

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1892.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the Globe is $1.50, invariably in advance. No deferral from this rule. The paper will be stopped at the end of the time for which it is paid unless further ordered and paid for. A blue pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired, and if you wish the paper continued you should remit the amount as soon as possible.

GLOBOSITIES.

Read all the business locals this week. Notice change of dates in treasurer's notice.

Arthur Brandenburg made a trip to Portland this week.

Mrs. J. J. Hogan has been on the sick list the last week or two.

Pat Skelly sold 72 tons of hay last week to Fred Monroe for $650.

G. W. Rinehart is building a new stable on his lot in West Condon.

Wm. Hendrix, the cattleman, was in town the fore part of the week.

Otho Ward of Lone Rock made a flying trip to Condon next Saturday.

Mr. Mackey, the photographer, is turning out first-class work, and lots of it.

Thirteen new subscriptions to the Globe this week is not so rocky, is it?

Gene Smith returned home Tuesday from a flying business trip to Heppner.

Tom Johnson and Dan Ward arrived home Sunday evening from The Dalles.

Wm. Hughes and little son Percy, of Heppner, were in town several days this week.

It will astonish a great many to learn that one inch fall of rain will give 11 1/2 tons to the acre.

Miss Blanche Fitzwater returned home Tuesday from a month's visit to friends in the Fossil country.

Maj. Lucas and wife arrived home Wednesday from Portland. Mrs. Lucas' health is much improved.

Read all the advertisements this week, over and over, until you drop off to sleep. It will invigorate you.

Sheriff Wilcox brought his family home Wednesday from Pine creek, where they had been visiting their relatives.

Mr. S. H. Edwards of Eugene, uncle of Commissioner W. J. Edwards, is visiting his relatives in this county.

Herman Seekamp is now at Sonoma, Wash., and his health is much improved. He has invested in property there.

Emin Pasha has had more obituary notices written about him than any other traveler. And he loves to read them.

Mrs. Nora Beardsley left Wednesday for her home at Moscow, Idaho, after a month's pleasant visit to her relatives in this section.

The way to keep your credit good is to never use it. It is one of the few things in this world that gets brighter and more valuable with disuse.

Several new wells are being dug in West Condon, those of Squire Clark and A. J. Walker. They have reached plenty of water within ten feet of the surface.

Mr. Geo. Shippey and family of Portland visited their relatives in this section last week. Mrs. Shippey is a daughter of Mrs. Alex. Hardie, and a sister of Billy Colwell.

During the last week considerable rain fell in this section. Had more of it come a month or so ago, this vicinity would be better fixed to the tune of several thousand $ to-day.

L. A. Temery, a first-class painter and paper-hanger, came up from the valley last week and expects to remain in Condon awhile. At present he is papering Sheriff Wilcox's residence.

L. W. Bailey left Thursday for McCoy, Polk county, where he owns some valuable property, and where he will reside for the present. Loren is very popular in this section, and we are all sorry to see him go.

Mrs. E. W. Copner and Miss May Wineland of Lone Rock came over to our city Wednesday, and expect to visit friends here a few days. At present they are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henshaw.

Jas. S. Henstin of Lone Rock made proof on his homestead Friday before the clerk, with John M. Brown and D. C. Andrews as witnesses. This office acknowledges a very pleasant call from these gentlemen.

Several new buildings in town are under headway, the residences of George Knox, H. N. Frazer, E. J. McMorris, and the Hotel de Wilcox (jail). A number of other new buildings will be built here ere the beautiful snow flies.

At Henshaw's large stock of furniture, undertakers supplies, wallpaper, window-shades, etc., has been arriving all week. He is now prepared to furnish the public with everything in his line, at very moderate prices. See his ad.

An exchange says: What this country wants is a bichloride of squariness squirted into the veins of half the population that will make them pay their debts like men instead of sneaking around the corners to avoid meeting their creditors.

