M. Felix Tisserand, member of the French Academy of Sciences, has been appointed by decree of the Minister of Public Instruction Director of the Paris Observatory for a period of hive years in the place of Admiral Mouchez, deceased. Reference has frequently been made of late to the rapid way in which the Prince of Wales is aging. Since the death of his son it has affected his ap-pearance still more and robbed him of what had been left of the once peculiar-in health ful has of his approximation.

Ed. Tewksbury, who is charged at Pnœnix, A. T., with the killing of Tom Graham in Tonto Basin, has been held for trial without bail. This has tended omewhat to quiet the feeling against Tewksbury, which is very strong.

The main ditch at the Myrtle creek mines has been extended a mile and a quarter to tap more small streams. Washing is not now in progress, but everything is being put in readiness to begin operations as soon as the fall rains begin. Scarcity of water has always been a drawback to mining operations in Southern Oregon, but the Myrtle Creek Company is doing a large amount of ditching to provide water to run the giants the year round, if possible.

The project of lowering the water in the upper Klamath Lake, Or., thereby reclaiming a vast area of agricuitural land, seems to have at last taken definite shape, and the lawyers of Klamath Falls are awaiting developments in the courts by those claiming water privileges, as soon as the work begins. At a cost of several thousand dollars for work to be done, and perhaps $10,000 in attorneys' fees for litigation resulting, it is thought at least 70,000 acres of rich land can be reclaimed.

Hop picking near Ukiah was sus-pended Sunday, and the Indians, to the pended sunday, and the indians, to the number of quite 500, congregated in Ukiah. Having plenty of money, they rallied near the Court House, and soon a banking game was running, owned by four Indians. On complaint of the squaws the game was stopped and the four Indians arrested. San Francisco papers to the effect that the Chinese deelined to register until the Chinese declined to register until they got word of a lvice from the Chinese Minister. Mr. Mason said he had also seen such reports printed, but his de-partment had not been advised by col-lectors of revenue or by officials as to the intentions of the Chinese. "If they don't choose to register," said Mr. Mason, "we will not quarrel with them about it, for then we will be spared a great deal of trouble and expense. The Chinese well know the penalty for their great deal of trouble and expense. The Chinese well know the penalty for their negligence to provide themselves with certificates. All those found without them at the date stipulated will be sent to the flowery kingdom. There can be no doubt about that." "But would you have funds sufficient to deport them by the wholesale?" "We would doubtless find the way" said the commissionar find the way," said the commissioner. "We could send them in our naval vessels or charter ships especially for the purpose. We can pack them like sar-dines in a box; they are used to incommodious quarters, anyhow," said the

It is now said that the War Ministers of Prussia and Bavaria have refused to permit any of the regimental bands to visit the Chicago Exhibition.

The Southern Pacific railway aubscription of $20,000 for stock in the World's Columbian Exposition makes a total of nearly $1,000,000 from the various transportation lines in the United States.

There is a possibility that, owing to the cholera, some of the foreign coun-tries may abandon their arrangements for exhibits at the World's Fair, and General Grosvenor of Ohio suggests the advisability of postponing the opening for a year, for a year, The value of Washington cedar for shingle purposes is illustrated by a bundle of them which have been on the roof of John W. Donnelly's house on Se-quim Prairie, Clallam county, since 1853. Judge Swan of Port Townsend has notified Secretary Meany of the World's Fair Commission that he has secured this contribution to the Tacoma Exposition and the World's Fair. The shingles are in a good state of preserva-tion. This exhibit will serve as an ob-ject lesson to illustrate the wonderful lasting qualities of Washington cedar shingles.
