

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1892.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, invariably in advance. No deviation from this rule. The paper will be stopped at the end of the time for which it is paid unless further ordered and paid for. A blue pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired, and if you wish the paper continued you should remit the amount as soon as possible.

GLOBOSITIES.

Read notice of the grand ball to be held in Lost Valley, Oct. 7th.

The new dwelling houses of Prof. Hill and Squire Clark are nearing completion.

Doc Brown is having a fine dwelling house built on his place four miles northeast of town.

The GLOBE is a little short of news this week, owing to a rush of job work and court being in session.

Wm. Brassfield and wife recently moved to the old Brassfield place on Rock creek, four miles above Olex.

G. J. Caven was over from Pine creek Saturday with some of his fine fruit. His fruit is always in great demand.

Rev. Wise postponed his visit to Forest Grove until this week, starting Monday. He will be absent three weeks.

Wiley Miller and family are occupying the old harness shop until their new house is finished, which will be soon.

Our town is full of courting people this week. The crowd, however, is not over half so large as that of the spring term.

Frank Pliter and Geo. Robinson returned home the first of the week from a couple of weeks' sojourn in the Tillamook country.

W. E. Reed of Olex had the misfortune one day last week to break his arm. It will be several weeks before he will be able to resume his work.

B. K. Searcy afforded amusement for the crowd by running a shooting gallery this week in town. The "bulls-eye" was shot at a good many times.

Mr. Geo. W. Rinehart returned home Friday from his three weeks visit in the valley. He thinks nearly everybody in the valley will go solid for Weaver for president.

Mrs. E. W. Copner and Miss Anna Clarke came over from Lone Rock Sunday, and rendered valuable assistance with the music at our entertainments Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Miss Daisy Downing left Saturday for The Dalles, where she will attend the St. Mary's Academy until June. The young folks gave her a farewell party Friday night, which was greatly enjoyed.

Miss Ethel Parman left Monday for Forest Grove, Lane county, where she expects to take a course in the Pacific University. Mrs. Parman accompanied her and will return in a few days.

R. W. Crane returned home Tuesday from Portland where he attended the Odd Fellows' convention. He says there were about 20,000 in attendance, and that he never had a better time in his life.

George—Madge, darling, I love you fondly, devotedly. With you life is everything; without you, nothing. Madge—I wish I could say as much. George—You might if you were as big a liar as I am.—Judge.

The complete returns from the state elections in North Carolina, indicate the election of Tillman, the farmer's alliance man for governor. Five out of seven congressmen were elected by the people's party.

Several scholars from outside the district are attending our graded schools, among them being Miss Carrie Boyer of Beecher Flat, Miss Fannie Wooley of Trailfork, and Than Caven of Pine creek, all of whom are stopping in town.

G. W. Mackey, our courteous photographer, returned to Condon this week, after a tour lasting about five weeks through the neighboring towns south of here. He is better than ever satisfied with Condon, and is now snugly located in his new gallery over the harness shop.

Miss Anna Clarke of Lone Rock has been employed in the primary department of the Condon graded schools, beginning Tuesday. She is an experienced teacher and has always given excellent satisfaction. With the present corps of efficient teachers, we are sure to have a good school this term; besides, they are a valuable addition to our social world.

Unless the cholera can be stamped out effectually very soon, there is little doubt that with the thousands of visitors at the world's fair at Chicago next year, a scourge will visit this country such as it has never known. It is a question worthy of serious consideration whether the world's fair had not best be postponed, should the present threatening aspect continue.

Eugene Register: There is not a more useless expense to the people of this state than the so-called Oregon Weather Service. The reports are sent out about three months after date right along, and even if sent out on time would be of no use to anyone. It is costing the people of the state several hundred dollars a month to issue this, pay for preparing it, etc., and no one receives any benefit but the men who are drawing a salary for issuing it. No one would miss it if dispensed with, and the people would be benefited financially thereby.

As advertised, the "world's fair" at Slater's place in Lost Valley came off last week, also a couple of vigorous rows. Chas. Slater and Robt. Owens had a "set-to" during which Slater gnawed on Owens nose until it looked as though it had been through the war. Slater was arrested and Monday he pleaded guilty before Squire Clark and was fined $15 and costs, amounting in all to about $22.

There is no telling where the trouble resulting from a mortgage will end. An exchange says that a Maryland farmer mortgaged his farm to get his wife a pair of diamond ear-rings. The wife took in washing from summer boarders to pay the interest on the mortgage. The first day she lost one of them in the ends and tried to hang herself in the barn, but the rope broke and she fell on a $150 calf and broke its back.

The Entertainment.

The entertainment given in the church Monday evening was a decided success, and netted about $21 which will go towards getting a bell for the school house. The church was crowded to its utmost, and the program was very interesting throughout. An amusing feature of the evening was the vote taken for the most popular lady and gentleman in the house, the compliment being bestowed upon Miss Louella Maddock and Judge Bradshaw. The contest was for a very fine cake which, however, turned out to be manufactured principally by paste-board. But it looked so tempting that part of it was eaten anyway.

The first evening proved so highly entertaining that many who were present and those who were not, prevailed upon having the program repeated Tuesday evening, which was done. Everyone performed their part of the program to perfection. The audience was not quite so large as the previous evening, although over $12 was realized, which with the $21, will procure a good bell.

Balance proceedings next week.

Choice Lots For Sale.

During my absence, Herbert Halestead will attend to the selling of the Thomas property in Condon. This is the best and cheapest property in town.

