Kitchen Economy

Actual tests show the Royal Baking Powder to be 27 per cent. stronger than any other brand on the market. If another baking powder is forced upon you by the grocer, see that you are charged the correspondingly lower price.

Bread, biscuit, cakes and muffins are not known in most delicate and perfect quality where Royal Baking Powder is not used.

Considerable uneasiness is felt at San Diego over the action of bomb-throwers. The Blacksmiths' Union has offered a reward of $100 for the apprehension of the parties who blew up the shop of Schmidt, the anti-union blacksmith. A bomb, the fuse of which had been lighted, was found in the yard of George Lemon, a locksmith.

DEAFNESS CAN'T BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

...s is August Flower for?" ...asily answered as asked. It is ...or Dyspepsia. It is a special remedy for the Stomach and Liver.—Nothing more than this. We believe August Flower cures Dyspepsia. We know it will. We have reasons for knowing it. To-day it has an honored place in every town and country store, possesses one of the largest manufacturing plants in the country, and sells everywhere. The reason is simple. It does one thing, and does it right. It cures dyspepsia.

CONSUMPTION.

I have a positive remedy for the above disease; by its use thousands of cases of the worst kind and of long standing have been cured. Indeed so strong is my faith in its efficacy, that I will send TWO BOTTLES FREE, with a VALUABLE TREATISE on this disease to any sufferer who will send me their Express and P. O. address. T. A. LOCOED HORSES.

Singular Effects of the Loco or Rattle Weed Upon Horse Sense.

Col. Juan D. McCarthy, of California, sat alone at a table in the Hoffman house nervously fingering the big quartz links of his watch chain and wondering what had become of all the men of his acquaintance. He wanted somebody to hear him talk, and he was just about to send for Billy Edwards and ask him to bring somebody in by main force when his eye fell upon a man who was known to him as a good listener. The colonel shoved his slouch back and cheerily said, "Hi, there!" Then he added, "You're just the man I wanted to see."

"Did you ever see a locoed horse?" said the colonel. "Of course you never did, but I was reminded of the subject by seeing the term used in last Sunday's Sun. It's a subject that causes more argument and row among the stockmen of California than the price of beef ever did. A locoed horse is the worst piece of property a man can own, next to a corner lot in an addition to a bursted boom town. You never can tell what the critter will do nor when he will do it. CUSTOMS FRAUDS.

Some Startling Developments Coming.

ANOTHER CASE IN THE HISTORY OF SMUGGLING.

An Interesting Story Concerning the Appraiser's Office Comes to Light.

That the full extent of the customs frauds perpetrated by well known and heretofore reputable men here is not yet known and that further startling developments will appear, is made evident by the hints and actions of the government agents sent here to unravel the dark combinations made by wealthy merchants and the Custom House employees.

"When the Grand Jury has completed its investigations" said a prominent government official yesterday, "and when the reports made to the treasury department in Washington by Solicitor Hepburn, Superintendent of Special Agents Tingle and Assistant Secretary Crouse are made public there will appear the story of a system of customs frauds which involves more people of respectability and wealth than perhaps any smuggling scheme ever unearthed by the government before. There will then be more names mentioned in connection with these frauds than are identified with them now."

In the course of his persistent investigations about the Custom House an Evening Post reporter yesterday learned some things of interest concerning an old and trusted employee in the appraisers office from which Appraiser Levy was so recently dismissed. This man is T. O. Lewis, who through all the changes of several successive administrations has remained chief clerk of the appraiser's department. The searching investigation of the affairs of this department made by Solicitor Hepburn, left not the slightest reflection on the competence and trustworthiness of Mr. Lewis. Mr. Lewis, it was learned, is a man whose name is known throughout America and in many foreign lands, although his ...ratively obscure official position ...en him but little local fame. The ... how his fame was acquired is an ...ing one. It is based entirely on ...v of how his life was saved sev...rs ago. He told it in 1887 as

... six months or more ago, I was ...th an attack of something re... my old complaint. My doctor ...ed it to be Nephritis. It yielded ... the usual treatment for such ... This increased until ...nated in inflammation of the ... gland, and stranguary of the ... the bladder, causing a com...toppage of the flow of the ... The ...ired result was obtained, and when ... instrument was withdrawn, it ...ought away a stone weighing 53 grs., ...ich proved upon a chemical analysis ...o be an oxalic of lime. This was followed in the course of a few days by the passage of more than forty stones, varying in size from an ordinary pin's head to that of a pea. Some of these stones were smooth, others, including the largest were rough and jagged. They could hardly have passed the urethra in that condition. I continued the use of Warner's Safe Cure, and a few days afterwards passed at intervals a quantity of black sand. All unpleasant symptoms have now disappeared, and I am quite well."

