

THE CONDON GLOBE.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1892.

NOTICE.

The yearly subscription to the GLOBE is $1.50, in advance. No deviation from this rule. The paper will be stopped at the end of the time for which it is paid unless further ordered and paid for. A blue pencil mark around this notice indicates that your subscription has expired, and if you wish the paper continued you should remit the amount as soon as possible.

GLOBOSITIES.

Sheriff Wilcox returned home Tuesday from a flying trip to The Dalles.

Charley Perrin visited his folks on Pine creek several days last week.

J. H. Downing and Gene Smith made a business trip to Portland this week.

H. B. Hendricks and family moved into their new little residence this week.

Dan Ward and Wm. Livingston are building a barn for W. L. Barker on his town property.

Rev. Wise will preach at Condon next Sunday, morning and evening, and at Matney at 2 p. m.

Rev. Rawlins of Fossil preached here Tuesday and Wednesday evenings to large congregations.

Dr. Weldon will leave here Thursday. Any one requiring his services should call before that time.

Miss Annie Lang took the oath and was inducted into the position of clerk at the U. S. land office at The Dalles Saturday.

The "world's fair" and races came off again this week at Slater's place in Lost Valley, and proved more successful than that three weeks ago.

Columbus had a lofty ambition, but our friend Jay Gould's beats it. The former desired only to discover this country—he didn't aspire to own it.

Rev. Wise has rented Miss Wineland's new dwelling house, which has just been completed. No cause for suspicion, ladies; he is only going to batch—that's all.

Sheriff Wilcox sold a horse Saturday belonging to L. W. Darling, to satisfy a delinquent school tax for this district. Johnny Maddock bought the horse for $33.50.

Born, Tuesday, Oct. 11, 1892, to the wife of Geo. Rippey at Mayville, a bouncing son. Mother and child doing well, but we are informed that George is still prostrated.

The Shaw property in Condon, belonging to Billy Barr, is offered for sale very cheap, if applied for soon. It can be bought all furnished throughout, ready to move into.

Col. R. A. Miller democratic candidate for presidential elector, has posters out announcing that he will address the people of this county at Arlington Wednesday, 28th inst.

State Grange Lecturer H. E. Hayes lectured to the Grange of this place Thursday afternoon. He will lecture at Lone Rock Saturday, Mayville Monday and Fossil Tuesday.

Oscar Wilde is coming to America this fall. We take occasion, in advance, to remind Mr. Wilde that in this country a man's real greatness is not measured by the length of his hair.

Fred Monroe, J. A. Spaulding, T. A. Renner, Frank Downer and Wm. Looney all brought their sheep in this week from the mountains. Howard Tobey, Jim Cameron and the other boys are expected in a few days.

Mackey Bros., photographers, will be in Lone Rock from Oct. 24th till Nov. 1. These gentlemen never fail to give the best of satisfaction, and those over there wanting such work, cannot afford to miss this opportunity.

A number of new scholars are attending our school, the most recent arrivals being Misses Laura and Nettie Schilling, Fannie Wooley, Ferd Halstead, Arthur Harlan and the families of Mrs. Mary Brown and Mrs. Lamberson.

C. R. Henson treated the boys to an exhibition of mule-bucking one day this week. Ray is an old-timer at that kind of work, and "staid with it" even when the mule ascended into the air a rod or two and turned round a few times.

Owing to the semi-annual statements being published this week, our news space is rather limited; but these statements will prove very interesting reading matter to all our taxpayers—they can see exactly where their money goes.

Tom Johnson has just finished painting the new Henshaw house and is now at work on J. W. Blake's residence. Nothing adds so much to the appearance of property as paint, and we are glad to note the pride of our citizens in that direction.

Those having the matter in charge have ordered through J. A. McMorris, agent for Thos. Kane & Co., a 210-lb bell for our new school house, and ere many more days the beautiful tones will ring out from the mammoth belfry on top of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler, father and mother of Arlington's worthy P. M. and J. P., who visited their children about a year ago, were so well pleased with Oregon that they have disposed of their home in Indiana and returned to stay, stopping for the present at Arlington.

