

"Each Spoonful has done its Perfect Work,"

Is the verdict of every woman who has used Royal Baking Powder. Other baking powders soon deteriorate and lose their strength, owing to the use of inferior ingredients, but Royal Baking Powder is so carefully and accurately compounded from the purest materials that it retains its strength for any length of time, and the last spoonful in the can is as good as the first, which is not true of any other baking powder.

How Negroes Catch a Scorpion.
In Jamaica the negroes believe that scorpions know their name; so they never call out, "See, a scorpion," when they meet with one on the ground or wall, for fear of his escaping. They thus indirectly recognize the scorpion's delicate appreciation of sound; but if you wish to stop a scorpion in his flight, blow air on him from the mouth, and he at once coils himself up. I have repeatedly done this; but with a spider it has a contrary effect.—London Spectator.

Test of your Water COAT

POUR some water in the sleeve holding the end tight as here shown or any other where there is a seam, and test if it is water tight. There are goods in the market that look very nice, but will leak at every seam. We warrant TOWER'S IMPROVED Fish Brand Slicker to be water tight at every seam and everywhere else also not to peel or crack, and authorize our dealers to make good any slicker that fails in either point. There are two ways you can tell the Genuine Improved Fish Brand Slicker.

CONSUMPTION. Have a positive remedy for the above disease; by its use thousands of cases of the worst kind and of long standing have been cured. Indeed so strong is its faith in its efficacy, that I will send two BOTTLES FREE, with a VALUABLE TREATISE on this disease to any sufferer who will send me their names and P. O. address, to A. A. Slocum, M. C., 193 Pearl St., N. Y.

"August Flower"
"For two years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and was for all that time under treatment by a physician. He finally, after trying everything, said my stomach was worn out, and that I would have to cease eating solid food. On the recommendation of a friend I procured a bottle of August Flower. It seemed to do me good at once. I gained strength and flesh rapidly. I feel now like a new man, and consider that August Flower has cured me." Jas. E. Dederick, Saugerties, N. Y.

Fair Play.
Ah, husband, do not scold your wife And make her poor heart ache, Because she can't build pies like those Your mother used to make.
That is, unless you're quite prepared, To see the whole thing through, And buy her hats and dresses as Her father used to do.

TRUSTWORTHY TESTIMONY.

SOME VITAL FACTS CONCERNING THE WELFARE OF THE STATE MADE PUBLIC.

What California Citizens Say, and How Their Statements are Confirmed.

No fact has been more plainly manifest during the past few years, than the important effect which climatic changes have made upon the constitutions of American people. The steady-going habits of Europe tend to longer lives, but the influence of European climate is toward apoplectic and other similar diseases. On the other hand the bustling habits of the American people necessarily tax the nerve centers and other important parts of the body, while severe and sudden changes of atmosphere, add still more to the difficulties to be overcome.

The present spring has been a very unfortunate one in California. The extremely variable weather has had a very distressing effect upon the health of the people, which in many cases has resulted seriously. Knowing these facts, and in order that our readers might be more thoroughly informed upon the subject, a representative of this paper has collected some important data, which is herewith presented:

Mr. J. G. Dusenbury, real estate broker and land dealer of Fresno, said: "The beneficial effects of Warner's Safe Cure in a case of aggravated kidney disease, with which I have been troubled for seven years past, have been remarkable. Three weeks ago, my kidneys were in such a bad state that I could not rise from my bed. I then began the use of the Safe Cure for the first time. The good effect of the medicine was at once apparent. In five days I was up and around, and have taken several bottles since, and now feel as well and sound as ever in my life. I only regret I did not know the virtues of Warner's Safe Cure years ago."

Mr. James A. Jasper, Santa Maria, says: "I was taken down in 1885 with liver and kidney complaint, and all the doctors pronounced that my spleen was enlarged. I suffered from weakness, my food did not seem to digest, and did not seem to do me any good. I traveled from place to place, to Mineral Springs and in the mountains, but nothing seemed to relieve me until my uncle, while I was stopping at his place in Los Angeles, persuaded me to try Warner's Safe Cure. I took two bottles before I realized any change, and after taking twenty-six bottles was a well man after five years' sickness and given up by all my friends to die. I, therefore, give Warner's Safe Cure credit for my life, and for further information in my case, write to James A. Jasper, Santa Maria, and I will answer and give any references both in Los Angeles and Santa Maria."

Mr. A. A. Cook, Mountain View writes: "After suffering for many months from severe pain in the small of my back that entirely disabled me from work, and becoming quite debilitated from loss of appetite and sleep, and after trying all the best physicians to no good effect, I was induced to try Warner's Safe Cure, and after taking three bottles, I was able to work and eat again as usual, and now I feel like a new man."

