

THE GONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1892.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

SOUND OPINION.

Cadada Farmer: The farmers lately in convention adopted the following creed:

We believe in small farms and thorough cultivation. We believe the soil lives to eat as well as the owner, and ought therefore to be well-fertilized.

We believe in going to the bottom of things, and therefore in deep plowing and enough of it. All the better if it be a subsoil plow.

We believe in large crops that leave land better than they found it, making both farm and farmer rich at once.

We believe that every farm should own a good farmer.

We believe in good fences, good farm houses, good orchards, and good children enough to gather the fruit.

We believe that the fertilizer of any soil is a spirit of industry, enterprise and intelligence. Without these, lime and guano will be of little use.

We believe in a clean kitchen, a neat and careful wife in it, a clean cupboard, a clean dairy, and a clear conscience.

We believe that to ask a man's advice is not stooping, but of benefit.

We believe that to keep a place for everything and everything in its place saves many a step, and is pretty sure to lead to good tools and to keeping them in good order.

We believe that kindness to stock, like good shelter, is saving of fodder.

We believe it is a good thing to keep an eye on experiments, and to note all, good and bad.

We believe that it is a good rule to sell grain when it is ready.

There are six territories yet to be admitted as states, and the probability is that one or two of them will come in next year. Utah is well entitled to statehood, as regards population and wealth, but has properly been kept out because of polygamy practiced by a large proportion of its people.

"Put on some clothes, Mandy!" shrieked the elderly aunt at the watering place; "folks will see you," she added, horror struck. "Aunt Julia," replied Ananda, as she went out among the waves with all the trustful innocence of a Texas statesman, "what are we here for?"

President Harrison receives his salary in monthly installments. On or about the 26th day of every month the treasurer of the United States sends to the White House, sometimes by messenger and on other occasions by mail, a check for $4166.66.

Could Not Lie.

Tommy, how did you get the back of your neck all sunburnt? Pollin' weeds in the garden. But your hair it all wet, my son. That's perspiration. Your vest is on wrong side out, too. Put it on that way a-purpose. And how does it happen, Tommy dear, that you have got Jack DuBois' trousers on? (After a long pause) Mother, I can't tell a lie. I've been a-swimmin'—Chicago Tribune.

HATTEE'S CONGO OIL

Marvelous Cure Effected By Its Use.

This wonderful medicine is the wonder of the nineteenth century, effecting a cure when all other remedies fail. It is distilled from plants growing upon the banks of the Congo River, in South Africa. The first knowledge that we possess of this wonderful oil is found in some of the writings of Covilham, a Portuguese navigator and African explorer, who was sent out by the King of Abyssinia about 1488. He speaks of a wonderful penetrating oil that was in use by the Zimbos, a remnant of a once powerful African nation, and in some recent cyphers found upon some ruins in a very ancient city called Zimbos (meaning a royal house), more evidence has been produced of this wonderful oil, or rather of the plants from which it is distilled, thus proving conclusively that the secret was sacredly guarded by these ancient inhabitants of the Dark Continent. As the world has progressed, more explorations have been made in Equatorial Africa, and suffering humanity has been greatly benefitted, as well as medical science being advanced by the re-discovery of this wonderful Congo Oil. It was first brought into civilized Europe by a member of the expedition sent out from London in 1860, under the command of Captain Speke, whose explorations reached far up the Congo River. The secret of its production was jealously guarded until upon the death of the party in whose possession it was, when it was given to a party named Hattie, who formed a company known as the Congo Oil Company, having its headquarters at Zanibar, South Africa, with a branch in New York City, and thus placing upon the market this most wonderful oil of remedies. By its use all pain disappears, but it is particularly recommended in Sciatica, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Etc. It is wonderfully penetrating, and to use it once is to become a friend to it always. By its use thousands who are suffering can be relieved. It is the cheapest because it is the best, and one bottle of it will go further than a dozen of the many so-called cures for these ills. It is purely for external use. Full and explicit directions are printed on each bottle. If you are afflicted, try a bottle; and before you have used half of it your aches and pains will disappear, and there will be no more use for crutches or canes. It is for sale by all druggists and dealers in patent medicines, or can be supplied by the undersigned, who are the sole Pacific Coast Agents for this wonderful oil. Prepared by the Congo Oil Co., Zanibar, South Africa and New York.
