The Emperor of Japan has conferred upon Sir Edwin Arnold the unusual honor of the Order of the Rising Sun. Hon. J. D. Washburn, American Minister to Switzerland, will resign his post in September, it is stated, and return home.

Robert Louis Stevenson, it is reported, has started a social and literary club in Apia, Samoa, and Mrs. Stevenson is its President. The household of Secretary Rusk of the National Department of Agriculture is managed by his daughter. The marketing is done by herself.

Ex-Senator Ingalls is rewriting his novel, the manuscript of which was lost by the fire that destroyed his library. It will treat of Washington life. The widow of the late Senator Plumb of Kansas has declined to accept the $5,000 or one year's salary always voted to widows of deceased Senators.

General James B. Weaver, the nominee for President of the People's party, does not smoke or swear or drink. He possesses a pleasant baritone voice. M. Ribot, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, is one of the best speakers and tallest men in the House of Deputies. He possesses great personal magnetism.

Baron Hirsch is coming to America. He is now completely restored to health, and according to the Paris papers the famous philanthropist intends spending several months here. Both Andrew D. White, Mr. Harrison's new Minister to Russia, and George Shiras, Jr., the new appointee to the Supreme Bench, were members of the Yale College class of 1853.

John Stuart Mill struggled with Greek verse at 9, and Cardinal Newman at 5 was deep in Ovid, while the younger Pitt went to the university at 16 with a store of learning that amazed his tutors. Congressman Bland of silver-bill fame is a short, rather fat man, who dresses with remarkable eccentricity. His trousers in particular are said to be a sight for gods and men, but not for tailors.

Queen Liliuokalani of the Sandwich Islands pays the license fee for a coffee-house opened in her capital city by the Women's Temperance Union, and has banished wines and spirituous liquors from her table and receptions. Rev. Joseph Cook has aroused a good deal of indignation by stating that in his opinion New York is a very wicked city. Joseph has not yet learned that one of the surest signs of wisdom in a man is that he does not tell all that he thinks.

Dr. Newman Hall, the great British divine, preached his last sermon from the text, "God so loved the world!" This, he told his congregation, was the first text he ever learned, the text he first preached from, and should now be the last text of their pastor.

THE CHICAGO EXPOSITION. Duke of Edinburgh Will Exhibit Some of His Collection of Ancient Musical Instruments.

A Boston man wants to exhibit a sky-cycle at the World's Fair. A sky-cycle comes under the head of flying machines. The Board of Trade and citizens of Fargo, N. D., have undertaken to raise $30,000 to supplement the State World's Fair appropriation of $25,000.

The Wisconsin World's Fair building will have a $5,000 grand staircase, the donation of the Morgan Company, one of the best known firms of the State. Butterflies to the number of 150,000 will be shown in the Pennsylvania exhibit at the World's Fair. The collection is said to be the most complete and finest in the world.

San Bernardino county, Cal., is contemplating the exhibition at the World's Fair of a "palace" of native salt, using blocks of crystallized salt that measure 12x12 inches and are transparent. It is estimated that the thirty-five railroads which enter Chicago will expend $110,000,000 in increasing and improving their equipment and facilities for transporting World's Fair visitors and freight.

The Missouri World's Fair Commission has not done a great deal of talking, but information has been received to the effect that it has been most diligently at work all the time, and that the Missouri exhibit at the fair will be one of the best there. Costa Rica's pavilion at the World's Fair will be surrounded by gardens ornamented by a profusion of tropical plants, and in the galleries of the pavilion will be placed more than 3,000 beautiful birds, many of which have very gorgeous plumage.

A Sioux squaw, living near San Diego, Cal., will exhibit in the woman's building at the World's Fair a dress of deer skins, richly embroidered with sixteen pounds of beads. She worked for two years in making the garment. From the San Diego Mission will be exhibited a valuable collection of fine needle work by Indian girls. The Duke of Edinburgh has announced his intention of sending for exhibition at the World's Fair some of the almost invaluable collection of ancient musical instruments which he possesses. A part of the collection is now on exhibition at the International Musical and Art Exhibition at Vienna, where it attracts much attention.

BEYOND THE ROCKIES.

No Overhead Wires at the Chicago World's Fair Grounds.

Ten acres in the heart of Buffalo's railroad district have been secured by the Philadelphia and Reading railroad for freight storage. Just 34,922 tons of granite have been placed in the Delaware breakwater gap the past year. The sum required to complete the work is $320,000. A petition has been in circulation at New Bedford calling for a mass meeting to formulate plans which will compel the authorities to enforce the liquor law.

The revolution that electric traction is working is shown by the advertised sale of 450,000 worth of stables by the West End Street Railway Company of Boston. Many prominent clergymen protest against the proposition to bring the Oberammergau players to Chicago to reproduce the "Pass" year to reproduce the "Pass" year. Sealink dealers of the U. S. have formed a trust at New York with $10,000,000 capital, known as the George C. Trepany company. A man in Dakota was lately taken to prison for half a lifetime, and the Supreme Court has decided that the time means nineteen years, seven months and four days.

The apple crop this year promises to be light everywhere outside of California, Maine and Nova Scotia. A good deal of green fruit has been knocked off the trees by the storms. It is believed there will be an exodus of non-union men from the Cour d'Alene country if the troops are withdrawn. Efforts are being made to have one or two companies of United States troops remain.

The veto put upon the trolley system of electric traction in both New York and Philadelphia has turned the attention of inventors more than ever to the long-hoped-for perfection of either the storage battery or the conduit system. The annual report of the State almshouse at Tewksbury, Mass., for 1891 shows that there were 2,915 persons admitted, of whom only 371 were born in Massachusetts, while 1,024 were born in Ireland.

Mme. Patti has at last decided on her final, absolute farewell tour in America. She has signed a contract with Marcus Mayer for a tour of forty operatic concerts, beginning in New York on November 10, next year. Walter D. Stinson, who has been appointed postmaster at Augusta, Me., to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. J. H. Manley, is a nephew of Mrs. Blaine. He has been in the postoffice service for years.

There is quite a little stow in Indianapolis over the scope which shall be allowed its great soldiers' monument in commemoration of Indiana's war services. The point of contest is in the vigorous objection by the veterans of the civil war against sharing the memorial with the veterans of the Mexican war.