"Spinsters need not despair, it is never too late to ennoble." Cleopatra was 37 when Marc Anthony fell into her power. Josephine was 33 when she was married to Napoleon; and when Helen of Troy stirred up her great international row she was past 80.—Ex.

The boy said in reply to a question that the potatoes didn't turn out at all—be had to dig like thunder to get 'em out.

Tuesday last, W. C. Brown of Lone Rock sold 218 head of cattle to D. E. Gilman of Haystack, the price paid being $15 per head. Gene did not move to the valley, as reported. He has dissolved partnership with his brother Wood, and is now running on his own hook.

Anyone, whether he is business or not, knows it is his duty to help support the local newspaper, and if he refuses to do so, out of closefistedness or meanness, he evidently steals the benefit that any town and community derives from the local paper—and which others pay for.—Exchange.

In one respect at least Quito, the capital of Ecuador, is the most unique city in the world—it is situated in both the northern and southern hemispheres, a distinction claimed by no other place of importance on the globe. At Quito the sun rises and sets at 6 o'clock the year around. It has a population of 50,000.

The best prescription in the world for preventing a scar from a cut or sore of any kind, is as follows, which lotion must be applied two or three times a day: Borax, 1/2 oz; salicylic acid, 12 gr; glycerine, 3 drms; rose water, 6 oz. Lint soaked in the same solution and allowed to remain on some time, will frequently mitigate the visible results of smallpox and other scars.

N. B. Compton, Brigadier General, O. N. G., and staff, and Maj. Jackson, U. S. A., are now inspecting the 34 regiment. After inspecting the companies on the railroad they will go to Southern Oregon and complete their inspection of the 2d regiment, after which they will come to Condon and Fossil. Maj. Lucas will meet them at Arlington and accompany them to Fossil and return. Later, they will inspect H. Co. next Thursday, 28th, and E. Co. 29th, Friday.

Messrs. Godeil & Walker, whose distillery at Troutdale was burned some months since, have decided to erect their new works at Grants, on the Union Pacific. They never asked for anything in the way of a subsidy from the people of Troutdale, but since their distillery was destroyed, the people of Grants have offered them a bonus of 35 acres of land and other things to the value of $25,000. They will build a first-class distillery at Grants and also a flouring mill.

Whitelaw Reid used to edit a weekly paper called the News, in Xenia, Ohio. Editor Stine, of the Superior (Neb.) Journal, recalls a visit he once made to him, and "after climbing a rickety staircase, found him shoving a hand roller over the forms on an old hand press, and Preston B. Plumb pulling the lever."

Mr. Reid is now editor and proprietor of the New York Tribune, his net income from which amounts to $400,000 a year. He is worth about $35,000,000.

Condon is the most delightful little city of the Inland Empire, and there is an air of cordiality and refinement about the people that is refreshing and enlightening in its effects. Condon people live a happy, cheerful, easy life. The surroundings are beautiful, and this has a great influence upon the lives, characters and dispositions of her people. A man who resides upon a barren desert must be barren of virtues, while one who lives surrounded by the magnificent beauties of nature—like those surrounding Condon—must be ennobled by the contrast and influenced toward the great and the good.

Heppner Gazette: All over the country there seems to be as many squirrels as ever, and yet our county has paid out over $1800 for squirrel scalps this season.

The Gazette, in the interest of those who pay the taxes, will oppose the renewal of the squirrel scalp bounty next season, but we are under the impression that it will not be put in force by our county court. If the squirrels are bad, let the individuals who are interested in the crops put their money into the work of extermination. The present arrangement is too much of a load on the people who are not directly interested, and besides, the squirrels are increasing apparently as fast, if not faster, than they are being killed.

