

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1892.

THE OFFICIAL PAPER OF GILLIAM COUNTY, OREGON.

About the 15th of this month it is expected that the new return postal card will be placed on sale at all postoffices. The half of the double card containing the message to which a reply is desired is three and a half inches wide by five and a half inches long. At the top of the card and a little to the left of the center are engraved in three lines, one above the other, the words, "Postal Card with Paid Reply, United States of America," and in smaller type, "This side is for address only." In the right-hand upper corner is a vignette of General Grant, encircled by a frame bearing at the top the legend "Message Card," and at the bottom "One Cent." At the lower left-hand corner are the words, "Detach Annexed Card for Answer." The whole is enclosed in a tasteful border. The face of the return card, in general effect, is similar to the message card. Instead, however, of the words "Postal Card with Paid Reply" at the top of the card are the words "Reply Postal Card." Over the vignette of General Grant, the words "Reply Card" are substituted for "Message Card." The message card and the card for reply form one piece of cardboard, folded together and creased on a line between the two where they are to be separated when the reply is sent.

Thousands of people next year will be sadly left if they imagine the cost of a visit to the world's fair will be as cheap accordingly as the fares over the railways. The Chicago Journal says: The world's fair, instead of being a benefit, is already a hardship to some hundreds of thousands of people in Chicago. Boarding-house keepers, in anticipation of what is to come, have already raised rates on the unfortunate people, who, having no homes of their own, must needs eat where food and shelter are sold them. The boarding-house keepers are not altogether to blame, for their landlords have raised their rates also. What will happen when the crowd comes, and the more grasping landlords and landladies turn out their regular boarders for the sake of ephemeral big rates from visitors, may be only guessed at. This much may be assured, though, that not only will the demand for high rates from visitors be a serious mistake, hurting the city's reputation, but that it will be in many cases a mistake financially. The harvest time from the visitors will be brief and even that unfortunate person, the regular boarder, has a memory.

North Carolina Globe: Some of the Northern papers are howling about the positive fact that Grover Cleveland hired a cheap man to represent him when the North pillaged and plundered and burned and ravished the South. There could not be a better recommendation. The scamps of the North who went into the war, went in for $14 a month, with an explicit understanding that they should and could steal all that was in sight. Grover Cleveland knew that the country would need his services in 1887 and again in 1892, and he did not propose to have his body filled with lead in order to give a Yankee a chance to pick his pocket after he had been killed. He simply did a good business job, as he did when he slapped the dirty beggars, called pensioners, in the face. Why should he—a statesman and a man of his intellect—take the chance of war, when he could hire a cheap fellow to represent him? There is no reason. That is one of the best things that Cleveland ever did. Had he fought, he would have been lowered in the estimation of the South. He did not propose to use his skill in killing the boys of the Southland. The Solid South owes a debt of gratitude to Grover Cleveland.

The great poet Tennyson died at London Thursday last, aged 78.

An Oregon editor writes: "The politician is my shepherd; I shall not want for anything during the campaign. He leadeth me into the saloon for my vote's sake. He filleth my pockets with good cigars and my stomach with lager. He inquireth concerning the health of my family, even unto the fourth generation. Yea; though I walk through the mud and rain to vote for him and shout myself hoarse when he is elected, he straightway forgetteth me. Yea, though I meeteth him in his own office he knoweth me not. Verily, the wool hath been pulled over mine eyes all the days of my life."

That the cholera has been so successfully resisted at New York is cause for congratulation not only in that and other Eastern cities, but throughout the whole country. The authorities of New York City and state deserve the thanks of all people for their apparently triumphant warfare upon the plague. The "scare" seems to be about over, but it would have been something more than a scare if vigorous measures had not been promptly taken.

A missionary in Palestine writes us that since the completion of the railroad from Jaffa into the city of Jerusalem, over 300 buildings—residences, hotels and business houses have been erected. Real estate agents are swarming into the sacred city, and much interest is manifested. The Holy Land will soon be gridironed with railroads, with Jerusalem for a center.

B. S. Pague, of the Oregon weather bureau, has returned home from the East, and tells an Oregonian reporter that Harrison will carry the country and be elected. If we are to judge the correctness of his statement by the reliability of Mr. Pague's weather predictions, the success of the democracy is a foregone conclusion.—Roseburg Review.

The world's fair managers inform the Globe that more than 10,000 men are now at work in getting the grounds ready for the great exposition next year. On a number of the structures work proceeds day and night. Wonderful progress is being made, and it is assured that all will be completed in time for the opening.

The late General John Pope, by dating one of his orders "Headquarters in the saddle," prompted the Confederate commander, Robert E. Lee, to perpetrate what was said to be the only joke of his life. He said, "what can you expect of a general who puts his headquarters where his hindquarters ought to be?"

Eugene Guard: In Governor Penoyer's speech at Roseburg he never mentioned the name of Gen. Weaver, his candidate for the presidency. The Governor does not feel just right because he was not nominated for the position himself, hence his dislike for Weaver.

JUDGE NELSON'S DECISION. Speaking of patent medicines, the Judge says: "I wish to deal fairly and honorably with all, and when I find an article that will do what it is recommended to do, I am not ashamed to say so. I am acquainted with Dr. Vanderpool, (having been treated by him for cancer) and have used his blood medicine, known as the S. B. Headache and Liver Cure, and while I am seventy-five years old, and have used many pills and other remedies for the blood, liver and kidneys, I must say that for a kidney tonic in Bright's disease, and as an alternative for the blood, or to correct the action of the stomach and bowels it is a very superior remedy, and beats anything I ever tried. J. B. NELSON, Yakima, Wash. At 50c a bottle. It is the poor man's friend and family doctor. For Sale By L. W. Darling & Co.