A dispatch says that the wife of Chas. Billings, a poor mountaineer living in Ashley county, Tenn., has given birth to six children, all boys. They weighed from 4 1/2 to 9 pounds each, and are all alive. Mrs. Billings has four other children, but they were all born singly.

Col. Lucas, Squire Tatom, Bill Thurgie, Ed Trimble and several others tried their luck at grouse hunting the first of the week on upper Thirty mile and succeeded in bagging a large number. Like fishing, Jay as usual always comes out with the largest bag.

Henry Hartman and wife, who were married at Wheatland, Cal., about one year ago, arrived here Thursday, his father meeting them at Arlington with private conveyance. Henry is an industrious young man, and expects to locate permanently near Condon.

As our readers know, the 21st of October has been made a legal holiday. Our public schools have prepared an excellent program and will celebrate the occasion in a fitting manner, beginning in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. A large number of people expect to be present.

Pat Skelly made a trip to Rock creek this week in the interest of his property down there. Pat has made a barrel of money at Condon, and has used excellent judgment by investing all of it in real estate here and elsewhere. He will be a wealthy man some day.

A large force of carpenters have begun work on the huge armory and expect to rush the work through in order to have it completed by Thanksgiving, when the grandest military ball ever given in the state will take place. Posters for the grand event will be out in a few days. This will be by far the largest building in the county.

Secretary of the Navy Tracy has issued the following general order: "On the 21st of October, 1892, occurs the 400th anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, to whom Italy gave birth and Spain an opportunity of immortal achievement. All vessels of war of the United States commission in United States waters will at noon fire a salute of 21 guns, with the Italian and Spanish flags displayed side by side at the masthead. At all navy yards and stations where there are no vessels a salute of 21 guns will be fired, the flags being displayed in the same manner from the principal flagstaff of the yard." (Condon being the Headquarters for the 3d regiment, we would suggest that it would be about the proper thing to keep up with the procession by firing a salute of 21 guns (muskets) in this city).

West Fork Scouts.

W. G. Shepard will have a house-moving next week.

The dance at the school house last Friday night was in every way a grand success.

P. C. Boffington has 32 head of porkers which he is fattening preparatory for the knife.

The smiling countenance of Napoleon Bonaparte Hastings was visible on our streets one day this week.

Considerable fall grain is being sown in this neighborhood, and should next season be favorable, some of our farmers will be "squarely in it."

Notwithstanding the fact that our school house is in rather a dilapidated condition, several pupils are attending here who really belong in the Fossil district. This not only speaks well for our excellent teacher, Miss Hastings, who is teaching her first term, but also shows good judgment on the part of the parents.

Jas. King, one of our prosperous young stockmen, returned home Friday from Arlington where he delivered a large band of cattle, assisted by Myron Hamilton. Jim informed us that on his way home he stopped and had his measure taken for a year's worth of GLOBE. Every intelligent person in this section reads the great moral weekly. They all say there is no use in taking the Journal, as it is never published anyway until after the GLOBE comes over, and then copies from it, which makes it pretty stale news by the time the handful of Journals are distributed.

Lone Rock Rumbblings.

Dan Rinehart was up on business the 1st of the week.

John E. Johnson and family expect to move to Yakima in a short time.

Dock Brown came in from the mountain range Tuesday and reports sheep in fine condition.

Rev. Rawlins preached here Sunday morning and evening, and his efforts were highly appreciated by all, with the exception of a few who have no respect for themselves or anyone else.

Mr. M. Halverson has sold his 1/2 interest in Copner & Co.'s store to Perry L. Ham, consideration $2900. You see merchandise and matrimony produce too much strain upon Mat's mind, so he has abandoned the former.

The first case that our Squire Clarke has run through his justice mill was ground out Wednesday morning, where in the State of Oregon is plaintiff and Jas. Coleman and Nettie Robinson defendants. They were arrested for disturbing religious services at this place Sunday evening, by placing something like cayenne pepper or asafoetida on the stove, the stench from which "stunk out" the entire congregation. It was a disgraceful piece of work, and our good people are going to stamp out this kind of conduct in our midst by making an example of this case.

The young man who is constantly looking for a soft thing, has it under his hat.