The arrest of Chas. Wilson for the murder of Mamie Walsh at Milwaukee, Clinckins county, promises to clear up one of the most profound murder mysteries in the history of the state. Many will remember the trial and conviction of old man William Scott, a year or so ago, for the murder of his aged wife near Wheatland, Yamhill county, for which he is now serving out a life sentence. Scott has all along claimed that he is innocent of the crime, and now Wilson promises to clear the mystery up, claiming he knows all about it. Wilson's actions of late indicate that he knows more about the murder than is imagined. He says he will make a full statement relative to the tragedy in a day or so.

Maj. Lucas was ordered by wire last week to Portland to attend an examination as to his qualifications for the office of Col. of the 3d Reg., O. S. G., to which he was recently elected. The examining board consisted of Col. Samuel L. Lovell, of the 2d regiment, and Capt. Coffey of the 1st regiment. The examination was quite extensive and critical, and was entirely satisfactory to the board, who reported favorably to a commission, which will doubtless be issued soon. It seems to have been the desire of a few parties to prevent the issuance of a commission, owing to the necessity of a change in headquarters. But we are glad to state that the matter is now practically settled.

Times-Mountaineer: Monday the case of J. M. Huntington, contestant, vs J. B. Crossen, clerk of Wasco county, defendant, was argued before Judge Bradshaw on motion of counsel for contestant that each and all of the notices hereinbefore served upon the defendant and filed in this cause be quashed and set aside, and the proceedings be dismissed. The argument was made by J. L. Story and A. S. Bennett for contestant, and by Chas. F. Lord for defendant. After considering the matter, Judge Bradshaw sustained the motion and the cause was dismissed. Thus ends the long talked of election contest.

Condon Normal School.

A subscription paper is being circulated by our citizens this week with a view to securing sufficient encouragement of the proper kind, to open a normal school at this place, beginning September 1st, to be under the instruction of Prof. O. M. Given, for a nine months term. In order to raise the necessary amount, it will require 20 pupils, and as 18 are already promised, there is no doubt that it will be made to go. It is highly probable that 30 or more scholars can be secured for the term. Our citizens are to be congratulated upon their success in securing the excellent service of Prof. Given. He is one of the most competent instructors on the coast, and our enterprising people fully recognize the importance of maintaining a first-class school here.

Arlington Antagonists.

Dr. Moller of La Grande was in town this week.

The poisoner is once more getting in his "dirty work." Who is he?

Syd Hawson has been on the sick list with sore throat, but is convalescing.

Clarence Shurte attended the A. O. U. W. convention at Portland this week.

Antone Ringe of Baker City, formerly of this place, paid us a short visit last week.

Banker J. A. Thomas returned last week from a flying business trip to Sunset, Texas.

Mrs. D. S. Sprinkle, Gussie and Miss Dollie Lyons have gone away for a summer's vacation.

Mrs. Fred Snow and Vera are rusticated at Hood River. Fred joined them Friday for a few weeks well-earned vacation.

A horse race on Main street Monday, without a driver—nobody hurt or no "damn-age" done—except on the first syllable.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Frick left last week for Gibbons Station, beyond Pendleton, where they intend to rusticate. Sam, the Celestial, went along.

The thinnest thing out—that excuse last week about "the printer being sick." That "homeside" correspondence must have had the effect of a dynamite bomb.

The Arlingtonians at Hood River received a reinforcement Tuesday, Mrs. L. C. Edwards and Miss Elsie Ebi having decided to test the pleasures of camp life.

Col. Lucas and wife came up from Portland Tuesday. Congratulations are in order, Jay having passed his military examination O. K., and is now a full-fledged colonel.

Mrs. G. T. Wells and daughter May are at Albany, having started Saturday upon receipt of a telegram saying that Mr. Wells was very sick at that place. We have not heard how he is getting along.

Sidney Collins, accompanied by Surveyor Hurlburt, spent several days last week leveling his ranch opposite the Willows. Sidney has got so he can use a shovel in each hand, with much adroitness—if you know what that means.

The sad news was received here Friday of the death of Mrs. Homer Comfort, at Seattle on the 13th inst. The deceased was the mother of Mesdames Wenner and Snow. The remains were interred at Salem. Mrs. Wenner was with her mother when the final dissolution came.