Mr. Max Anthony, Oroville, had a very pleasing experience in his family with the use of this great remedy. He writes: "My wife suffered for a long time with pains in the small of her back. She tried everything to cure herself, but without doing her any good. Hearing of your Safe Cure, she concluded to try it, and after taking a few bottles was entirely relieved of her pain. My little daughter aged twelve, would at night wet the bed. We tried in all ways we knew or heard of to stop it, but nothing we tried did any good. It kept growing worse, if anything. The child grew so ashamed and mortified over it, we could not get her away from home. She would not go to see either friends or relations. Finally my wife suggested using Warner's Safe Cure. After using two bottles, she stopped wetting the bed, and has had no more since, now over nine months ago. I would not be without it for ten times its cost. I think it the best medicine for family use ever placed on the market. I cannot say too much in its praise."

Mrs. Kate Ward, of West Butte, Sutter county, writes: "My daughter has taken Warner's Safe Cure, and received great benefit therefrom. I am never without it in my house."

Mr. Edwin E. Webster, of Calpella, Mendocino county, says: "I am happy to state I have used Warner's Safe Cure and Safe Pills with the best result possible, for deranged liver and kidneys."

But one conclusion can be drawn from the above facts by any fair-minded individual. That conclusion must be, that while kidney and liver difficulties are so alarmingly increasing, still there is a safe and certain means by which they can be avoided, or having been contracted, a way by which they can positively be cured.

SCARED BY AN OWL.

The Peril of Frightening Darkies with Panther Stories.
Speaking of owls, sometimes serious results arise from being frightened by owls. We were camped, ten of us, soon after our unpleasantness with the south, in a weird place in the sunken lands in the vicinity of New Madrid, Mo., then on a hunt for turkey and deer. The trees about our camp were ornamented with game. On this evening, while sitting in the tent engaged in a lively chat, there came suddenly from the deep, still forest about us a wild, unearthly scream, frightful enough to make the hair stand erect on the head of the uninitiated, and it would have made it stand on the head of Mat, our colored cook, whom we had taken from Cairo, had it not been for the kinks.
As if by concert of thought, every countenance of the ten assumed an anxious look. "Panther!" exclaimed an old hunter. "Yes," responded another. "Smells our game," says the third. Soon, naturally enough, we were engaged in the narration of blood curdling stories in relation to panthers. Then one of the party thought we needed fresh water in camp, and Mat was detailed to bring it from the creek, a few rods away. He hesitated, but went, taking the ax with him and making the quickest trip on record. We noticed after that when night set in we always had abundance of fresh water in camp.
The next year Mat was with us again in the same region, but in a wilder camp, if possible, than the old one. One afternoon I came into camp earlier than usual and found Mat sitting on a log, the whitest darky I ever saw, grasping with both hands one foot, the blood dripping from them. I found a frightful wound; he had put the full edge of the ax deeply and lengthwise into the top of his foot. With the aid of thread and a glover's needle I closed the wound, and with bandages from a linen coat I had in camp staunch the flow of blood.
The next year Mat did not accompany us, but procured another darky who was several degrees darker than the ten of spades, but sharp, raised on a plantation in Missouri.
One day, while chattering with Billy he said: "Mr. L., Matt says there are a good many panthers here, and that I had better keep a good lookout and have the ax handy. Did he tell you how he came to cut his foot? He said one day he was chopping, and when the ax was raised ready to strike, a panther screamed behind him in the timber, and he looked around suddenly and somehow the ax came down on his foot."
A few days after that I came into camp and found Billy preparing food, and a few yards in front of him, sitting on a branch of a tree, was a small owl looking wisely at the darky. Billy, with a twinkle in his eye, pointed to the owl and said, "Mr. L., there is Mat's panther."

$100 REWARD.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreadful disease that science has been able to cure in a lit stage, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh, being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of a system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have an much faith in its curative powers that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists; 75 cents.

A new brand of odorless whisky has been invented. It is called "Between the Acts."

A Man Who Lives to Eat.
In the costliest of the eating houses in the Wall street region, I saw a crowd of men taking hasty bites; but at a table in a quiet corner sat a leisurely and good looking but somewhat stout young man devouring a canvas back duck.
"There's a chap," said a mutual acquaintance, "who spends between twenty-five and thirty dollars a day for table expenses. He has no one but himself to think of, and I think he is an unusually well behaved fellow. But his appetite is the biggest thing of its kind in town."