This account of how he conquered an ailment which has proved fatal to so many, was published wherever the English language is spoken, in connection with many similar testimonials.

Speaking of the matter yesterday, Mr. Lewis said: "When I had found that Warner's Safe Cure had done me more good than the doctors could do," I recommended it to friends and acquaintances afflicted with kidney troubles whenever I had an opportunity. There were so many that I remember but few of the names, but in every case in which I heard of the results the treatment resulted successfully. There were so many of the clerks and laborers about the department who had kidney disease in some stage that I bought several cases of the cure and supplied them at cost."

"What surprised me most was the mass of inquiries which I received from all over the world. They even came from the West Indies, Mexico and Japan. I replied to fifteen or twenty of them saying that my testimonial was reliable in every particular and then I quit troubling myself with them. I remember that I received a letter from one gentleman who was a merchant in Yokohama saying that he had used Warner's Safe Cure through having read my testimonial and that it had cured him of a similar trouble. As far as I am concerned I have never had a recurrence of my affliction since I was cured as related nearly six years ago."—San Francisco Evening Post.

French Military Hospitals.

The French Society for the Help of the Wounded held its general meeting on June 12, under the presidency of Marshal MacMahon. Since the war of 1870 the society has distributed £128,000 among soldiers and sailors wounded in war. It has increased its ambulance material to the value of £1,000, and has organized temporary hospitals, railway station hospitals and ambulance services on a footing for war. It has trained numbers of female nurses, bearers, etc. The society has now 42,000 members, and the yearly subscriptions amount to £4,000.—Exchange.

Music and Medicine.

Rokitanski, the father of the well known operatic singers, was professor of pathology at the Vienna university. Besides the two singers he had a couple of sons who have acquired a certain celebrity as medical men. One day, when the old professor was asked how his sons were getting on, he replied, shaking his head:

"You see, friends, two of them heal and the other two howl, and the howlers earn four times as much as the healers!"—Humoristisches.

ACROSS THE DEEP, TO THE FAR WEST,

On steamboats, cars and stage coaches, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is carried as the most important item in the materia medica of the traveling public. It deprives vitiated, brackish water of its hurtful properties and execrable flavor, counteracts the pernicious effects upon the stomach of bad or indigestible food, remedies cramps, heartburn and wind upon the stomach. It is a fine defense against malarial disorders, nullifies the effects of excessive heat, cold and damp, relieves sick headaches, and is an incomparable cure for costiveness and biliousness. The fatigue of travel often tells most disastrously upon invalids and convalescents, occasionally to such an extent as to jeopardize life. Persons in feeble health, apprehensive of bad effects from travel, will, if provided with the Bitters, be far less likely to have their fears realized.

The person who is troubled with kleptomania always feels that he "ought to take something for it."

For throat troubles and coughs use "Brown's Bronchial Troches." They possess real merit.

Binks—I got a sure tip on the race yesterday. Minks—That so? How much did you lose?

NEVER TRAVEL WITHOUT THEM.

Persons should never travel without a box of BRANDRETH'S PILLS. A few doses taken before going on ship will prevent seasickness, and one pill every night on shipboard will counteract the costive action of the sea air. When sick, troubled with pains, colds or dizziness, or having rheumatism, take from three to five pills, and if they do not operate in an hour or so, take three or four more.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless and safe to take at any time.

Sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar-coated.

Temperance Item.—A machine has been invented which will turn out 30,000 corkscrews a day.

Bad taste in the mouth or an unpleasant breath, when resulting from catarrh, are overcome, and the nasal passages which have been closed for years are made free by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. I suffered from catarrh for twelve years, experiencing the nauseating dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and nose bleed almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw Ely's Cream Balm advertised. I procured a bottle, and since the first day's use have had no more bleeding—the soreness is entirely gone. D. G. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with the Boston Journal.

Apply Balm into each nostril. It is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. Price, 50 cents at druggis's' or by mail.

TOWER'S FISH BRAND

COPYRIGHT 1891

It's an insult to your intelligence, but some unscrupulous dealers try it. For instance: you're suffering from some Skin, Scalp or Scrofulous affection, or are feeling "run-down" and "used-up." There's a torpid liver, impure blood, and all that may come from it. You've decided, wisely, that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the medicine to help you. You know that it's guaranteed to do so, as no other blood-purifier is.

If it doesn't benefit or cure, you get your money back.

But what is best for you to take isn't always best for the dealer to sell. He offers something else that's "just as good." Is it likely? If the makers of a medicine can't trust it, can you?

One of two things has to happen. You're cured of Catarrh, or you're paid $500 cash. That's what is promised by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. By its mild, soothing, cleansing, and healing properties, it cures the worst cases.