They are having a dickens of a time at the mining towns in the Coeur d'Alene country. U. S. troops passed through here Wednesday of last week from Van cover for the scene of action. They were joined by troops from Walla Walla, Missoula, Sherman, and also the Idaho militia. It promises to rival the Homestead strike in Pennsylvania. SUB.

Shelby Shots.

A number of our boys started Monday for Walla Walla, to work at harvesting.

Harvesting has commenced, and the hum of the header is again heard in our land.

Miss Mattie Jennings has returned home from a month's visit in the Willamette valley.

Plenty of rain of late, but it's almost too late to be of much benefit to the grain—except to soak it thoroughly while it is down.

Wm. Hunt, who was so badly hurt July 1st while hauling hay, we are glad to report, is improving and will soon be able to resume his work.

We learn that Andy Wilkins has purchased the farm of Doug Hart, near this burg, where he and his mother and sister will reside. We are sorry to lose so worthy a neighbor as Mr. Hart.

NIX.

"Why does Her Huber generally look over his glasses, instead of through them?" "It is because he is so stingy—he is afraid of wearing them out too soon.—St. Paul Globe.

Lone Rock Rumbings.

Mrs. J. Madden visited friends at the county seat last week.

Billy Brown and his buccaroos drove the 218 head of cattle to town Monday to be delivered to Gene Gilman.

The slender form of the genial Tom Rhea became visible to the naked eye on our streets Monday evening, hence this good item.

A petition for a new mail route from Lone Rock to Fossil is being signed by many of our people, who want better mail (male) facilities.

Mrs. A. Henshaw and family, all except Al, the eldest, visited friends here a few days this week, returning to the busy hum of the metropolis Tuesday.

The rain Saturday had a beneficial effect by cooling off the atmosphere and driving the gnats and bedbugs into their holes—if it didn't help the crops much.

Hay-cutting is snorting along at full steam in this vicinity. The rye crop is splendid, while other kinds of grain are turning out about 1/2 or 2/3 what it was last year.

A large number of people were on hand Sunday to hear Rev. Mulligan's sermon. Three persons were baptized, and in the evening two others united with the M. E. church.

Commissioner Ralston is improving his town property, which adds not only to its appearance and value, but to that of all the surrounding property. We need more men like "Uncle Joe" in our community. COWBOY.

Professional Teachers.

The fact that teaching in the public schools is rapidly rising to the dignity of a profession—if it has not already reached that position, is shown by the large number of students who are seeking professional training in our State Normal schools. The attendance at Monmouth last year—the largest perhaps in the Northwest, was made up of representatives from almost every county in the state, besides a good aggregate representation from Washington, Idaho, British Columbia and Alaska.

"Money is the root of all evil." Most people like plenty of the root, however.—Texas Siftings.

Cholly—Dyon think she would accept me if I proposed to her? Gargie—Yaas undoubtedly, dear boy. Why, she accepted me last night.—Siftings.

She—Ent George, dear, do you think you can support me on $10 a week? He—Think, Darling? I know it. There's a place down town where we can get 21 meal tickets for $2.50.—Life.

First Lawyer—That was a queer case of yours the other day. Second Lawyer—Yes. My client wouldn't pay for a suit of clothes because they didn't fit, and the tailor sued him for the amount. "How did it come out?" "I got the suit."—Judge.

PHOTOGRAPHS.

We have pitched our travelling gallery in Condon, and are now prepared to make the finest quality of photographs at $3.50 per dozen. We guarantee entire satisfaction in every respect, or we demand no pay. We cordially invite the people of Condon and vicinity to call and examine the fine collection of samples taken during our travels this year, it being the largest collection carried by any travelling artist on the face of the globe. Whether you want any pictures or not, we would be pleased to have you look at our samples anyway.

Respectfully, MACKAY BROS.
