasurer, is well and favorably known throughout the county as an honest and intelligent young man of excellent habits. He is fully competent to discharge the duties of treasurer. Val Wheeler of Pine creek, for assessor, is so well and favorably known that comment is unnecessary. There isn't a man in the county better qualified for this important office than Val is, and judging from the manner in which he was repeatedly applauded upon his success, it leaves no doubt as to his unmistakable popularity with our people. Republican Nominations. The republican state convention met at Portland on the 6th and nominated the following ticket: For Congress—Hon. Binger Hermann for the first district and Hon. W. R. Ellis for the second. Delegates to National Convention—J. K. Bourne, Jr., O C Applegate, Milton, T H Tongue, C M Donald, E Wolverton and R R Hayes. Elect Judges—First, W C Hale of ; 2d, J C Fallerton of Douglas; 3d, H Burnett of Marion; 4th, Loy-al B Sears and E D Shattuck of Multnomah; 5th, T A McBride of Clackinn; 6th, Harrison Kelley of Harney; 7th, Geo Watkins of Wasco. Prosecuting Attorneys—First district, H L Vinson of Josephine; 2d, S W Condon of Lane; 3d, Jas McCain of Yamhill; 4th, W T Hume of Multnomah; 5th, W N Barnett; 6th, C H Finn of Union; 7th, W H Wilson of Wasco. Joint Senators—Gilliam, Sherman and Wasco, W W Steiwer of Gilliam; Sherman and Wasco, H S McDaniel of Sherman. Joint Representatives—Wasco and Sherman, T F Coon of Hood River, and E N Chandler of The Dalles. Lone Rock Rumblings. Days warm and pleasant, nights cold and frosty. School in the upper Lone Rock district began Monday. Ed Coppner went to Heppner on the stage Wednesday. Bob Brown and Tom Smith came over from Haystack Monday, out of which trip this excellent item originated. Lambing is in full blast, the per cent so far being about 90, which is very good considering the cold stormy weather. Monday a Mr. Halverson bought 1/2 interest in Copner & Co.'s general merchandise business. This late partner will stiffen up the firm about $2000, thus enabling them to carry a complete stock of everything our good people needs. Work on the Lone Rock and Heppner road will begin next Monday. If the 1000 big hog dollars that were donated is properly handled and value received in hard labor on the road instead of in the pockets of a few favorites, a good road will be the result, and the donors will be satisfied. Cowboy. Germany Gems. Olevia Martin is teaching the school on the head of Pine creek. Some new epidemic must have seized the cattle that are enjoying the excellent grass, of which our productive hills abound so luxuriantly just now. They have nearly all become hornless. "Sam Weiler" has evidently got a bad case of it, judging from the "Pine krick explosions" in last week's GLOBE. We imagine if Chas. Huntley were to "sit down on him," aided by about 240 lbs of avoidpoids, he would be spread out worse than if he'd been weltaed a jolt by a Kansas cyclone. Like our distinguished namesake—"Zachary" Taylor, we want to see the candidates come out a little stronger, more vigorously, as it were. We feel like shrieking: "A little more grape, Capt. Bragg!" or words to that effect— whichever is the most applicable. We hope, however, that the above brilliant phrase will not result in the utter downfall of either of the great parties. To the Public! I have decided to put my Condon property on the market during court week. Those wishing to buy lots can do so by applying to J. W. Blake, at Condon. J. A. THOMAS. ARRLINGTON, April 5, 1892. Settle Up Notice. Just after court I expect to retire from the stable business, and I kindly ask all who are indebted to me to settle without delay, as I must have what is due me at once. Respectfully, BILLY MACK. $10 Reward! My little black and tan bob-tailed Shepherd dog, "Bob," has been lost three or four weeks; was last seen at Vanleave's place on Trailfork. The above reward will be paid upon his delivery to me at Condon. JOHN MADDOCK. For Sale. A band of good cows and calves. Also a band of extra good mares and colts. These cattle and horses are all young and gentle, most of the horses being broke to work. I will sell or trade for sheep. Apply to H. T. Propst, Clein, Or. To the Public. I respectfully announce to the public that I keep constantly on hand a large quantity of the very best quality of flour at my flouring mill, which I am now selling at $4.50 per barrel. In exchange I will give 38 lbs of flour for one bushel of good, merchantable wheat. J. A. CAUSE, Olex, Or.
