

THE CONDON GLOBE

FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1892.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

A POPULAR JUDGE.

Hon. W. L. Bradshaw, for circuit judge, is the right man in the right place, and he will stay there, too, for he cannot be beaten. He is the most active judge who has ever held court in this county, disposing of business both rapidly and satisfactorily. The people of this district know when they have a good thing; and knowing it, there is no danger of them throwing it away. Judge Bradshaw is the ablest judge that ever sat on this circuit. He is honest, he is fair, he is impartial, he is expeditious; he gives everybody a show; he rushes the work and thus saves many a dollar to the taxpayers. All the lawyers like him; the litigants all like him. What more is there to say? We repeat, he will be elected.—Prineville News.

The Moro Observer says: "The business of the court generally was disposed of with that promptness and dispatch which are characteristic of Bradshaw in his judicial capacity. The judge will not tolerate unnecessary delay on the part of those in attendance on the court, yet he does not act with undue haste in any matter. All he aims at is to prevent needless expense upon the taxpayers. For this as well as for his genial disposition and the fair and impartial manner in which he discharges his official duties, he has earned the esteem and good will of the citizens and members of the legal profession throughout the 7th judicial district."

Heppner Gazette: Hon. W. L. Bradshaw of The Dalles has ably presided as circuit judge for the past year in this district, and has ever been courteous, accommodating and affable in all his legal transactions with the people and members of his profession.

Lone Rock Rumbblings.

Bob Johnson spent a day or two at the county seat last week, presumably upon politics.

Mr. Kidd started for Pendleton Tuesday with his fine bulls, having disposed of only two of them here, to White & Son, of Papersack.

Dr. and Mrs. Nicklin spent a couple of days with us the fore part of the week, the doctor being called to attend Miss Fink Frazer, whom we are glad to state is improving.

It's been raining and snowing most of the time, night and day, the last week, and the mud here is so plentiful and deep that our people are thinking of putting on a system of gondola boats—all same Venice.

Monday Jas. Bennett sold his town residence to Chas. Mote, consideration $200. If the old adage about the "third time being the charm" can be relied upon, we will have in Mr. Mote a permanent resident hereafter, this being the third time he has returned to this place. There is no place like home—especially when the surroundings are so delightful as they are in this city.

Rev. Wise failed to connect Saturday evening, as announced, and also billed by our P. M. by flaming posters. Everybody here wants to know why he didn't come. And that is just what we don't know. [Mr. Wise requests the editor to state that his inability to go to Lone Rock Saturday was on account of the rough, stormy weather, which he regrets very much.]

Arlington Antontations.

Mrs. C. A. Franks started East Tuesday to visit relatives.

August Smythe came over from Dot Tuesday, hence this excellent item.

Rev. Wise of Condon will preach in the M. E. church here next Sunday, 15.

A party of three, whose names we will not give, went fishing Sunday. Appended is the number they caught: 0.

Wheat has not yet ceased to come in, and the warehouses are full of grain and wool, a very unusual thing this time of the year.

Geo. McCready was in town Monday. He informed us that he has finished shearing and that his increase in lambs and wool is exceedingly good.

Rain! Rain! Jupiter Pluvius let himself out in great shape Monday and Tuesday. Gilliam county's prospects assume a gilt-edged aspect at present.

Quite a crowd assembled at the depot Monday to view a disabled engine, the cylinder head having burst. Patterson, the Heppner engineer, took it to The Dalles for repairs.

Somebody has poisoned Charley Wanner's pug dog "Sport." The fellow will be out of luck if Chase finds out who did it, for he has blood in his eye and has smelt like a grizzly bear ever since.

The rye on the west-side hill is in excellent condition. The town cows would soon be in the same fix if they were allowed to sample it right along without being molested by our ever-watchful marshal.

Supervisor Frum had a gang of men working on the streets last week cleaning out the ditch on either side of the street and dumping loads of sand in the middle and leveling things up generally.