J. W. BLAKE.

Lone Rock Rumblings.

Ed Copner went to Portland Tuesday to purchase his fall and winter stock of goods.

Mrs. E. W. Copner has returned home from a couple of days' visit at Gilliam's capital and metropolis.

It's out that a double wedding will come off next Sunday—not 100 miles from this beautiful burg. Maybe so.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Colwell are visiting their numerous friends in this section, having arrived here Wednesday from their home at Portland.

The weather is quite cool since the light shower of rain Sunday night. The dry weather had become damaging to stock, owing to the extreme dryness of the grass.

Milt Hale came up Saturday from his Schuttler Flat farm. He informed us that with the assistance of a hired hand and five horses he sowed and harrowed in 320 acres of wheat, in less than 7 days.

Bob Johnson and Tom Barton with their families arrived home this week from a five weeks visit in the Wenatchee country. Bob says this country is good enough for him, and thinks many more of our dissatisfied inhabitants would arrive at the same conclusion if they would take a similar trip.

The "world's fair" in Lost Valley came off last week, also part of Bob Owens' nose, by means of Chas. Slater's teeth. It wound up about as the people expected, so that nobody was disappointed except, perhaps, the proprietor, whom we understand has deposited $22 with the Condon justice, to be used for school purposes, etc.

We understand the Madden vs Madden divorce suit has been settled by mutual agreement; and perhaps more weddings will soon be announced. The Esteb vs Esteb case came to an abrupt end a few days ago by the defendant, after an absence of two years, putting in an appearance, and had no trouble in making peace with the better ½.

Cowboy.

West Fork Squibs.

Benton Mires had a house-moving last week.

Jas. W. Dyer of Mayville was visible to the naked eye on our "streets" one day last week, hence this good item.

Born, Friday, Sept. 9, 1892, to the wife of Chas. L. Prindle, a bouncing daughter. All parties, Charley included, are doing well.

Every voter in this vicinity who has sand enough in his gizzard to express his sentiments, is in favor of the People's party, and we don't blame them.

Miss Stella Hastings, who recently came out from the glorious old flapping state of Missouri, has been employed to teach a 3-months term of school here this fall.

Wayne Hamilton and J. Q. Zachary will give an old-fashioned, Arkansas shindig at the West Fork school house on the evening of Sept. 23d. Everybody and all their relatives are invited to attend, also to fetch $1 along with which to buy a ticket and supper—both for $1. All the $ will go into our school fund.

A couple of Mr. Satan's representatives broke into Johnny Maxwell's house last week, and "borrowed" everything in sight. These same two disciples of sheet stole a saddle belonging to Wm. Keys, from Mr. Maxwell's barn on the 31st of last July. They are "spotted," and will gobbled in one of these fine days.

Jas. King threshed 297½ bushels of grain from 30 acres, instead of 500 bushels from 20 acres, as stated in the Fossil paper. The Journal man might profit a little himself by taking a dose of the remedy he prescribed last week about boasting over things at the expense of truth. We all had a hearty laugh last week at his "boost" for the Fossil school teachers being the best in the state, etc. It sounds all the funnier on account of one of them being a "very near relative." It was real funny. SQUIB.

Olex Explosions.

The men in these parts are all busy sowing wheat, while the ladies are busy canning and drying fruit.

Miss Dunn is making a success of her school here, there being quite a number of young ladies and gentlemen in attendance.

We are informed that Miss Annie Schott has a very large attendance at her school at Ione, and that she is quite popular with the patrons and pupils.

It is reported that Mr. Cunningham's house was robbed a night or two ago, but matters in that direction seem to be clouded in some kind of mystery for some reason or 'tother.

L. O. Ralston is in Portland buying a large and choice stock of goods for the Olex store. It is a great accommodation to the many settlers on the creek since their home store has been enlarged and carries a complete stock of everything.

The Misses Keys of Mayville are visiting the Misses Schott, also Miss Myers from the Willamette valley. They all visited our city last Sunday, but were too late for Sunday school, which, by the way, is one of the main features of Olex.

Family Re-union.

POPULAR FAIRM, Sept. 16.

The Stevens family held a re-union at Stevens Bros' Poplar Farm, 13 miles southeast of Condon, on Sunday, 11th inst. The entire family were present, also a few invited friends. The day was most enjoyably spent in social intercourse, and the dinner was very fine and greatly enjoyed by all present. The evening was whiled away with delightful music and singing, lasting until 9 o'clock.

Among those present were, Father and Mother O. C. Stevens of The Dalles, Chas. B. and Frank B. Stevens of Condon, A. C. Stevens and wife and three sons, Bennie, Cassie and Guy, late of Santa Clara, Cal.; Mrs. A. Murphy of Calistoga, Cal.; Miss L. Rohrer of Lone Rock and Miss Annie Zeigenhagen of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Stevens left last Wednesday, 14th, for The Dalles, after a six weeks' sojourn with their sons here. Mr. Stevens' health is yet very poor. We wish them a safe and pleasant journey.

A GUEST.

Judge Snuffy—"Erasmus Lightfoot, you are charged with chicken-stealing. Have you a lawyer?" Erasmus—No sah. Judge Snuffy—Do you wish the court to assign you a lawyer? Erasmus—No, sah! no, sah! Judge—What do you wish to do about it? Erasmus—Well, jedge, if it's all de same t' yo', I'd jes' as leave dismise de case.—Siftings.