It was observed that thirty dollars a day was an outside figure for one individual to eat up in a day.
"Not when the individual eats six times every twenty-four hours and has an especial fondness for canvas back duck, terrapin and choice wines. I suppose you've heard the idea expressed that the thin men are the big eaters. That's a mistake. Thin men have spasmodic appetites, and go for two weeks at a time pecking over their plates like canaries. It is the stout, florid party that eats long and largely, and are the fellows that keep the guy going against the thin men."

"Now, that chap eating the duck would give a hundred thousand dollars to lose fifty pounds of flesh, but he can't deny his appetite if it were to save his life. Funny, eh? What types we get here, don't we? Think of him, with a cool million, loafing his life away. He has never been to Europe, reads nothing except the newspapers, seldom goes to the theatre or opera, but simply collects his rents every quarter and eats. Well, we all have an idol, I suppose."—New York Letter.

A Contrast Between Past and Present.
It is a singularly suggestive fact that the patent office building, one of the most beautiful structures in this or any other country, is, in the main, a reproduction of the architecture of ancient Greece. It is almost paradoxical that the inventive genius of this young and vigorous nation, a genius that has borne its part in revolutionizing the arts and industries of the world, is thus visibly linked to the remote past; that the system which has placed our country in the van of the march of progress, a system that makes aggressive warfare on the past and contends the present, while it pays its devotion to the future, is based in an edifice that was virtually conceived in brains that moldered back to kindred dust 3,000 years ago.—Cor. New Orleans Picayune.

Naming Kittens.
Naming kittens is to young children a matter of no little responsibility and importance. A little girl of our acquaintance—who has been well instructed in the Episcopal prayer book—has recently been made the happy possessor of three wee kittens through the unselfish and maternal foresight of her pet cat. "What shall we name them?" said mamma. After serious thought and due deliberation the little owner of the feline menagerie said: "Let their names be Battle, Murder and Sudden Death."—Buffalo Commercial.

Past!
Pastor—How is your son coming out? I've not seen him lately.
Parent—Pretty well.
"I hope he is not showing any signs of becoming fast, as is so frequently the case with boys in large cities."
"Past! Why, parson, he is a messenger boy."—Texas Sitings.

Made well
—the weak, nervous or ailing woman who takes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a medicine that's guaranteed to help her. It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, soothing cordial and bracing nerve—and a certain cure for all the functional derangements, painful disorders or chronic weaknesses that affect women. For ulcerations, displacements, bearing-down sensations, everything that's known as a "female complaint," it's an unerring remedy. It's a peculiar one, too. Peculiar in composition, peculiar in its cures, and peculiar in the way it's sold. It's guaranteed to give satisfaction, in every case, or the money is refunded. You pay only for the good you get.

It's the big, old-fashioned pill that makes the most disturbance—but it's one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets that does the most good. Mild and gentle, but thorough and effective—the smallest, cheapest and easiest to take. They cleanse and regulate the liver, stomach and bowels.

DEAD SEA FRUITS.

They slay multitudes when they are the product of neglect of incipient disease. A "slight" cold, a fit of indigestion, biliousness or constipation, each or any of the "minor ailments" advance in many cases with "leisurely" strides. Give them a swift, early defeat with Hueston's Stomach Bitters and avert the danger. A remedy administered as astringent rebuke to the man who informed him that he had "only a cold." "Only a cold," repeated the doctor. "What would you have—the plague?" Rheumatism and la grippe are easily extinguishable at the start. Why then allow them to get up a full head of steam? Put on the brake with the Bitters. The genial warmth which this superb medicine diffuses through the system, the impetus it gives to the circulation of the blood, its soothing and strengthening effect on the nervous system, specially recommend it to the enfeebled and sick. 'Tis the great specific for malaria.

Penalists—"The Koran forbids wine, but it permits several wives, knowing well that no sober man would marry more than one.

MURDERED BY PREJUDICE.
Thousands of men die every day who might be saved. Prejudice has murdered many a man and woman. If it were believed that the sum of disease could be reduced by physic, much would be gained. The nightmare of death would not frighten us as it does. In our modern civilization we ought reasonably to expect disease to settle upon us because we do so much to attract it; because we so often and so steadily expose ourselves to it. At the same time we all ought to understand as a part of our rudimentary education that to save ourselves from the effects of such exposure some kind of fortification should be built around our vital forces lest the enemy carry us, as it were, by a sudden onslaught. For many years the unprejudiced have used BROWN'S PINK PILLS in this way, and they have proved a most effective wall against the approach of disease.
